CHAPTER 302—S. F. No. 999

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2823, relating to the power of school boards to admit pupils from other districts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2823, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"2823. Admission of non-resident pupils to schools.—The child or children of any person in this state not resident within the limits of any incorporated city or village of this state, and residing more than two miles by the nearest traveled road from the schoolhouse in the district where such child or children reside, are hereby authorized to attend school at a school or schoolhouse in an adjoining district nearer to such residence than the said schoolhouse in the said district where such child or children reside, upon such reasonable terms as shall be fixed by the school board of such adjoining district, upon application of the parents or guardian of such child or children. The school board of the child's resident district shall pay such tuition to the school board of the adjoining district in which the child is attending. In case the school board of the child's resident district is not satisfied or cannot comply with the terms and conditions fixed and determined by the school board of such adjoining district, and shall apply to the Commissioner of Education for that purpose, the Commissioner of Education shall give such notice of such application to the clerk of the school board of such adjoining district as shall be determined by such Commissioner of Education and shall after such notice, decide such application and fix such terms and conditions for the attendance of such child or children in such adjoining district as shall be just and reasonable, and thereupon such child or children may attend such school in such adjoining district upon compliance with the terms fixed by such Commissioner of Education, the same in other respects as if resident in the district where such schoolhouse is situated. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing, amending or modifying the provisions of section 1321, Revised Laws of 1905, as amended by chapter 445, of the General Laws of Minnesota, 1907."

Approved April 19, 1937.

CHAPTER 303—S. F. No. 997

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2757, relating to liability of consolidated school districts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Law amended.—That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2757, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"2757. Liability of common school district.—At such meeting the electors shall elect from their number a chairman and clerk who shall be the officers of the meeting. The chairman shall appoint two tellers, and the meeting and election shall be conducted as are annual meetings in common and independent districts. The vote at such election or meeting shall be by ballot, which shall read "For Consolidation" or "Against Consolidation." The officers at such meeting or election shall, within ten days thereafter, certify the result of the vote to the superintendent of the county in which such district mainly lies. If a majority of the votes cast be for consolidation, the county superintendent within ten days thereafter shall make proper orders to give effect to such vote, and shall thereafter transmit a copy thereof to the auditor of each county in which any part of any district affected lies, and to the clerk of each district affected, and also to the superintendent of education. If the order be for the formation of a new district, it shall specify the number of such district. The county superintendent shall also cause ten days' posted notice, and one week's published notice, if there be a newspaper published in such district, to be given of a meeting to elect officers of the newly formed consolidated school district; provided, that the board of a consolidated school district shall from and after the formation of the consolidated district have all the powers, privileges and duties, now conferred by law upon boards of independent districts.
