

corporations, subject to the rules, regulations or standards as employer or employe, on a fair and equitable basis therein set forth, assessments sufficient for expenses incurred in connection with the promulgation of the rules, regulations or standards, and administration, to be paid to the State Treasurer as may be prescribed.

Sec. 5. Orders of Governor to be reviewed by district court.—All orders of the Governor prescribing, approving, disapproving, modifying, amending or terminating rules, regulations or standards shall be subject to review by any District Court of the state. In any such action, no injunction suspending the operation of the rule, regulation or standard, or any part thereof, during the pendency of the action shall be granted except upon the filing or approval by the court of a good and sufficient bond, running to the state and enforceable by the Governor, on behalf of all parties in interest, conditioned for the payment of all damages, loss of profits and of wages which may be sustained by any employer or employe affected by reason of such suspension, in the event the validity of the rule, regulation or standard shall be finally sustained.

Sec. 6. District Courts may restrain and prevent violation of rules.—The District Courts of the state are hereby vested with jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violation of any rule, regulation or standard to prevent unfair competition and unfair trade practices approved under this act, and it shall be the duty of the County Attorney of any county having jurisdiction to institute proceedings in equity to prevent and restrain such violations.

Sec. 7. Violations a misdemeanor.—Any person who violates any of the provisions of this act or who violates any duly adopted rule, regulation or standard, or who neglects, fails or refuses to comply with any notice duly issued by the Governor, or who fails, refuses or neglects to perform any duty imposed upon him by this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished accordingly.

Sec. 8. Governor may appoint enforcement agents.—The Governor may designate or appoint such agents, deputies, commissioners, or any department of the state, to administer and enforce every order, rule, regulation or standard prescribed or approved by him.

CHAPTER 236—H. F. No. 29

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes 1927, Section 5537, relating to wild animals and to the taking of big game.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927, Section 5537, be amended so as to read as follows:

"5537. Open season for big game.—Deer may be taken from November 15 to November 25, both inclusive, in even numbered years only, but nothing in this chapter shall be construed to permit the taking or killing of moose, elk or caribou at any time. Except that one antlered moose may be taken within the Northwest Angle State Forest during such open season as may be provided in any year between October 10 to October 20 inclusive, through the issuance of orders therefor by the Director of the Division of Game and Fish, who with the approval of the Commissioner of Conservation shall promulgate and publish rules and regulations in keeping with the minutes and resolutions of the Conservation Commission prescribing the manner of taking and transporting such big game and all further provisions which are deemed necessary and pertinent thereto. The license fee for the hunting of such game in the Northwest Angle State Forest shall be $5.25 for residents and $50.25 for non-residents. Each such licensee may take one antlered moose during such season as may be provided."

Sec. 2. Penalties for violations.—Any person found guilty of the violation of the above act shall be punishable by a fine of not less than $75.00 nor more than $100.00, or by imprisonment in the County Jail not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days.

Sec. 3. Inconsistent acts modified.—Any acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby modified and amended so far as may be necessary to give full force and effect to the provisions of this act.

Approved April 17, 1937.
