5.19 national origin, sex, gender identity, marital status, status with regard to public assistance,
5.20 disability, sexual orientation, or familial status, or any intent to make any such limitation, 5.21 specification, or discrimination except that nothing in this clause shall be construed to 5.22 prohibit the advertisement of a dwelling unit as available to adults-only if the person placing 5.23 the advertisement reasonably believes that the provisions of this section prohibiting

6.15 identity, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, sexual orientation,
6.16 or familial status or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination
6.17 except that nothing in this clause shall be construed to prohibit the advertisement of a

6.26 of race, color, creed, religion, disability, national origin, marital status, veteran or military 6.27 status, sexual orientation, sex, or gender identity, or for a taxicab company to discriminate
6.28 in the access to, full utilization of, or benefit from service because of a person's disability; 6.29 or

6.30 (2) for a place of public accommodation not to make reasonable accommodation to the 6.31 known physical, sensory, or mental disability of a disabled person. In determining whether 6.32 an accommodation is reasonable, the factors to be considered may include:

7.1 (i) the frequency and predictability with which members of the public will be served by 7.2 the accommodation at that location;

7.3 (ii) the size of the business or organization at that location with respect to physical size,

7.18 veteran or military status, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, or status with regard to 7.19 public assistance or to fail to ensure physical and program access for disabled persons unless 7.20 the public service can demonstrate that providing the access would impose an undue hardship
7.21 on its operation. In determining whether providing physical and program access would 7.22 impose an undue hardship, factors to be considered include:

7.23 (1) the type and purpose of the public service's operation;

7.24 (2) the nature and cost of the needed accommodation;

7.25 (3) documented good faith efforts to explore less restrictive or less expensive alternatives;
