CHAPTER 526—H. F. No. 952.

An Act relating to cemetery associations and authorizing the re-organization thereof in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. How cemetery association may reorganize.—Any cemetery association, not having a capital stock, heretofore organized under any law of this state, which has acquired a burial site and sold lots therefrom, and the management of which association is confined to the original members of the association, either by the statutes then in force or the certificate of organization, may re-organize in the following manner:

Sec. 2. Meeting to be held on published notice.—Any two or more of the original members of the association, or in case all of the original members are deceased, then any three or more of the lot owners in said burial site may issue a call for a meeting of the association to be held at a time and place designated in said notice, in the city or village nearest to said cemetery site, for the purpose of re-organizing said association. Such notice shall be published for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper printed in the place in which said meeting is to be held, and shall give at least thirty days notice of such meeting.

Sec. 3. Adoption of articles, and naming of trustees.—At the time and place mentioned in said notice those present shall organize and proceed to prepare and adopt, or authorize to be prepared and adopted articles of re-association, which articles of re-association shall conform to the requirements of the general laws of this state for the organization of public cemetery associations, and shall name the first board of trustees and such other officers as the meeting may determine, provided that a majority of said trustees and officers shall be first named and afterwards elected, from the members of the old association if there are sufficient survivors living in the county where the site is located or adjoining counties.

Sec. 4. To be recorded with register of deeds.—The trustees and officers so named and elected shall, as soon as such certificate of re-association is adopted, and recorded with the register
