CHAPTER 271—H. F. No. 1344

An act to authorize any city of the third class situated in one county and adjacent or contiguous to a city of the first class in another county, to establish and maintain a public charity bureau for the purpose of providing public relief.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Cities of third class may establish public charity bureau in certain cases.—The city council or other governing body of any city of the third class situated in one county and adjacent or contiguous to a city of the first class in another county may, each year, by a five-sevenths vote of all of its members, the mayor concurring, levy and expend not to exceed three-eighths of one mill on the assessed valuation of such city, exclusive of money and credits, for the following purposes:

For the emergency relief of the residents of said city who are in distress from lack of food, clothing, shelter or warmth or from long continued illness.

Sec. 2. Relief administered by committee appointed by Mayor.—Such relief shall be administered through a committee appointed by the mayor and confirmed by a majority vote of all the members of said council or governing body, which committee in all cases shall be appointed anew each year and shall serve without compensation. All moneys shall be disbursed from said fund in the same manner as other moneys of the city, provided, however, that all disbursements shall be approved by said committee.

Sec. 3. All Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved April 15, 1933.

CHAPTER 272—S. F. No. 1368

An act to empower villages operating on a cash basis system, under the laws of this state, under which system certificates of indebtedness are issued, and under which system checks or warrants cannot be issued until there is money in the treasury available to pay the same, to issue warrants against certificates of indebtedness held by the village treasurer, when such certificates of indebtedness cannot be sold in the manner prescribed by law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Certificates of indebtedness may be issued in certain cases.—In all villages in this state now or hereafter operating on a cash basis system, under and pursuant to the authority of statutes affecting such villages, which statutes prohibit the issuance of checks or warrants until there is money in the treasury available to pay the same, and which provide for the issuance of certificates of indebtedness against taxes to be collected, the governing body of such village, if unable to sell such certificates of indebtedness in the manner prescribed by such laws, may issue such certificates of indebtedness to the village treasurer, or his order, and deposit the same with him. Certificates so issued shall be held by the treasurer until they may be sold, and shall bear interest at six per cent per annum. The village may thereupon, as long as such certificates are on deposit, with the treasurer, issue warrants upon the funds against which such certificates were issued, the total principal amount of such warrants not to exceed the total principal amount of the certificates so held by the treasurer. Such warrants shall bear interest at six per cent per annum from and after the date they are presented to the treasurer and stamped "Not paid for want of funds, but protected by certificates of indebtedness now held by me."

Sec. 2. Sale of certificates—disposition of proceeds.—Such
