1.11 Subdivision 1. Generally. Except as provided in subdivision 2 or section 484.085, a

1.13 by law, in one that is likely to give notice in the affected area or to whom it is directed.

1.14 When a statute or other law requires publication in a newspaper located in a designated

1.15 political subdivision or area and no qualified newspaper is located there, publication shall

1.16 be made in a qualified newspaper likely to give notice unless the particular statute or law

1.17 expressly provides otherwise. If no qualified newspaper exists, then publication is not

1.18 required.

1.19 Sec. 2. [484.085] PUBLICATION OF NOTICE.

1.20 Subdivision 1. Authority. Notwithstanding any statute specifically requiring publication

1.21 of a notice in a qualified newspaper, the district court may publish a notice, summons, order,

1.22 or process in judicial proceedings required by statute, rule, or court order by posting the

1.23 notice, summons, order, or process on the official website of the Minnesota judicial branch

2.1 if the judicial branch determines that there is no qualified local newspaper that is likely to 2.2 give notice in the affected area or to whom notice is directed.

2.3 Subd. 2. Effect. Publication in accordance with this section meets the definition of 2.4 published notice under section 645.11.

2.5 Subd. 3. Optional use. Nothing in this section requires the district court to publish a 2.6 notice on its website in lieu of or in addition to publication in a qualified newspaper.

2.7 Subd. 4. Scope. This section applies only to notices, summonses, orders, or processes 2.8 in judicial proceedings that are required by statute, rule, or court order to be published by 2.9 or through the district court. Nothing in this section authorizes any other person, entity, or 2.10 political subdivision to post notices, summonses, orders, or processes in judicial proceedings
2.11 on the website of the Minnesota judicial branch.

2.12 Subd. 5. Form and duration. A notice, summons, order, or process in judicial 2.13 proceedings published under this section must be posted in substantially the same form and 2.14 for the same period of time as required for publication in a qualified newspaper for that 2.15 particular notice, summons, order, or process in judicial proceedings.

2.16 Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 518A.44, is amended to read:

2.17 518A.44 NOTICE TO PUBLIC AUTHORITY.

2.18 The petitioner shall notify the public authority of all proceedings for dissolution with 2.19 children, legal separation with children, determination of parentage, or for the custody of 2.20 a child, if either party is receiving public assistance or applies for it subsequent to the 2.21 commencement of the proceeding. The notice must contain the full names of the parties to 2.22 the proceeding, their Social Security account numbers, and their birth dates. After receipt
2.23 of the notice, the court shall set child support as provided in section 518A.35. The court
2.24 may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay 2.25 an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's support, without regard to marital 2.26 misconduct. The court shall approve a child support stipulation of the parties if each party
2.27 is represented by independent counsel, unless the stipulation does not meet the conditions
2.28 of section 518A.35. In other cases the court shall determine and order child support in a 2.29 specific dollar amount in accordance with the guidelines and the other factors set forth in 2.30 section 518A.43 and any departure therefrom. The court may also order the obligor to pay
2.31 child support in the form of a percentage share of the obligor's net bonuses, commissions,
2.32 or other forms of compensation, in addition to, or if the obligor receives no base pay, in lieu 2.33 of, an order for a specific dollar amount.

3.1 Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 611A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

3.2 Subd. 3. Effect of order for restitution. An order of restitution may be enforced by 3.3 any person named in the order to receive the restitution, or by the Crime Victims
3.4 Reimbursement Board in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. Any order for 3.5 restitution in favor of a victim shall also operate as an order for restitution in favor of the 3.6 Crime Victims Reimbursement Board, if the board has paid reimbursement to the victim
3.7 or on the victim's behalf. Filing fees for docketing an order of restitution as a civil judgment
3.8 are waived for any victim named in the restitution order. An order of restitution shall be 3.9 docketed as a civil judgment, in the name of any person named in the order and in the name
3.10 of the Crime Victims Reimbursement Board, by the court administrator of the district court
3.11 in the county in which the order of restitution was entered. Notwithstanding section 541.04
3.12 or any other law or rule to the contrary, an order of restitution docketed as a civil judgment
3.13 does not expire until satisfied or otherwise discharged pursuant to a court order. The court 3.14 administrator also shall notify the commissioner of revenue of the restitution debt in the 3.15 manner provided in chapter 270A, the Revenue Recapture Act. A juvenile court is not 3.16 required to appoint a guardian ad litem for a juvenile offender before docketing a restitution
3.17 order. Interest shall accrue on the unpaid balance of the judgment as provided in section
3.18 549.09. Whether the order of restitution has been docketed or not, it is a debt that is not 3.19 dischargeable in bankruptcy. A decision for or against restitution in any criminal or juvenile 3.20 proceeding is not a bar to any civil action by the victim or by the state pursuant to section
3.21 611A.61 against the offender. The offender shall be given credit, in any order for judgment
3.22 in favor of a victim in a civil action, for any restitution paid to the victim for the same 3.23 injuries for which the judgment is awarded.
