Act of 2008.

Subd. 3. Deferment payment. "Deferment payment" means the monthly amount that is due to the foreclosing lender by an eligible foreclosed borrower under section the effective date of the act and expires one year following the effective date of the act.

Subd. 5. Deferment right. "Deferment right" means the relief provided to an eligible foreclosed borrower in section 583.35.

Subd. 6. Eligible foreclosed loan. "Eligible foreclosed loan" means a residential mortgage loan currently subject to a pending foreclosure sale under chapter 580 or 581 for which: (1) the closing of the loan occurred after January 1, 2001, and prior to August

1, 2007; and (2) either is a subprime loan, or is a loan with negative amortization for which the required minimum payment of principal and interest increased after the date the loan was originated.

Subd. 7. Eligible foreclosed borrower. "Eligible foreclosed borrower" means a borrower who: (1) is a mortgagor under an eligible foreclosed loan; and (2) resides at the mortgaged property and intends to reside at the mortgaged property at least until the end of the deferment period.

Sec. 3. [583.35] RIGHT TO FORECLOSURE DEFERMENT.

An eligible foreclosed borrower has the right to defer a foreclosure sale under chapter 580 or 581 until the expiration of the deferment period by providing an affidavit of deferment to the foreclosing lender in accordance with section 583.36. A foreclosing lender shall rescind notice of a foreclosure sale if the eligible foreclosed borrower has submitted to the foreclosing lender an affidavit of deferment prior to or at the time of the foreclosure sale. Upon expiration of the deferment period or the loss of the deferment under section 583.37, subdivision 4, a foreclosing lender may schedule a deferred foreclosure sale by publishing the notice of foreclosure sale once in the newspaper in which the original advertisement was published and by serving a copy of the notice of foreclosure sale in a like manner as a summons in a civil action in the district court upon the person in possession of the mortgaged premises at least four weeks prior to the sale.

Sec. 4. [583.36] AFFIDAVIT OF DEFERMENT.

Subdivision 1. Affidavit of deferment. The affidavit of deferment shall state the name of the eligible foreclosed borrower, the address of the property in foreclosure, and contain the following statements:

"(1) I am the borrower on a mortgage loan on residential property located at [address of property] (hereinafter "subject property");

(2) A foreclosure sale has been scheduled on the subject property;

(3) I currently reside at the subject property;

(4) If permitted to reside at the subject property, I intend to reside at the subject property until at least [end of deferment period];

(5) I believe that the mortgage loan on the subject property is either:

(i) a subprime loan; or

(ii) a loan with negative amortization for which the required minimum payment has increased."

The affidavit shall be signed by at least one eligible foreclosed borrower who is the mortgagor of the residential real property being foreclosed.

Subd. 2. Service on foreclosing lender. A foreclosing lender shall accept the affidavit of deferment if delivered through any reasonable means to the mortgagee or counsel for the mortgagee identified in the notice of foreclosure. Reasonable means of delivery include, but are not limited to, delivery in person to any agent or employee of the mortgagee or counsel for the mortgagee, or delivery by United States mail or other reliable delivery service to the address of the mortgagee or counsel for the mortgagee in the notice of foreclosure, in the notice of right to deferment required by section 583.39, or at the address of the registered agent with the secretary of state. Notwithstanding the above, a sheriff conducting a foreclosure sale shall accept an affidavit of deferment, deliver it to the foreclosing lender, and cancel the foreclosure sale.

Subd. 3. Acknowledgment by foreclosing lender. The foreclosing lender shall promptly provide to the eligible foreclosed borrower a written acknowledgment that it has received the affidavit of deferment. The acknowledgment shall state the following:

(1) that the foreclosure sale has been canceled;

(2) the deferment payment amount that is due by the eligible foreclosed borrower;

(3) the date that the first deferment payment is due;

(4) the date that each subsequent deferment payment is due; and

(5) the address to which the borrower should send the deferment payment or the payment delivery methods that are acceptable to the foreclosing lender. The acknowledgment shall be on a single sheet of paper, shall use plain language, and no other documents shall be included with the acknowledgment. The bottom of the acknowledgment shall include the following disclosure in bold, 14-point type:

The cancellation of the foreclosure sale on your property is the result of a law passed by the Minnesota Legislature in 2008. You must make the monthly payment in full by the due dates listed in this letter. If you do not make the payments on time, we will have the right to schedule a foreclosure sale on your property.

Subd. 4. Charges prohibited. A foreclosing lender shall not charge an eligible foreclosed borrower any amount other than the deferment payment for exercising the deferment right.

Sec. 5. [583.37] BORROWER PAYMENT REQUIREMENT.

Subdivision 1. Borrower payment required. An eligible foreclosed borrower who has a deferment right shall make monthly payments to the foreclosing lender. The payment shall be made no later than the 15th day of each month. The first payment is not due until the 15th day of the month that is a minimum of 30 days after the date that the foreclosing lender sends the acknowledgment required by section 583.36, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. Amount of payment. For an eligible foreclosed borrower with a subprime loan, the amount of payment would be the lesser of: (1) the minimum monthly payment on the date the loan was originated; or (2) 65 percent of the minimum monthly payment at the time the borrower defaulted prior to foreclosure. For an eligible foreclosed borrower with a negative amortization loan that is not also a subprime loan, the amount of payment would be the minimum monthly payment on the date the loan was originated. For purposes of this subdivision, "payment" means principle and interest.

Subd. 3. Payment advice notice. The foreclosing lender shall provide to the eligible foreclosed borrower monthly written payment advice notices. The notice shall be sent by the first day of each month until the expiration of the deferment period or the loss of the deferment under subdivision 4. Each notice shall state (1) the amount of payment owed from the eligible foreclosed borrower; (2) the address to which the borrower should send the deferment payment; and (3) the date that the payment must be received to avoid loss of the deferment right under subdivision 4. The payment advice notice shall be on a single sheet of paper, shall use plain language, and no other documents shall be included with the notice. The bottom of the notice shall include the following disclosure in bold, 14-point type:

The deferment of the foreclosure sale on your property is the result of a law passed by the Minnesota Legislature in 2008. You must continue to make the monthly payment in full by the 15th day of each month. If you do not make the payments on time, we will have the right to schedule a foreclosure sale on your property. The deferment period will end on (last day of deferment period).

Subd. 4. Borrower failure to pay. An eligible foreclosed borrower who fails to make payments in the amount required and by the date required under this section shall lose the deferment right.

Sec. 6. [583.38] RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES.

Subdivision 1. Dispute as to eligible foreclosed loan status. If the foreclosing lender determines after a reasonable investigation and in good faith that the person submitting an affidavit of deferment is not the mortgagor under an eligible foreclosed loan, the foreclosing lender shall provide a notice of denial of deferment to the person submitting the affidavit of deferment. The foreclosing lender must send a notice of denial by certified mail through the United States mail within five business days of receiving the affidavit of deferment. The notice of denial shall be on a single sheet of paper and no other documents shall be included with the notice. Such notice must include an explanation, in plain language, of the reasons that the loan is not an eligible foreclosed loan. Such notice must also inform the person who executed the affidavit of deferment that the person has the right to apply to the court for an order deferring the foreclosure sale.

Subd. 2. Other disputes. For any other dispute about the deferment right or other rights or requirements under the act, a person can apply to the district court in the county where the property is located for an order establishing the rights of the parties to the dispute.

Sec. 7. [583.39] NOTICE OF RIGHT TO DEFERMENT.

Subdivision 1. Notice requirement; form and delivery of notice. Every foreclosing lender shall send to each borrower who has an eligible foreclosed loan a notice of right to deferment. The notice of right to deferment shall be in the form of, and subject to the delivery requirements specified in, section 580.041, subdivision 1b. The notice of right to deferment must also indicate an address at which the foreclosing lender will accept service of an affidavit of deferment under section 583.36, subdivision 2. The terms of section 580.041, subdivisions 3 and 4, apply to this section. Notwithstanding the above, a foreclosing lender must within three days after the first day of the deferment period send the notice of right to deferment to each borrower who has an eligible foreclosed loan who has a foreclosure sale scheduled within 20 days of the first day of the deferment period, and must within 14 days after the first day of the deferment period send the notice of right to deferment to all other borrowers who have an eligible foreclosed loan at the beginning of the deferment period.

Subd. 2. Content. The notice required by this section must appear substantially as follows:

"Emergency Help For Homeowners in Foreclosure:

IMPORTANT: You are eligible to have the foreclosure of your home stopped until at least (end of deferment period).

The state of Minnesota recently passed a law which lets homeowners stop a foreclosure sale. To qualify, you must currently live at the home in foreclosure and intend to live at the home for at least the next 12 months.

You will also need to complete and sign a special form (called an "affidavit") and provide that affidavit to us at the following address: (insert address in the state of Minnesota).

There are many government agencies and nonprofit organizations that can help you complete this affidavit. For the name and telephone number of an organization near you, please call the Minnesota Housing Finance Agency (MHFA) at (insert telephone number/Web site). The state does not guarantee the advice of these agencies.

Do not delay dealing with the foreclosure because your options for foreclosure deferment end with the foreclosure sale."

Sec. 8. [583.40] BAD FAITH OR RECKLESS VIOLATION.

A foreclosing lender who acts in bad faith or recklessly in violation of sections 583.35 to 583.39 shall be liable to a person injured by the violation for actual damages, statutory damages of up to $25,000, punitive damages in an amount determined by the court, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees.

Sec. 9. EFFECTIVE DATE.

Sections 1 to 8 are effective the day following final enactment.
