CHAPTER 416—H. F. No. 214.

An Act requiring certain accidents occurring to employees in the state of Minnesota, and resulting in death or injuries, to be reported to the commissioner of labor of said state with data and information concerning the person injured, the industry in which injured, the nature, cause and duration of the injury, together with copies of all settlements and releases under or obtained in respect to such accident and prescribing a penalty for failure to make such reports and to repeal Chapter 235, General Laws of 1909, and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Report of accidents to employees to be made to labor commissioner.—It is hereby made the duty of every employer of labor, engaged in industrial pursuits, to make or cause to be made report of any accident to an employee, which occurs in the course of his or her employment and which causes death or serious injury, within 48 hours of the occurrence of such injury and of all other accidents which occur to any of its, his or their employees within the scope of their employment within fourteen days after the occurrence of such accident. Provided that such injuries are sufficient to wholly or partially incapacitate the person injured from labor or service for more than one week, which report shall be made in writing to the commissioner of labor of the state, giving:

- (a) Name, age, sex and occupation of injured person.
- (b) Date on which accident occurred and hour of day.
- (c) Whether person injured could speak English.
- (d) Occupation of employer.
- (e) The cause of injury.
- (f) The nature and extent of the injury and the probable length of disability.
- (g) The name and address of the attending surgeon.
- (h) Wages injured person was earning.
- (i) Length of time in service of employer and length of time at employment which injured.

Provided, that accidents required to be reported within 48 hours may be reported by telegram, telephone or personal notice. The written report of such accident shall then be made within 14 days or at such time as the commissioner of labor shall designate. The commissioner of labor may require such supplementary reports on any accident as he deems necessary for the securing of the information required by this law.

Sec. 2. Copies of settlements to be sent to labor commissioner.—Copies of all settlements made or releases obtained in respect to industrial accidents occurring in the state of Minnesota shall be filed with the labor commissioner.

Sec. 3. Failure a misdemeanor.—The failure to make such reports on the part of any person, co-partnership or corporation required hereby to make the same, within the time herein specified, is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. Report not to be used in trial, and not open for public inspection.—No report herein required to be made nor any part thereof, shall be admitted in evidence or referred to at the trial of any action, or in any judicial proceedings whatsoever, except prosecutions for the violation of this act.

No such report nor any part thereof, nor any copy of the same, nor any part thereof, shall be open to the public, nor shall any of the contents thereof be disclosed in any manner, by any official or clerk or other employee of the state having access thereto, but the same may be used for state investigations and statistics only. Any such disclosure is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor and punishable as such.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Sec. 6. Chapter 235, General Laws of 1909, and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved April 21, 1913.
