CHAPTER 282—S. F. No. 615.

An Act to appoint a commission to erect memorials to Minnesota soldiers in the national cemeteries at Little Rock, Arkansas, and Memphis, Tennessee.

Whereas, sixty-four known Minnesota officers and soldiers who were killed in battle and died of disease in the civil war, are buried in the national cemetery at Little Rock, Arkansas, and one hundred sixty-two known Minnesota officers and soldiers are buried in the national cemetery at Memphis, Tennessee, and many unknown Minnesota soldiers are buried in each of said cemeteries, and no memorial whatever has been erected by the state to their memory; therefore

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota

Section 1. Monuments to Minnesota soldiers at Little Rock and Memphis.—That C. C. Andrews, formerly of the Third Minnesota Regiment, Thomas P. Wilson, formerly of the Fourth Minnesota Regiment, Henry B. Dike, formerly of the Fifth Minnesota Regiment, Levi Longfellow, formerly of the Sixth Minnesota Regiment, and C. F. Macdonald, formerly of the Ninth Minnesota Regiment, are hereby appointed a commission to erect a monument in the national cemetery at Little Rock, Arkansas, and a monument in the national cemetery at Memphis, Tennessee, as memorials to the Minnesota officers and soldiers buried in those cemeteries. Said commissioners shall serve without compensation, but their necessary expenses may be paid out of any money which may be appropriated for the construction of said memorials.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 15, 1913.

CHAPTER 283—S. F. No. 654.

An Act ratifying and confirming the investment of current funds of cities of the first class in the bonds of the city, and authorizing the re-sale of such bonds.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certain city investment ratified and confirmed.

—In any case in which any city of the first class not organized under Section 36, Article 4 of the state constitution, or any department thereof, has invested any current funds in its city treasury in bonds of the city, with a view to make the fund while in the city treasury earn an interest income, such investment is hereby ratified and confirmed, and the city council or other body having control of such department and of such current funds is hereby authorized to re-sell such bonds whenever the funds are again needed for current purposes. Such sale shall be made only upon bids received after public advertisement not less than once a week for three successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city, and then only to be the highest responsible bidder therefor.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 15, 1913.
