

CHAPTER 177—S. F. No. 461

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5868, relating to the public service of stallions and jacks and providing a lien therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Lien for service—action.—Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5868 is hereby amended to read as follows:

"5868. Every stallion or jack owner complying with the provisions of this act shall have a lien on each mare served and first lien on the offspring resulting from such service, to the amount of the agreed service fee. Said lien shall become effective upon the birth of the foal or upon the fulfillment by the owner of said stallion or jack of his contract, or in case of removal or attempted removal of the mare without consent of the person holding the lien, from the county wherein her owner resides at the time of service, and it shall remain effective for a period of twenty-four (24) months from the date of service. In case his right of action accrues, the owner of such stallion or jack may file with any justice of the peace in the county, a written statement containing his cause for action, amount of his claim and a description of the mare upon which he has a lien, and the justice shall thereupon issue a summons as in other cases and an order to the constable to take the animal and her offspring if there be an offspring, and hold (her) or them subject to the order of the court. If upon trial, judgment be rendered for the plaintiff the court shall order a sale of the animal or animals to pay the judgment and costs."

Approved April 8, 1937.
