CHAPTER 82—H. F. No. 369.

An act authorizing the county assessor of any county in this state having the county assessor system for the assessment of property for the purposes of taxation, to employ such additional employees during the year 1936 as may be necessary to assess household goods in such county, and authorizing the board of county commissioners of such county to pay the salaries of such employees from any unappropriated funds of the county.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Additional employees of county assessor to assess personal property.—That the county assessor of any county in this state having the county assessor system for the assessment of property for the purposes of taxation, may employ such additional employees as may be necessary during the year 1936 in order to assess household goods in such county.

Sec. 2. Salaries to be fixed by county board.—The salaries of such additional employees shall be fixed by the county assessor subject to the approval of the Board of County Commissioners, and shall be paid out of any funds of the county not otherwise appropriated.

Approved January 24, 1936.
