04/22/2026 Authored by Gottfried and Hollins
The bill was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Commerce Finance and Policy

A bill for an act relating to consumer protection; requiring disclosures when selling or distributing programs with artificial intelligence; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 325G.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. [325G.64] ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE; DISCLOSURES.

Subdivision 1. Definition. For purposes of this section, "artificial intelligence" or "AI" means an engineered or machine-based system that varies in level of autonomy and that can, for explicit or implicit objectives, infer from the input the system receives how to generate outputs that are capable of influencing physical or virtual environments.

Subd. 2. Disclosures. Before selling or distributing a program containing artificial intelligence technology, the seller or distributor must disclose:

(1) the business names of the manufacturers or creators of the AI;

(2) contact information for technical experts who assist users with the AI;

(3) the functions the AI performs;

(4) the types of modeling the AI uses; and

(5) all safety features of the AI, including but not limited to the integration of human intelligence.
