NINETY-FOURTH SESSION

H. F. No. 3759

02/26/2026 Authored by Fogelman, Knudsen, Harder, Joy, Engen and others
The bill was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Health Finance and Policy

1.1 A bill for an act
1.2 relating to health; prohibiting birth record amendments and replacement birth
1.3 records that modify the sex indicated in a person's original birth record; amending
1.4 Minnesota Statutes 2024, sections 144.218, by adding a subdivision; 144.2181.

1.5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

1.6 Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 144.218, is amended by adding a subdivision
1.7 to read:

1.8 Subd. 5a. Modifying sex indicated in original birth records. (a) Notwithstanding
1.9 subdivisions 4 and 5 and except as provided in paragraph (b), the state registrar or a local
1.10 registrar must not register a replacement birth record in which the sex of the birth record
1.11 subject is different from the sex indicated in the subject's original birth record.

1.12 (b) The state registrar or a local registrar may register a replacement birth record in 1.13 which the birth record subject's sex is different from the sex indicated in the subject's original
1.14 birth record if the sex indicated in the subject's original birth record was recorded in error
1.15 and the change is necessary to correct the error.

1.16 Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 144.2181, is amended to read:

1.17 144.2181 AMENDMENT AND CORRECTION OF VITAL RECORDS.

1.18 (a) A vital record registered under sections 144.212 to 144.227 may be amended or 1.19 corrected only according to sections 144.212 to 144.227 and rules adopted by the 1.20 commissioner of health to protect the integrity and accuracy of vital records.

1.21 (b)(1) A vital record that is amended under this section shall indicate that it has been
1.22 amended, except as otherwise provided in this section or by rule.

2.1 (2) Electronic documentation shall be maintained by the state registrar that identifies
2.2 the evidence upon which the amendment or correction was based, the date of the amendment
2.3 or correction, and the identity of the authorized person making the amendment or correction.

2.4 (c) Upon receipt of a certified copy of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction
2.5 changing the name of a person whose birth is registered in Minnesota and upon request of 2.6 such person if 18 years of age or older or having the status of emancipated minor, the state
2.7 registrar shall amend the birth record to show the new name. If the person is a minor or an 2.8 incapacitated person then a parent, guardian, or legal representative of the minor or 2.9 incapacitated person may make the request.

2.10 (d) When an applicant does not submit the minimum documentation required for 2.11 amending a vital record or when the state registrar has cause to question the validity or 2.12 completeness of the applicant's statements or the documentary evidence, and the deficiencies
2.13 are not corrected, the state registrar shall not amend the vital record. The state registrar shall 2.14 advise the applicant of the reason for this action and shall further advise the applicant of
2.15 the right of appeal to a court with competent jurisdiction over the Department of Health.

2.16 (e) The state registrar or a local registrar must not amend the sex indicated in a person's 2.17 birth record, unless the sex indicated in the person's original birth record was recorded in 2.18 error and the amendment is necessary to correct the error.
