enforcement of law, and the prevention of cruelty, especially to children and animals. It may appoint representatives in any county where no active county society exists, for the purpose of receiving and accounting for funds from any source, and may also appoint agents at large to prosecute the work of the society throughout the state. This society and all county societies may appoint agents for the purpose of prosecuting persons guilty of cruelty to children or animals. Every such agent whose appointment has been approved and made a matter of record by the probate judge of the county from which he was appointed may arrest any person in his county found violating any law for the protection of children or animals, take him before any court or magistrate having jurisdiction, and make complaint against him. Branches of the society, consisting of not less than ten members, may be organized in any part of the state to prosecute the work of the society in their several localities under rules established by it. It may elect officers and make such rules and bylaws as are necessary.

Subd. 2. It shall be unlawful for any organization, association, firm or corporation not authorized by this chapter to refer to itself as or in any way to use the names Minnesota society for the prevention of cruelty, the Minnesota humane society, or any combination of words or phrases using the above names which would imply that it represents, acts in behalf or is a branch of said society.

Approved March 29, 1971.
