CHAPTER 72 — S.F.No. 462

An act relating to labor; providing for increases in fees for certain steamfitters; prohibiting certain time credit when applying for license; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 326.48, Subdivision 1; and 326.50.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 326.48, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. No person, firm, or corporation shall engage in or work at the business of a contracting steamfitter or journeyman steamfitter unless licensed to do so by the department of labor and industry. No license shall be required for minor repairs on existing installations, provided the repairs shall be made in compliance with the prescribed minimum standards of the department of labor and industry. A contracting steamfitter may also work as a journeyman steamfitter.

No person, firm, or corporation shall engage in the business of installing high pressure steam piping, nor install high pressure steam piping in connection with the dealing in and selling of high pressure steam material and supplies, unless, at all times, a licensed steamfitter, who shall be responsible for proper installation, is in charge of the high pressure steamfitting work of the person, firm, or corporation.

The department of labor and industry shall prescribe rules, not inconsistent herewith, for the examination and licensing of steamfitting.

An employee performing the duties of inspector for the department of labor and industry in regulating steamfitting shall not receive time credit for the inspection duties when making an application for a license required by this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 326.50, is amended to read:
326.50 APPLICATION; FEES.

Application for a steamfitter's license shall be made to the department of labor and industry, with fees. Unless the applicant is entitled to a renewal, he

CHAPTER 73 — S.F.No. 463

An act relating to credit unions; permitting a change of titles of officers; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 52.06, Subdivision 1; and 52.09, by adding a subdivision.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 52.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Credit unions shall be under the supervision of the commissioner of banks. Each credit union shall annually, on or before January 25, file a report with the commissioner of banks on forms supplied by him for that purpose giving such relevant information as he may require concerning the operations during the preceding calendar year. Additional reports may be required. Credit unions shall be examined, at least annually, by the commissioner of banks, except that if a credit union requests, the commissioner may accept the audit of a certified public accountant in place of this examination. Such certified public accountant must be approved by the commissioner. The qualitative type of audit examination to be performed by the certified public accountant shall be defined by banking division regulation and approved by the commission. Further, in lieu of this examination the commissioner may accept any examination made by the National Credit Union Administration, provided a copy of the examination is furnished to the commissioner. A report of the examination by the commissioner of banks shall be forwarded to the president, or the chairman of the board if the position is so designated pursuant to section 52.09, subdivision 4, of the examined credit union within 60 days after completion of the examination. Within 60 days of the receipt of such report, a general meeting of the directors and committees shall be called to consider matters contained in the report. For failure to file reports when due, unless excused for cause, the credit union shall pay to the state treasurer $5 for each day of its delinquency.
