Amendments and Additions

NOTICE: How to Follow State Agency Rulemaking in the State Register

The State Register is the official source, and only complete listing, for all state agency rulemaking in its various stages. State agencies are required to publish notice of their rulemaking action in the State Register. Published every Monday, the State Register makes it easy to follow and participate in the important rulemaking process. Approximately 75 state agencies have the authority to issue rules. Each agency is assigned specific Minnesota Rule chapter numbers.

If an agency seeks outside opinion before issuing new rules or rule amendments, it must publish a NOTICE OF INTENT TO SOLICIT OUTSIDE OPINION in the Official Notices section of the State Register.

When rules are first drafted, state agencies publish them as Proposed Rules, along with a notice of hearing, or notice of intent to adopt rules without a hearing in the case of noncontroversial rules. This notice asks for comment on the rules as proposed. Proposed emergency rules and withdrawn proposed rules are also published in the State Register.

After proposed rules have gone through the comment period, and have been rewritten into their final form, they again appear in the State Register as Adopted Rules. These final adopted rules are not printed in their entirety in the State Register, only the changes made since their publication as Proposed Rules. To see the full rule, as adopted and in effect, a person simply needs two issues of the State Register, the issue the rule appeared in as proposed, and later as adopted.

For a more detailed description of the rulemaking process, see the Minnesota Guidebook to State Agency Services.

Every odd-numbered year the Minnesota Rules are published. This is a ten-volume bound collection of all adopted rules in effect at the time. Supplements are published to update this set of rules. Proposed and adopted emergency rules do not appear in this set because of their short-term nature, but are published in the State Register.

The State Register features partial and cumulative listings of rules in this section on the following schedule: issues 1-13 inclusive; issues 14-25 inclusive; issue 26, cumulative for issues 1-16; issues 27-38 inclusive; issue 39, cumulative for 1-39; issues 40-51 inclusive; and issue 52, cumulative for 1-52. An annual subject matter index for rules appears in August.

For copies of the State Register, a subscription, the annual index, the Minnesota Rules or the Minnesota Guidebook to State Agency Services, contact the Minnesota Documents Division, 117 University Avenue, St. Paul, MN 55155 (612) 297-3000 or toll-free in Minnesota 1-800-652-9747 and ask for "Documents."

C3-87-579 Dennis Erickson v. Coast Catamaran Corporation, etc., Appellant v. John H. Livingston, third party defendant, Richard Speeter, Special Administrator of the Estate of Greg R. Livingston, third-party defendant. Hennepin County.

Delivery of summons and complaint to sheriff of county where corporate defendant's registered agent resides is sufficient to commence action pursuant to Minn. R. Civ. P. 3.01 (1984).

Certified question answered in the affirmative. Yetka, J.

C1-86-487 In the Matter of the Petition of Northern States Power Company for Authority to Change its Schedule of Gas Rates for Retail Customers within the State of Minnesota. In the Matter of the Proposal of Northern States Power Company for Recovery of Gas Conservation Expenditures. Northern States Power Company, Relator v. Minnesota Public Utilities Commission, et al., City of St. Paul, Minnesota Department of Public Service, Minnesota Public Interest Research Group. Court of Appeals.

There is substantial evidentiary support for the findings of the Commission that the individuals involved in employment negotiations during the pendency of a rate increase petition had a duty to disclose their association, that the member of the Commission had a substantial conflict of interest and that the proceedings were resultingly tainted.

A result other than dismissal of the proceedings in their entirety is warranted where the record would allow the Commission's examination of separate elements of the petitioned rate increase to determine whether each has been irrevocably tainted.

Affirmed in part, reversed in part and remanded. Wahl, J.

C4-86-1598 Russell W. Anderson v. Police Civil Service Commission of the City of Willmar, et al, petitioners, Appellants. Court of Appeals.

While a municipal police civil service commission created pursuant to Minnesota Statutes ch. 419 (1986) may delegate certain discretionary authority during the course of a proceeding to fill a police vacancy, such delegation is not illegal so long as it retains and exercises ultimate authority over the general selection process and the final selection decision.

Reversed and remanded. Kelley, J.

Took no part, Scott & Simonett, JJ.

C1-85-1421 In Re the Marriage of: Marguerite I. Nardini, petitioner, Appellant v. Ralph E. Nardini. Court of Appeals.

The trial court abused its discretion in its valuation of the closely held corporation, the principal asset of the marriage, by failure to adequately consider relevant facts and fundamental elements of valuation.

While the trial court erred in characterizing one-half the present value of the business as a nonmarital asset, it correctly concluded that any marital interest should, under the facts here presented, be distributed to the parties in equal shares.

The trial court erred in failing, under the circumstances of record including but not limited to the traditional nature of this marriage, to award the wife permanent spousal maintenance in an amount to be determined in further proceedings.

Affirmed in part, and remanded for further proceedings in conformity with this opinion. Coyne, J.

Announcements

Board of Animal Health Moves on Pseudorabies: The Minnesota Board of Animal Health is ready to move ahead with a plan to control the state's problem with pseudorabies, a steadily-increasing livestock disease. Rules for a control program have been drafted and are ready for review. The rules were adopted after the Minnesota Pseudorabies Advisory Committee completed a study of the pseudorabies problem and then recommended accomplishment of the following goals: control the spread of pseudorabies; protect Minnesota Feeder pig and livestock markets; locate and clean-up pseudorabies infected herds, and; cooperate in the National Pseudorabies Eradication programs.

Pseudorabies is a viral disease that attacks swine and other livestock. In swine it causes abortions and death in piglets. Adult swine usually do not die but do become carriers of the disease and spread it by contact. Eighty-eight newly-infected herds have been reported this year, up sharply from the 77 new pseudorabies infections during 1986. Since 1986, 16 purebred seedstock herds have become infected causing losses that amount in the millions of dollars. Recent studies in Minnesota and neighboring states have shown that much of the spread of pseudorabies is caused by the movement of infected feeder pigs, many becoming infected in the marketing channels. As a result, a number of Midwestern states will not accept Minnesota feeder pigs because they are not known to be free of pseudorabies. This embargo will have a serious financial impact on the Minnesota feeder pig industry as hundreds of thousands of feeder pigs are exported each year.

In the spring of 1987, a task force organized by the National Pork Producers Council and the Livestock Conservation Institute drafted a National Pseudorabies Eradication Plan which has since been approved by many national and state livestock organizations. This is a voluntary plan in which each state can proceed at its own pace through the 4 stages of the eradication plan. The final state may mean a Pseudorabies Free status. The preliminary goal shall be for each state to have eradication plans in place by January 1, 1988. The board's rules will be reviewed at a public hearing on November 13, 1987. Executive Secretary of the Board of Animal Health, Dr. Thomas Haggerty, said, "With the help of the livestock industry we can do to pseudorabies what we did to hog cholera in the 1960s." For information, call (612) 296-3592.

Environmental Quality Board (EQB): Environmental Assessment Worksheets (EAWs) due on November 18, and their respective regional governing units, are: Trail Ridge Estates, City of Chaska; Dakota Hills Middle School/Eagan High School, City of Eagan; and the Bethel Wastewater Treatment Facility, MPCA (MN Pollution Control Agency). No Environmental Impact Statements (EISs) are required for the following projects: Pheasant Ridge Music Center, Blaine; CSAH 38, Dakota County; CSAH 20, Lake Koronis Outlet Bridge, Meeker County; Glen Knoll Sewer, MPCA; and CGI Products, Inc., PCA. A Mn/DOT (MN Dept. of Transportation) Alternative Review has been called for T.H. 55—Hastings to T.H. 61, a 2.1 miles project to reconstruct T.H. 55 into an urban, limited access, expressway on the present alignment. For more information contact EQB Monitor editor Gregg Downing, (612) 296-8253.

Six Lakes Scheduled for Rehabilitation: Six Minnesota lakes are scheduled to be rehabilitated this fall by eradicating existing populations of roughfish or stunted panfish and by restocking them with desirable gamefish species, the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) has announced. In lakes where the entire fish population is eliminated with toxicants, good fishing usually begins one year after restocking. The chemical to be used is rotenone, which is approved for this use by the Federal Environmental Protection Agency. Extensive testing by U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service has also proven its safety.

The largest lake to be treated is Lake Christina in Douglas County, a traditional waterfowl lake. The prime benefit there will be the regeneration of aquatic plant and animal growth to provide restored habitat for waterfowl. Additional measures will be the installation of aeration devices and the stocking of gamefish. Other lakes to be treated and restocked are: Clear Lake in Waseca County, Bass Lake in Otter Tail, Cleary Lake in Scott, Holy Name Lake in Hennepin and Little Mud Lake in Meeker.

Since the start of the lake rehabilitation program in 1951, the DNR has treated 220 lakes. The program has been highly successful, as surveys have shown increased use of the lakes and improved fishing success. Approximately two-thirds of the lakes treated have not required retreatment later, and the average duration of improved fishing on the lakes has been about 15 years. The DNR's lake rehabilitation costs are reimbursed, 75 percent from the Dingell-Johnson Federal Aid in Fish Restoration Act. These funds are from the federal tax on fishing equipment and are apportioned to the states for qualified fisheries projects. The program is administered by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. For more information, contact: Dick Hassinger, DNR Fisheries Chief, (612) 296-0792.
