CHAPTER 596—H. F. No. 158

[Coded]

An act relating to civil service; providing for appointment of a director of civil service; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 43.04.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. [43.041] The director of the state civil service shall be appointed by the civil service board for a term of six years on the basis of merit and fitness, after an open, competitive examination, open to qualified persons without regard to residence and without regard to the provisions of section 43.30, or 197.45 to 197.48, or acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. Whenever a vacancy exists in the office of the director of the state civil service, the civil service board shall appoint an examining committee of three persons to examine the qualifications of all persons applying for appointment to the office of director of the state civil service. The examining committee shall be composed of persons of recognized standing as administrators or personnel officials in either the public service or private industry and may be non-residents of the state. As soon as practicable after its appointment, the examining committee shall examine applicants for the position of director of the state civil service and certify to the board the names of not less than three nor more than five persons rated highest in the competitive tests and found by the committee to possess the necessary qualifications for the office of director of the state civil service. The board by and with the advice and consent of the senate shall then appoint one of the persons so certified to the office of director of the state civil service. No person who has not been examined and certified by an examining committee, as herein provided for, shall be appointed to the office of director of the state civil service. The civil service board shall fix the compensation and authorize the payment of expenses of members of the examining committee provided for in this section. Upon the expiration of his six year term, the director may be reappointed without further examination by the board by and with the advice and consent of the senate.

The director of the state civil service shall be in the classified service and be subject to Minnesota Statutes 1953, section 43.24.

Sec. 2. Repealer. Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 43.04, is hereby repealed.

Approved April 20, 1955.
