Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. Section sixty-two of chapter sixty-six of the general statutes is amended so as to read as follows:

Service in civil actions, how made.

Sec. 62. Where a plaintiff or defendant who has appeared resides out of the state, and has no attorney in the action, the service may be made by mail, if his residence is known, if not known, on the clerk for him. But where a party, whether resident or non-resident, has an attorney in the action the service of papers shall be upon the attorney instead of the party. But if the attorney shall have removed from the state such service may be made upon him personally, either within or without the state, or by mail to him at his place of residence, if known, and if not known, then by mail upon the party, if his residence is known whether within or without the state. And if the residence of neither the party or attorney are known the service may be made on the clerk for the attorney.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from after its passage.
