

CHAPTER 81—S. F. No. 668

An act to amend Chapter 323, Session Laws of Minnesota for 1931, being an act relating to wild animals, amending Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5568, as amended, and Section 5574, with respect to the spearing of fish.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Pike and Pickerel open season.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5568, as amended by Laws 1929, Chapter 323, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"5568. Wall-eyed pike (except sand pike), Great Northern pike or pickerel, and yellow perch, may be taken by angling and thereafter possessed, between May 15th and February 1st following, both inclusive.

Providing however, that in St. Louis, Lake and Cook Counties, Great Northern pike or pickerel may be taken by angling and thereafter possessed between May 15th and March 15th following, both inclusive.

A person may take not to exceed eight (8) such pike, Great Northern Pike or Pickerel, in a day, and may have not to exceed sixteen (16) such pike, Great Northern Pike or Pickerel in his possession at one time. Yellow Perch may be taken and possessed without limit as to number; provided, that the commissioner may, whenever he deems it necessary to prevent the undue depletion of perch in any waters, fix by regulation a limit of twenty-five (25) perch per day therein. All such fish taken, regardless of size, may be retained in possession and counted.

Wall-eyed Pike, Great Northern pike or pickerel, and perch, except those taken from waters which may be open for the sale thereof by the commissioner, may not be bought or sold at any time. Great Northern pike or pickerel may be taken by spearing except during the closed season therefor."

Approved March 16, 1933.

CHAPTER 82—S. F. No. 681

An act to repeal Chapter 278, General Laws of Minnesota for the year 1931, entitled "An Act requiring banks and certain corporations to report to the Minnesota Tax Commission information as to their net income, net profits and taxes paid, and providing penalty for failure so to do."
