 3.21 deed. The petition must allege that the petitioner or a child who resides with the petitioner
 3.22 has been subjected to domestic abuse, criminal sexual assault, sexual extortion, or harassment
 3.23 by the respondent, and the respondent has abandoned the respondent's interest in the contract
 3.24 for deed. A respondent has abandoned their interest in the contract for deed if the respondent
 3.25 has not physically occupied the property that is subject to the contract for deed for at least
 3.26 six consecutive months immediately preceding the commencement of the action under this
 3.27 section, and the petitioner has made all payments due on the contract for deed for at least

4.8 of the summons to answer.

4.9 (d) A notice of lis pendens must be recorded in the office of the county recorder or filed
4.10 in the office of the registrar of titles in the county in which the real property that is subject
4.11 to the contract for deed is located.

4.17 (4) the names of the vendees;

4.18 (5) the date of recordation of the contract for deed, the document number, and the county
4.19 in which it was recorded;

4.21 (7) the court file number;

4.22 (8) the judicial district in which the real property is located;

4.23 (9) the legal description of the real property subject to the contract for deed;

4.27 allowed may result in a judgment that permanently terminates an interest in the contract for 4.28 deed; and

4.30 lien on the real property described in the summons.

5.2 jurisdiction over petitions seeking termination of the interest of the respondent.

5.3 (b) Unless otherwise provided by applicable law, nothing in this section infringes upon
5.4 the jurisdiction of a Tribal court in the matter of a petition to terminate the interest of a
5.5 respondent in a contract for deed.

5.6 Subd. 5. Procedure. (a) Except when a case proceeds by default, if an answer is filed
5.7 and the petition is contested, the court must hold a hearing. The court must grant the petition
5.8 if the petitioner demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that the petitioner or a
5.9 child who resides with the petitioner has been subjected to domestic abuse, criminal sexual
5.10 assault, sexual extortion, or harassment by the respondent, and the respondent has abandoned
5.11 their interest in the contract for deed as described in subdivision 2, paragraph (a).

5.12 (b) A petitioner demonstrates that the petitioner or a child who resides with the petitioner
5.13 has been subjected to domestic abuse, criminal sexual assault, sexual extortion, or harassment

5.18 or 609.749 where the victim was the petitioner or a child who resides with the petitioner.

5.19 Subd. 6. Defense; prejudice to the vendor. A vendor may contest a petition filed under
5.20 this section by demonstrating by a preponderance of the evidence that granting the petition
5.21 to terminate the respondent's interest will prejudice the vendor. A court must not grant the 5.22 petition if the court finds that the vendor will be prejudiced by a termination of the 5.23 respondent's interest.

5.24 Subd. 7. Order. If the court grants the petition, the court shall issue an order terminating
5.25 the interest of the respondent and finding that the petitioner has met the burden of showing
5.26 that the petitioner or a child who resides with the petitioner has been subjected to domestic 5.27 abuse, criminal sexual assault, sexual extortion, or harassment by the respondent, and the 5.28 respondent has abandoned the respondent's interest in the contract for deed as described in 5.29 subdivision 2, paragraph (a).

5.30 Subd. 8. Contract for deed termination judgment. (a) A court granting the requested
5.31 relief shall prepare, or direct the petitioner or the petitioner's legal counsel to prepare and
5.32 submit to the court, a proposed contract for deed termination judgment, which must provide
5.33 that the respondent's interest is terminated and of no further force or effect. Upon approval

6.1 by the court and filing of the contract for deed termination judgment with the court
6.2 administrator, the court administrator must provide to any party upon request certified copies
6.3 of the contract for deed termination judgment. The contract for deed termination judgment
6.4 must contain the following information:

6.7 recorded;

6.9 for deed;

6.10 (4) the names of the parties' attorneys or if any or all appeared pro se;

6.11 (5) whether and when the summons and petition were served upon the respondent and
6.12 holder or holders of the vendor's interest in the manner provided to commence a civil lawsuit
6.13 under the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure;

6.14 (6) the name of the judge who signed the order;

6.15 (7) whether the judgment and decree resulted from a stipulation, a default, or a trial and
6.16 the appearances at the default or trial;

6.17 (8) any former name of either party;

6.18 (9) the street address and legal description of the property that is the subject of the 6.19 contract for deed;

6.20 (10) if recorded, the document number of the contract for deed;

6.21 (11) if the real property is registered land, the certificate of title number of the real
6.22 property;

6.23 (12) the name or names of the person or persons awarded an interest in the real property

6.26 the judgment and decree;

6.27 (14) the signature of the judge and the date signed;

6.28 (15) the signature of the court administrator and the date signed; and

6.29 (16) if the judgment and decree resulted from a default, whether the petition contained
6.30 the legal description of the real property and whether disposition was made in accordance 6.31 with the request for relief.

7.1 (b) Notwithstanding any provision contained in the contract for deed, a respondent whose 7.2 interest has been terminated has no interest as a vendee in the contract for deed.

7.3 (c) The petitioner must record the contract for deed termination judgment with the county
7.4 recorder or the registrar of titles, as applicable.

7.5 (d) A contract for deed termination judgment is binding on the interest of the vendor
7.6 and all vendees under the contract for deed.

7.7 Subd. 9. Effect of termination. (a) The termination of the respondent's interest in the 7.8 contract for deed does not terminate or invalidate any other provision of the contract for 7.9 deed. The respondent's interest that has been terminated shall be transferred to the petitioner
7.10 by operation of law upon entry of the court's order without the necessity of any further act
7.11 or conveyance.

7.12 (b) A respondent whose interest has been terminated under this section has no further
7.13 liability on the contract for deed and a vendor shall have no cause of action against the 7.14 respondent for damages or performance.

7.15 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2026, and applies to contracts
7.16 for deed entered into on or after that date.
