Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. That Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 260.05, be amended to read:

260.05. Ramsey county; salary of bailiff in juvenile court. In all counties having more than 300,000, and less than 450,000 inhabitants, a bailiff of the juvenile court may be appointed by the judge of the court. He shall serve four years unless removed by the judge for cause and shall be in attendance at all sessions of the court, make and serve all summons, writs, warrants, and processes issued out of the court and perform such other duties as may be directed by the judge. He shall have all the authority of a deputy sheriff and when his services are not required by the juvenile court, he may, with the consent of the court, be called upon by the sheriff to serve as such deputy. In case of his absence, the sheriff shall, upon request of the judge, assign a deputy to perform his duties. The bailiff shall receive the salary fixed by the Board of County Commissioners, which sum shall include all expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties within the county.

Approved February 26, 1949.
