CHAPTER 155.

S. F. No. 390.

An act providing for the issue of bonds for the purpose of building, enlarging, furnishing and equipping school-houses in school districts embraced within the limits of incorporated cities having a population of less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants.

School houses in cities of less than 10,000.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for the board of education or other board or body invested by law with the charge and control, direction and regulation of the public schools, in any school district embraced within the limits of, and whose district boundaries are co-terminous with the boundaries of any incorporated city having a population of less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants in this state, to issue its negotiable bonds in such amounts as may from time to time be found necessary, for the purpose of building or enlarging, furnishing and equipping, school houses in such district; provided, that no such Board authorized to issue bonds for building and furnishing school houses.

bonds shall be issued in any instance, unless the issuance thereof shall first have been determined upon by a vote of a majority of the members-elect of such body or board.

Resolution in writing and recorded.

Proposition to be submitted to the people

SEC. 2. The determination of any such board or body to issue bonds under the provisions of this act shall be by resolution in writing, which resolution shall be recorded at length in the minutes of its proceedings. Provided, that no such bonds shall be issued or be valid until after the proposition to issue the same shall have been submitted to a vote of the people of said school district, at a general or special election, notice of which shall be given and which shall be conducted in the same manner as elections for city officers are had under the provisions of the city charter of the city in which such school district is situate. If a majority of the voters voting at such election shall vote in favor of issuing such bonds, then said board of education may proceed to issue the same for the purposes above specified, unless a majority of the voters voting on such proposition shall vote in favor of issuing such bonds, such bonds shall be void.

Bonds to be not less than $100 and not more than $1,000 each.

SEC. 3. Such bonds, if issued, shall be for the principal sum of not less than one hundred (100) dollars, nor more than one thousand (1,000) dollars each, and shall draw interest payable semi-annually at a rate to be stated therein, not exceeding four (4) per cent per annum, and shall become due at such times not to exceed twenty (20) years after their date as such board may by resolution aforesaid provide; such bonds shall be signed by the president of such board and attested by the clerk or secretary of such board.

Tax to be levied to pay bonds.

SEC. 4. A tax shall be levied upon all the taxable property in such district and collected in the same way as other taxes in such district or city are levied and collected, at the proper times, and in sufficient amounts to pay the principal and interest of such bonds when the same shall become due, and the moneys so collected shall not be used or expended for any other purpose than the making of such payments.

Application of law.

SEC. 5. The provisions of this act shall apply to all school districts in cities containing less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants in the State of Minnesota, whether created under and by virtue of the provisions of any general law, or under and by virtue of any special law of this state.

SEC. 6. All acts or parts of acts, whether general or special, inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 7. This act shall not apply to school districts in cities which contain a population of over ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants.

SEC. 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 11, 1899.
