237.79 TELEPHONE COMPANY PROVIDING CABLE SERVICE.

A telephone company that provides cable television services shall, with respect to provisioning of those services in Minnesota, be subject to the same franchise requirements, procedures, and fees, and public, educational, and government access requirements as a cable communication company under chapter 238.

History: 1997 c 123 s 6