

There shall be attached to each certificate coupons evidencing the semi-annual installments of interest to fall due on the same, and which interest coupons shall be attested by the facsimile of the signature of the chairman of the board of county commissioners and of the county auditor.

Sec. 4. Tax levy for payment of interest and principal.—The board of county commissioners shall annually after the date of the issuance of said certificates of indebtedness levy a tax upon the taxable property of the county in addition to all other taxes levied, sufficient to pay the interest annually accruing upon the certificates of indebtedness issued in pursuance of this act, and in advance of the maturity of the principal of any of said certificates shall in like manner levy a tax upon the taxable property of said county, sufficient to pay such principal when due.

Sec. 5. County auditor to advertise for bids for the sale of certificates to highest bidder or bidders.—Before any such county shall be authorized to issue any certificates of indebtedness as herein authorized, the county auditor shall give notice by advertisement, published for at least one issue in each of at least three consecutive weeks in one daily newspaper published in said county, that bids will be received by the county board of said county for the sale of such certificates at the time named in such advertisement. The county board shall sell such certificates to the highest bidder or bidders, but in no case for less than par.

Sec. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 6, 1917.
