1.4 Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 290.01, subdivision 19b; proposing coding for
1.5 new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 197.

1.6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

1.7 Section 1. [197.783] TAX POLICY FOR MILITARY PERSONNEL AND
1.8 RETIREEES.

1.9 (a) It is the policy of the state of Minnesota to attract and welcome all past, present,
1.10 and future members of the United States armed forces and their families who may wish to 1.11 make their homes within this state. This policy is in recognition of the fact that the strong
1.12 military training, demonstrated attitude of selfless public service, and high moral character
1.13 of soldiers and veterans benefits Minnesota's businesses and economy, as well as its public
1.14 and private institutions and communities.

1.15 (b) The state recognizes that military service entails many sacrifices, including
1.16 significant personal and family financial sacrifices. One common financial sacrifice for 1.17 career service members involves foregoing the opportunity for significant financial gain
1.18 that typically accrues from long-term home ownership. By comparison, home ownership
1.19 is often the primary investment tool for many Minnesotans employed in stable civilian
1.20 occupations.

1.21 (c) Thus, in recognition of the varied and valuable benefits that veterans constitute 1.22 for Minnesota's economy, its public and private institutions, and its communities, and in 1.23 recognition of the enduring financial and other sacrifices of military personnel and their
1.24 families throughout their lives as a result of their military service to our state and nation, it is the policy of the state to exempt from state taxation military pay, military retirement pay, and survivor benefit payments.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2006.
