

CHAPTER 323—H. F. No. 1369

An act continuing the Bank Tax Commission created pursuant to Laws 1929, Chapter 38, and Laws 1931, Chapter 275, and appropriating money therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Bank tax commission continued.—The Bank Tax Commission created pursuant to Laws 1929, Chapter 38, and Laws 1931, Chapter 275, is hereby continued, with the powers and duties provided for in said Act.

Sec. 2. Members of commission.—The members of said Commission shall consist of the Attorney General, the members of the Minnesota Tax Commission, and three members of the Senate and three members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by each House in the same manner, as provided by the rules thereof for the appointment of committees.

Sec. 3. Appropriation.—There is hereby appropriated the unexpended balance to the credit of said Commission of the appropriation made by said Laws 1929, Chapter 38, and Laws 1931, Chapter 275, and there is also appropriated for the purposes of said Commission the sum of $4,000.00.

Sec. 4. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1933.

CHAPTER 324—S. F. No. 174

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 8585, relating to grounds for divorce.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Grounds for divorce.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 8585, be amended so as to read as follows:

"8585. A divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be adjudged by the district court for any of the following causes:

1. Adultery.
2. Impotency.

3. Cruel and inhuman treatment.
4. Sentence to imprisonment in any state prison or state reformatory subsequent to the marriage; and in such a case a pardon shall not restore the conjugal rights.
5. Wilful desertion for one year next preceding the commencement of the action.
6. Habitual drunkenness for one year immediately preceding the commencement of the action.
7. Incurable insanity. But no divorce shall be granted upon this ground unless the insane party shall have been under regular treatment for insanity, and because thereof, confined in an institution for a period of at least five years immediately preceding the commencement of the action. In granting a divorce upon this ground, notice of the pendency of the action shall be served in such manner as the court may direct, upon the nearest blood relative and guardian of such insane person, and the superintendent of the institution in which he is confined. Such relative or guardian and superintendent of the institution shall be entitled to appear and be heard upon any and all issues. The status of the parties, as to the support and maintenance of the insane person shall not be altered in any way by the granting of the divorce."

Approved April 20, 1933.
