CHAPTER 240.

An act relating to the drawing and summoning petit jurors of the district court in counties having more than two hundred thousand inhabitants.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Juries, drawing and summoning of.

SECTION 1. That the clerk of the district court in counties having more than two hundred thousand (200,000) inhabitants, shall, in open court on the second day of any general term of said district court, under the direction of the judge or judges of said court, draw from the names on the list of persons selected to serve as petit jurors, made, certified and prepared for drawing as in the case of grand jurors, the names of as many persons as the court or judge shall direct, to serve as petit jurors for a period of two weeks in such term, commencing with the second Monday of such term; and shall then continue in like manner to draw the names of other persons for each panel for as many successive panels of petit jurors as the court or judge may direct for successive periods of two weeks, covering the time that petit jurors are expected to be needed during such general term. Such clerk shall forthwith issue to the proper officers venirens for such panels of petit jurors, returnable on the proper Mondays as to each, respectively, at ten (10) o'clock in the forenoon, and the officer shall forthwith thereafter, as soon as may be, serve all such venirens and summon all such jurors and shall be entitled to the same mileage, and no more, that would be the case if the names of all the jurors in all the venirens were contained in a single venire. If there be a deficiency of petit jurors, the clerk shall, in open court, under the direction of the judge, draw from the box containing the names on the petit jury list the names of additional persons to supply such deficiency; and writs of venire facias shall issue summoning such persons, and returnable forthwith, or at such time as the judge of the court may direct.

Jurors, how drawn and assigned to duty.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1899.
