

sive on all parties for the purposes of the jurisdiction of the court. In case such judgment is not removed, by demand of either party, to the municipal court within five days after the entry thereof, as provided in this chapter, and the judgment remains unsatisfied, the judgment, on order of the judge shall be docketed in the municipal court by the clerk and shall thereupon be, and be enforced as, the judgment of the municipal court, or the judge may retain jurisdiction for the collection and satisfaction of the judgment by payment to him, but no execution shall issue from the conciliation court.

By its terms, the judgment may provide for its satisfaction by payment into court, either in a lump sum or in instalments and in such amounts and at such times as to the judge may under the circumstances of the case seem just and reasonable.

The conciliation court shall be subject to the direction of the judge thereof, but the judges of the municipal court may prescribe rules as to procedure, methods of producing evidence, and general conduct of the case, and the trial thereof, under the provisions of this section, and for carrying out all the provisions of this chapter.
