

CHAPTER 27—H. F. No. 162.

An Act to amend Section 253, Revised Laws 1905, State of Minnesota, as amended by Chapter 108, General Laws of the State of Minnesota 1907, relating to the location of polling places for election.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Polling place to be established at State Soldiers' Home.—That Section 253, Revised Laws 1905, as amended by Chapter 108, General Laws 1907, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 1. Location of polling places.—No election shall be held or appointed to be held in any saloon or bar room, or in any room used or occupied as a place of resort for idlers or disreputable persons, or in any room adjoining either. Nor shall such election be held in any room wherein the requirements of this chapter relative to booths, railings and distances cannot be substantially complied with. Such polling places in all cities shall be upon the ground floor, in a front room, the entrance to which is upon a highway or public street at least forty feet wide and as near to the center of the voting population of the district as is practicable.

Provided, that in cities of less than 20,000 inhabitants polling places conveniently and clearly accessible may be in the second story of buildings complying in all other respects to the provisions of this act.

Provided, that in cities of more than 50,000 inhabitants in which a soldiers' home is located, said cities shall be empowered and authorized to establish a polling place for elections at the soldiers' home therein located.

Approved February 27, 1913.
