CHAPTER 243.

H. F. No. 732.

An act to provide additional means for completing and furnishing the court house and city hall building, now in process of erection in the city of Minneapolis, and to authorize the issue and sale of bonds therefor.

Hennepin county court house.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of providing further money for the completion and furnishing of the public building now in course of erection upon block 77 in the plat of the original town of Minneapolis, the board of courthouse and city hall commissioners, created and existing under and by virtue of chapter three hundred and ninety-five of the special laws of 1887, as supplemented and amended by chapter sixty-two of the special laws of 1889, is hereby authorized to issue and sell additional Hennepin and Minneapolis courthouse and city hall bonds to an amount not exceeding one million dollars in par value, over and above the amount authorized by the act aforesaid.

SEC. 2. Said additional bonds shall be designated "county series," and the whole or any part thereof may be issued and sold as such and shall become a charge against the county of Hennepin; and the payment of the principal thereof, and the interest thereon, shall be provided for by said county in the manner prescribed by section thirteen of said chapter three hundred and ninety-five of the special laws of 1887. They shall be in the same general form, and the lien thereof shall be the same as that of the county series of the Hennepin and Minneapolis courthouse and city hall bonds, already issued by said board, and their issue and sale shall be governed by the provisions of said chapter three hundred and ninety-five of the special laws of 1887, as regards the rate of interest to be paid thereon, the period for which the same shall run, the amount for which they may be sold, and the manner of signing, sealing and countersigning the same.

SEC. 3. The proceeds of such bonds may be used by said board of courthouse and city hall commissioners in the prosecution of their work upon any part of said building, and an accurate account shall be kept of so much thereof as may be expended upon the city and county parts of said building respectively, to the end that upon the final adjustment between said city and county provided for by section twelve of said chapter three hundred and ninety-five of the special laws of 1887, the entire cost of said building may be fairly and equitably apportioned between the two.

SEC. 4. No money realized from the sale of any bonds authorized by this act shall be expended by said board of courthouse and city hall commissioners until they shall have definitely ascertained, by means of itemized estimates, based upon detailed specifications and drawings, that the entire cost of said building when completed and ready for occupancy, exclusive of the site, but including heating and ventilating apparatus, plumbing, electric light plant, jail and lock-up work, office furniture, and all expenses of supervision and construction, will in no event exceed three million dollars, it being the purpose of this section to restrict the entire cost of said building and the furnishing thereof, exclusive of the cost of site, to the sum aforesaid.

SEC. 5. The funds derived from the sale of the bonds provided for in this act shall be deposited by the treasurer of the said board according to the directions of the said board, and all interest or income that may be received upon such deposits shall be accounted for to the said board, and shall be a part and parcel of the funds belonging to said board to be by them applied to the prose-
