

CHAPTER 241—S. F. No. 818

[Not Coded]

An act authorizing bonds for construction, remodeling, or rebuilding school houses in certain school districts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Bond issue for school buildings, tax levy. Any school district now or hereafter having a population of more than 10,000 and less than 20,000 and having an assessed valuation in excess of $20,000,000 of which at least 10 percent consists of iron ore, may issue and sell its bonds in the principal amount of not to exceed $785,000 for the purpose of constructing, remodeling, or rebuilding a school house or school houses and to reimburse the general fund of the district for money advanced or paid out for such purposes within two years prior to the passage of this act. Such bonds shall be issued and sold in the manner provided by Minnesota Statutes, Section 475.60. The taxes levied by the district for the payments of such bonds and interest thereon, shall be excluded in computing the limitations prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, Section 275.12. The authority granted by this act shall be in addition to and not a limitation upon any other powers of the district with respect to the issuance and payment of bonds. The authority to issue bonds under this act shall expire January 1, 1959.

Approved March 28, 1957.

CHAPTER 242—S. F. No. 840

[Coded]

An act relating to the powers of the adjutant general in relation to the federal government.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. [190.16] Additional powers of adjutant general. Subdivision 1. The adjutant general may cooperate with the government of the United States or any agency or department thereof in the construction, improvement, or maintenance of buildings, air bases, roads, utilities and any or all other structures or facilities required in the training, housing, and maintenance of the military forces of the state and to comply with the provisions of the laws of the United States and any rules and regulations made thereunder for the expenditure of federal moneys for the military forces of the state.

Subd. 2. The adjutant general may accept federal moneys and other moneys, either public or private, for and in behalf of the state of Minnesota, for the support of the state's military forces, and for the construction, improvement, or maintenance of buildings, air bases, roads, utilities and any or all other structures or facilities required in the training, housing, and maintenance of the military forces of the state upon such terms and conditions as are or may be prescribed by the laws of the United States and any rules or regulations made thereunder.

Subd. 3. When prescribed or required by the laws of the United States and any rules or regulations made thereunder, and notwithstanding any state law to the contrary, the adjutant general shall be the contracting officer for any construction, improvement or maintenance program or project financed either in whole or in part by moneys made available by the federal government and may execute agreements and contracts for and in behalf of the state therefor, including a dedication of the primary use and purpose of such buildings, air bases, roads, utilities or other structures or facilities required in the training, housing, and maintenance of the military forces of the state for periods up to and including 25 years.

Subd. 4. All moneys accepted for disbursement by the adjutant general pursuant to the terms of this act shall, if not required by federal law or rules or regulations made thereunder to be disbursed by a United States property and fiscal officer, be deposited in the state treasury and, unless otherwise prescribed by the authority from which the money is received, kept in separate funds, designated according to the purposes for which the moneys were made available and held by the state in trust for such purposes. All such moneys are hereby appropriated for the purposes for which the same were made available to be expended in accordance with the laws of the United States and rules and regulations made thereunder. The adjutant general, when acting for the state of Minnesota, or when requested by the United States government or any agency or department thereof, shall disburse such moneys for the designated purposes but this shall not preclude any other authorized method of disbursement.

Subd. 5. Nothing in this act shall be construed as creating any personal liability upon the adjutant general when acting pursuant to this act.

Sec. 2. Lease of lands to United States. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, the adjutant general, with the approval of the governor, may lease any lands now owned or hereafter acquired by the state for the training, housing, and maintenance of its military forces or any part thereof to the United States of America for military and national defense purposes upon such terms as they deem proper providing, however, that no such lease shall in any way interfere with the training, housing and maintenance of the military forces of this state.

Approved March 28, 1957.

CHAPTER 243—S. F. No. 885

An act relating to insurance, prohibiting certain provisions in life insurance policies; amending Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 61.34.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 61.34, is amended to read:

61.34 Provisions which no policy may include. No policy of life insurance shall be issued or delivered in this state, or be issued by a life insurance company organized under the laws of this state, if it contains a provision:

(1) for forfeiture of the policy for failure to repay any loan on the policy or to pay interest on such loan while the total indebtedness on the policy is less than the loan value thereof; or for forfeiture for failure to repay any such loan or to pay interest thereon, unless such provision contain a stipulation that no such forfeiture shall occur until at least one month after notice shall have been mailed by the company to the last known address of the insured and of the assignee, if any, notice of whose address and contract of the assignment has been filed with the company, at its home office; or

(2) limiting the time within which any action at law or in equity may be commenced to less than five years after the cause of action shall accrue; or

(3) by which the policy shall purport to be issued or to take effect more than six months before the original application for the insurance was made; or

(4) for any mode of settlement at maturity of less value than the amount insured on the face of the policy plus
