

CHAPTER 372—H. F. No. 1807

[Not Coded]

An act to authorize Rice county hospital district No. 1 to issue bonds to complete the construction and equipment of a hospital.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Rice County Hospital District No. 1; bonds. The Board of County Commissioners of Rice County, as the governing body of Rice County Hospital District No. 1, is authorized to issue bonds in such amount as it shall determine to be necessary to pay and discharge indebtedness heretofore incurred in the construction of Rice County District No. 1 Hospital, including interest thereon, provided however that the amount of such additional bonds shall not exceed the sum of $100,000. Such additional bonds shall be authorized, issued, sold and delivered in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes 1957, Chapter 475, without an election. Bonds so authorized and issued may be made payable from general ad valorem taxes levied in such amounts upon all taxable property in the hospital district as specified and defined in the resolution authorizing their issuance and shall not be subject to any statutory limitations as to rate or amount.

Sec. 2. It is hereby found and determined that this act is a special law under Article XI, Sec. 2 of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota and that Rice County Hospital District No. 1 is the single local government unit to which this law applies on the effective date thereof and that the Board of County Commissioners of Rice County is the governing body thereof and this law shall become effective only after its approval by a majority of such board.

Approved April 14, 1961.
