tion, $9.79 and Division of Petroleum, $2,702.07.

Sec. 48. Application of salary increases; provisions. The salaries of all employees in the unclassified service of the state for which an appropriation is made in this Act, whose salary is not herein or otherwise fixed by law, shall be adjusted to the class of persons in the classified service performing comparable work and having comparable responsibility, as determined by the director of civil service, but in no event to an amount in excess of the maximum of such class.

Sec. 49. Fees. The fees fixed for the various accounts for which an appropriation is made in this act pursuant to existing authority of law shall be neither increased nor decreased except with the approval of the commissioner of administration. All such fees shall be reviewed at least once each six months, and such adjustments shall be made to the end that the total fees received shall approximate the amount appropriated for the several funds.

Sec. 50. Unobligated balances. The unobligated balances on hand as of June 30, 1949, June 30, 1950, and June 30, 1951, in the several appropriations and accounts for each of the state departments or divisions for which an appropriation is made herein out of the general revenue fund, are hereby cancelled into said general revenue fund as of June 30, 1949, June 30, 1950, and June 30, 1951, and the unobligated balances on hand as of June 30, 1949, June 30, 1950, and June 30, 1951, appropriated out of any other funds, shall be cancelled into the fund from which they are appropriated as of June 30, 1949, June 30, 1950, and June 30, 1951. The provisions of this section shall not apply to aid contributions, or reimbursements, received from the Federal government by the state; and all such federal aid, contributions or reimbursements are hereby reappropriated for the purpose of supplementing the appropriations herein provided.

Sec. 51. Income deposited in general revenue fund. Except as herein otherwise provided, all income, including fees or receipts of any nature whatsoever, except all federal aid, contributions or reimbursements received for any account of any division or department for which an appropriation is made in this act, shall be deposited in and for the benefit of the general revenue fund.

Sec. 52. Counties share of state inheritance taxes. The state auditor and state treasurer are hereby authorized to set aside in a separate account the amount due the several counties as their share of the state inheritance tax under the provisions of General Laws 1911, Chapter 209, Section 21-D, and acts amendatory thereof, and to pay to the county treasurer of the several counties such amounts at the end of each fiscal year.

Sec. 53. Misappropriation of fund. It is hereby made illegal for any official or head of any state department or any employee thereof to use moneys appropriated by this act or fees collected for any other purpose than the purpose for which such moneys have been appropriated and any such act by any head of a department or any state official is hereby declared to be illegal and because for immediate removal of such official or head of a state department from the position he holds with the government of this state, or if proof is made of such charge before any judge of any district court of this state, such court may cause such official or head of a state department to be removed upon proof being duly made of the misappropriation or for any other purpose than which the appropriation was made, except in an emergency and then only with the approval of the commissioner of administration. Provided, however, that funds may be transferred to the credit of the State Employees' Retirement Fund and used for the purposes thereof, as provided by law.

Sec. 54. No publicity representatives; exceptions. No state department, bureau or division, whether the same operates on funds appropriated or receipts or fees of any nature whatsoever, except the Highway Department, the Game and Fish Division and the Division of Employment and Security shall use any of such funds for the payment of the salary or expenses of a publicity representative. The head of any such department, bureau or division shall be personally liable for funds spent contrary to this provision. This act shall not be construed, however, as preventing any such department, bureau or division from sending out any bulletins or other publicity required by any state law or necessary for the satisfactory conduct of the business for which such department, bureau or division was created.

Sec. 55. Reappropriation of certain moneys. Subdivision 1. All moneys appropriated by Laws 1941, Chapter 529, and by Laws 1945, Chapter 609, Section 57, for purposes which have not been accomplished and remaining unexpended on June 30, 1949, are hereby reappropriated to the agencies of the state as therein named and for the purposes as therein stated, and are made available until such purposes have been accomplished. All other provisions of Laws 1941, Chapter 529, Laws 1943, Chapter 617, and Laws 1945, Chapter 609, Section 57, are hereby extended and reenacted.

Subd. 2. The moneys appropriated by Laws 1943, Chapter 660, Section 58, and by Laws 1945, Chapter 609, Section 58, for purposes which have not been accomplished and remaining unexpended or unencumbered on June 30, 1949, are hereby reappropriated to the agencies of the state therein named, and for the purposes therein stated, and are made available until such purposes have been accomplished.

All other provisions of Laws 1943, Chapter 660, Section 58, and Laws 1945, Chapter 609, Section 58, are hereby extended and reenacted.

Subd. 3. All unexpended balances of any appropriations to the Governor by Laws 1943, Chapter 500, are hereby reappropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1951, subject to the provisions of said act.

All powers and duties imposed upon the governor, the state auditor, the state treasurer or any other state officer or agency, by provisions of Laws 1943, Chapter 500, are hereby extended and reenacted.

The provisions of Laws 1943, Chapter 500, relating to the certificates of indebtedness, are reenacted subject to the maximum authority contained in said acts.

Subd. 4. All unexpended balances of money appropriated or made available to the governor by Minnesota Statutes 1945, Sections 360.301 to 360.306, are hereby reappropriated to the governor for the biennium ending June 30, 1951, subject to all limitations and conditions of such act, which limitations and conditions are hereby extended and reenacted so far as applicable. All powers granted and all duties imposed upon the governor, the state auditor, the state treasurer, or any other state officer or agency by Minnesota Statutes 1945, Sections 360.301 to 360.306, are hereby continued and reenacted.

ed. All provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 360.301 to 360.306, as amended by Laws 1947, Chapter 585, relating to certificates of indebtedness are hereby continued and reenacted, provided that the total amount issued thereunder and under this act shall not exceed $2,900,000.

Sec. 56a. Legislative Advisory Committee. Whenever it becomes necessary in order to meet the current demands upon the revenue fund for the payment of warrants issued or to be issued against said fund pursuant to appropriations, the governor, after securing the recommendation of the legislative advisory committee, which shall be advisory only, or, if there be no such committee, the governor, the state auditor, and the state treasurer, as a special committee, at any time prior to June 30, 1951, may authorize the issuance and sale of certificates of indebtedness of the state, payable out of said revenue fund, in such amount as may be necessary to pay such warrants; such certificates to be signed by the state treasurer, attested and recorded by the state auditor, and to be numbered serially and to be of such denomination and bear such dates of issue and of maturity and such rate of interest as the governor or such special committee shall determine; provided, that no such certificate shall mature after the current fiscal year, and provided further, that the aggregate amount of such certificate at any time outstanding shall never exceed $5,000,000. The failure or refusal of the advisory committee, if there be one, to make a recommendation promptly shall be deemed a negative recommendation. If funds are not available to retire any such certificate at maturity, the same may be refunded by the issuance of new certificates or may be extended by agreement with the holders thereof. Certificates issued and sold pursuant to the authorization of this act shall be retired out of the receipts of the revenue fund appropriated to the payment of the warrants issued against said fund but taken up with the proceeds of such certificates. The sum of $50,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated and made available for the biennium ending June 30, 1951, to pay the interest upon such certificates.

b. The state board of investment, or its successor in authority, is hereby authorized to purchase the certificates of indebtedness herein authorized for any fund which it is authorized to invest, provided, it shall not purchase any such certificates bearing interest at a rate of less than one and one-half per cent per annum.

Sec. 57. Duties of state auditor. The state auditor is hereby authorized and directed to transfer to the general revenue fund in the state treasury, all monies credited to any fund established in connection with the payment of certificates of indebtedness when the purposes for which the act authorizing such certificates has been accomplished.

Subd. 1. There is hereby transferred to the general revenue fund the following sums to reimburse the general revenue fund for amounts transferred out of the general contingent fund for the following purposes, for the following years:

1. Department of Rural Credit Expense fund, for salaries for the year ending June 30, 1948$ 5,000
2. Department of Education, On the Job
Training Revolving, for the year ending
June 30, 1948 3,000

Division, license plates, for the year ending
June 30, 1948 12,920.76
Trunk Highway Fund, for Motor Vehicle
Division, license plates, for the year ending
June 30, 1949 10,536.03

Subd. 2. There is hereby transferred to the general revenue fund the sum of $286,780.98 to reimburse the general revenue fund for the cost of collecting the tax on gasoline and gasoline substitutes during the 1947-1949 biennium, and the additional sum of $2,483.01 to reimburse the general revenue fund for the cost of collecting the tax on gasoline and gasoline substitutes during the 1945-1947 biennium, 2/3rds from the trunk highway fund, and 1/3rd from the state road and bridge fund before that fund has been apportioned and distributed.

Subd. 3. The unexpended and unencumbered balance in funds established by Laws 1947, Chapter 634, Section 46, are hereby cancelled into the general revenue fund as of June 30, 1949.

Subd. 4. The unencumbered and unexpended balances from the following funds are hereby transferred to and for the benefit of the General Revenue Fund:

1. Donors' Minnesota Agricultural Award Program	$3,300.94
2. Maintenance-State Aviation	1,108.14
3. Revolving Fund loans to Disabled Persons ..	2,677.66
4. Escheats	4.00
5. U. S. Withholding Tax Deductions	27.60
6. State employees war bond deductions	97.65

Subd. 5. The moneys on hand and hereafter received in the Pillsbury State Forest account shall be placed in the State Forest account and made applicable to the provisions of M. S. 1945, Sec. 89.035 and 89.036. All monies heretofore accumulated in the State Forest account shall be made applicable to the provisions of M. S. 1945, Section 89.035 and 89.036.

Sec. 58. Maximum liability for salary increases. The amounts appropriated for salary increases herein are intended to constitute a maximum liability for that purpose in the various accounts for which such an appropriation is made, and the various officials are directed to permit salary increases in such manner that there shall be available sufficient funds for salary increases for each employee in each department in accordance with the law in relation to salary increases. Salary increases shall not be granted unless sufficient funds remain unobligated in the department by reason of previously granted salary increases, so that the liability for all salary increases, if they were all to be paid for a twelve months' period, would not exceed the funds provided for that purpose in this act.

Sec. 59. Appropriation subject to certain limitations. All the foregoing appropriations herein contained are to be expended subject to the provision of Laws 1939, Chapter 431.

No appropriation shall become available for expenditure until such estimates as required by Section 16, Article II, of such act shall have been approved by the Commissioner of Administration. No obligation involving expenditure of money shall be entered into unless there is a balance in the appropriation available not otherwise encumbered to pay obligations previously incurred.

Approved April 25, 1949.

CHAPTER 741—H. F. No. 1814

[Not Coded]

An act creating an interim commission to make a study of the veterans' preference in public employment and civil service laws of this state; requiring the commission to make a report covering recommended amendments to and revisions of existing laws to the next regular session of the Legislature and appropriating money therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Veterans preference in public employment commission. A commission of eight members is created consisting of two members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House, two members of the Senate appointed by the committee on Committees of the Senate and four members from the four major veterans organizations in the state, namely; one member to be selected and appointed by and from within the membership of the American Legion, Department of Minnesota, and likewise one member to represent the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Minnesota, and likewise one member to represent the Disabled American Veterans, Department of Minnesota, and likewise one member to represent the American Veterans Committee, Department of Minnesota. The appointments shall be made forthwith upon passage of this act, or as soon thereafter as the next annual state conventions of such veterans organizations shall confirm such veteran members respectively. The Commission shall be known as the Veterans' Preference in Public Employment Commission. The members of the Commission shall elect one member as chairman thereof.
