

CHAPTER 277—S. F. No. 84

[Not Coded]

An act relating to game and fish; providing for management of muskellunge fishing in certain lakes by the commissioner of conservation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Muskellunge; designation of lakes as habitat. The Commissioner of Conservation, after notice and hearing, may designate not more than ten lakes in the state, each of which is known to be the habitat of muskellunge, and provide special rules and regulations applicable only to these lakes for the management of fishing therein. Such special rules and regulations may include among other things prohibition of darkhouse spearing or angling or both in any one or more of these designated lakes, but must be designed and promulgated solely to further experiment and research in the problems of conservation and propagation of muskellunge in the state.

Sec. 2. The lakes so designated may not exceed in aggregate area 15,000 acres. The authority granted hereby, including rules or regulations promulgated thereunder, shall expire February 15, 1965.

Approved April 11, 1961.

CHAPTER 278—S. F. No. 400

[Coded]

An act empowering the state college board to enact rules and regulations governing the operation and parking of vehicles upon property owned, leased, or occupied by the state colleges, providing personnel for the enforcement thereof, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. [169.966] State college board to regulate traffic. Subdivision 1. The state college board may from time to time make, adopt, and enforce such rules, regulations, or ordinances not inconsistent with the Highway Traffic Regulation Act, Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 169, as amended, as it may find expedient or necessary relating to the regulation of traffic and parking upon private roads and roadways situated on property owned, leased, or occupied by state colleges.

Subd. 2. Any person violating such rule, regulation, or ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in jail or the workhouse for not more than 90 days, or by a fine of not more than $100.

Subd. 3. The prosecution may be before any municipal court or justice of the peace having jurisdiction over the place where the violation occurs.

Subd. 4. Every sheriff, constable, police officer, or other peace officer shall see that all rules, regulations, and ordinances are obeyed and shall arrest and prosecute offenders.

Subd. 5. The state college board may appoint and employ, and fix the compensation to be paid out of funds which may be available for such purposes, persons who shall have and may exercise on property owned, leased, or occupied by the state colleges the same powers of arrest for violation of rules, regulations, or ordinances adopted by the board as possessed by a sheriff, constable, police officer, or peace officer.

Subd. 6. All persons shall take notice of such rules, regulations, and ordinances without pleading and proof of the same.

Subd. 7. The state college board shall fix a date for a public hearing on the adoption of any such proposed rule, regulation, or ordinance. Notice of such hearing shall be published in a legal newspaper in the county in which the property affected by the rule, regulation, or ordinance is located. The publication shall be at least 15 days and not more than 45 days before the date of the hearing.

If, after the public hearing, the proposed rule, regulation, or ordinance shall be adopted by a majority of the members of the board, the same shall be considered to have been enacted by the board. A copy of the same shall be signed by the president and filed with the secretary of state, together with proof of publication. Upon such filing, the rule, regulation, or ordinance, as the case may be, shall thenceforth be in full force and effect.

Approved April 11, 1961.
