

Sec. 2. Amount of allowance.—The pension or retirement allowance to which any such employe shall be entitled who at the time of the adoption of such plan had been receiving in excess of $750.00 per annum shall be of the same amount and shall be calculated in the same manner as would have been pursued if the plan as provided by Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, and acts amendatory thereof, had been in effect at the time when the injury was received for which such compensation is paid as provided by Chapter 467, General Laws 1913, and acts amendatory thereof.

The pension or retirement allowance to which any such employe at rates of pay less than an average of $750.00 per annum shall be entitled shall be of the same amount and shall be calculated in the same manner as provided in Section 6, Chapter 522, General Laws 1919.

Sec. 3. Retirement board to determine amounts.—It shall be the duty of the said retirement board to determine the annual amount of any such allowance and to provide for payment thereof; provided, that payment thereof shall not begin until the compensation as provided by Chapter 467, General Laws 1913, and acts amendatory thereof, has ceased.

Sec. 4. Tax levy.—The retirement board in any such city shall include in the financial statement required by Section 14 of said Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, the amount, in addition to all other amounts, of the portion of any such disability or retirement allowance chargeable against the city, and it shall be the duty of the proper city officials in such city to levy a tax sufficient to provide such amount in addition to the amount to be levied pursuant to said Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, and amendments thereof.

Sec. 5. Powers of retirement board.—The retirement board provided by said Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, is hereby invested with all the rights, privileges and obligations relative to any such disability or retirement allowance and to the funds from which installments thereof are to be paid that pertain to the allowances and funds authorized by Chapter 522, General Laws 1919, including the right, privilege or obligation to cancel any such allowance under conditions specified therein.

Approved March 28, 1929.
