CHAPTER 218—H. F. No. 1042.

An act to authorize cities of the first class to levy taxes for paving arterial streets.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minneapolis council authorized to levy taxes for paving arterial streets.—The city council, or other governing body of any city of the first class not organized pursuant to section 36, article 4, of the state constitution, is hereby authorized to levy annually, with and as part of the general taxes of each of the years 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920, 1921, and 1922, a tax not exceeding one mill on each dollar of the assessed valuation of all property, real and personal, therein subject to general taxation, for the purpose of constructing permanent roadways not over twenty-four feet in width, in arterial streets, as hereinafter defined, but not more than 40% of the expense of paving any street shall be paid out of this fund.

Sec. 2. Council to designate arterial streets.—No street shall be deemed an arterial street unless it forms a part of a main thoroughfare leading from the city boundary to the populous districts of the city. Before levying any tax hereunder, the council shall designate the arterial streets upon which the proceeds of the tax may be expended and the streets so designated shall constitute the system of arterial streets on which such taxes may be expended and the system so designated shall not be changed during the life of this act.

Sec. 3. Certified copy of tax levy to be transmitted to board of tax levy.—The city council shall on or before the first day of September of each year, estimate the amount of such tax necessary to be levied with the taxes of that year and the amount of
