CHAPTER 199—H. F. No. 1101

An act to provide in certain cases for the separation from cities located on navigable boundary waters having a population of not less than twenty thousand or more than fifty thousand inhabitants, of unplatted agricultural lands included in the corporate limits of such city and attaching the same to adjoining towns or townships in the same county and defining the duties of the county commissioners in such cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Unplatted land to be separated from cities in certain cases.—The owners of seventy-five per cent or more of any contiguous unplatted tract or tracts or parcels of land containing not less than forty acres included within the corporate limits of any city in this State located on navigable boundary waters having a population of not less than twenty thousand or more than fifty thousand inhabitants, and used and occupied exclusively for agricultural purposes may petition the District Court of the county in which such
