 19.27 allocations shall not discriminate in favor of units owned by the declarant or an affiliate of 19.28 the declarant, except as provided in sections 515B.2-121 ~~and~~, 515B.3-115, and 515B.3-1151.

19.29 (c) If units may be added to the common interest community, the formulas used to 19.30 reallocate the allocated interests among all units included in the common interest community 19.31 after the addition shall be the formulas stated in the declaration.

20.1 (d) The declaration may authorize special allocations: (i) of unit owner votes among 20.2 certain units or classes of units on particular matters specified in the declaration, or (ii) of 20.3 common expenses among certain units or classes of units on particular matters specified in 20.4 the declaration. Special allocations may only be used to address operational, physical or 20.5 administrative differences within the common interest community. A declarant may not 20.6 utilize special allocations for the purpose of evading any limitation or obligation imposed 20.7 on declarants by this chapter nor may units constitute a class because they are owned by a 20.8 declarant.

20.9 (e) The sum of each category of allocated interests allocated at any time to all the units
20.10 must equal one if stated as a fraction or 100 percent if stated as a percentage. In the event 20.11 of a discrepancy between an allocated interest and the result derived from application of 20.12 the pertinent formula, the allocated interest prevails.

20.13 (f) In a condominium or planned community, the common elements are not subject to 20.14 partition, and any purported conveyance, encumbrance, judicial sale, or other voluntary or 20.15 involuntary transfer of an undivided interest in the common elements made without the unit
20.16 to which that interest is allocated is void. The granting of easements, licenses or leases 20.17 pursuant to section 515B.2-109 or 515B.3-102 shall not constitute a partition.

20.18 (g) In a cooperative, any purported conveyance, encumbrance, judicial sale, or other 20.19 voluntary or involuntary transfer of an ownership interest in the association made without 20.20 the possessory interest in the unit to which that interest is related is void.

20.21 Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.2-110, is amended to read:

20.22 515B.2-110 COMMON INTEREST COMMUNITY PLAT (CIC PLAT); CIC
20.23 CREATED BEFORE AUGUST 1, 2010.

20.24 (a) A CIC plat is required for condominiums and planned communities, and cooperatives
20.25 in which the unit owners' interests are characterized as real estate. The CIC plat is a part of 20.26 the declaration in condominiums, in planned communities utilizing a CIC plat complying 20.27 with subsection (c), and in cooperatives in which the unit owners' interests are characterized 20.28 as real estate, but need not be physically attached to the declaration.

20.29 (1) In a condominium, or a cooperative in which the unit owners' interests are 20.30 characterized as real estate, the CIC plat shall comply with subsection (c).

20.31 (2) In a planned community, a CIC plat that does not comply with subsection (c) shall 20.32 consist of all or part of a subdivision plat or registered land survey complying with subsection
20.33 (d), or any combination thereof. The CIC plat or registered land survey need not contain 21.1 the number of the common interest community and may be recorded at any time before the 21.2 recording of the declaration; provided that if the CIC plat complies with subsection (c), the 21.3 number of the common interest community shall be included and the CIC plat shall be 21.4 recorded at the time of recording of the declaration.

21.5 (3) In a cooperative in which the unit owners' interests are characterized as personal 21.6 property, a CIC plat shall not be required. In lieu of a CIC plat, the declaration or any 21.7 amendment to it creating, converting, or subdividing units in a personal property cooperative 21.8 shall include an exhibit containing a scale drawing of each building, identifying each building, 21.9 and showing the perimeter walls of each unit created or changed by the declaration or any 21.10 amendment to it, including the unit's unit identifier, and its location within the building if 21.11 the building contains more than one unit.

21.12 (b) The CIC plat, or supplemental or amended CIC plat, for condominiums, for planned 21.13 communities using a plat complying with subsection (c), and for cooperatives in which the 21.14 unit owners' interests are characterized as real estate, shall contain certifications by a licensed
21.15 professional land surveyor and licensed professional architect, as to the parts of the CIC
21.16 plat prepared by each, that (i) the CIC plat accurately depicts all information required by 21.17 this section, and (ii) the work was undertaken by, or reviewed and approved by, the certifying
21.18 land surveyor or architect. The portions of the CIC plat depicting the dimensions of the 21.19 portions of the common interest community described in subsection (c), clauses (8), (9), 21.20 (10), and (12), may be prepared by either a land surveyor or an architect. The other portions 21.21 of the CIC plat shall be prepared only by a land surveyor. A certification of the CIC plat or 21.22 supplemental CIC plat, or an amendment to it, under this subsection by an architect is not 21.23 required if all parts of the CIC plat, supplemental CIC plat, or amendment are prepared by 21.24 a land surveyor. Certification by the land surveyor or architect does not constitute a guaranty
21.25 or warranty of the nature, suitability, or quality of construction of any improvements located 21.26 or to be located in the common interest community.

21.27 (c) A CIC plat for a condominium, or a cooperative in which the unit owners' interests 21.28 are characterized as real estate, shall show:

21.29 (1) the number of the common interest community, and the boundaries, dimensions, and 21.30 legally sufficient description of the land included therein;

21.31 (2) the dimensions and location of all existing material structural improvements and 21.32 roadways;

- 22.1 (3) the intended location and dimensions of any contemplated common element 22.2 improvements to be constructed within the common interest community after the filing of 22.3 the CIC plat, labeled either "MUST BE BUILT" or "NEED NOT BE BUILT";
- 22.4 (4) the location and dimensions of any additional real estate, labeled as such, and a 22.5 legally sufficient description of the additional real estate;
- 22.6 (5) the extent of any encroachments by or upon any portion of the common interest 22.7 community;
- 22.8 (6) the location and dimensions of all recorded easements within the land included in 22.9 the common interest community burdening any portion of the land;
- 22.10 (7) the distance and direction between noncontiguous parcels of real estate;
- 22.11 (8) the location and dimensions of limited common elements, except that with respect
22.12 to limited common elements described in section ~~515B.2-102~~, ~~subsections (d) and (f)~~ 22.13 515B.2-109(c) and (d), only such material limited common elements as porches, balconies, 22.14 decks, patios, and garages shall be shown;
- 22.15 (9) the location and dimensions of the front, rear, and side boundaries of each unit and 22.16 that unit's unit identifier;
- 22.17 (10) the location and dimensions of the upper and lower boundaries of each unit with 22.18 reference to an established or assumed datum and that unit's unit identifier;
- 22.19 (11) a legally sufficient description of any real estate in which the unit owners will own 22.20 only an estate for years, labeled as "leasehold real estate"; and
- 22.21 (12) any units which may be converted by the declarant to create additional units or 22.22 common elements identified separately.
- 22.23 (d) A CIC plat for a planned community either shall comply with subsection (c), or it 22.24 shall:
- 22.25 (1) comply with chapter 505, 508, or 508A, as applicable; and
- 22.26 (2) comply with the applicable subdivision requirements of any governmental authority 22.27 within whose jurisdiction the planned community is located, subject to the limitations set 22.28 forth in section 515B.1-106.
- 22.29 (e) If a declarant adds additional real estate, the declarant shall record a supplemental 22.30 CIC plat or plats for the real estate being added, conforming to the requirements of this 22.31 section which apply to the type of common interest community in question. If less than all
22.32 additional real estate is being added, the supplemental CIC plat for a condominium, a planned

23.1 community whose CIC plat complies with subsection (c), or a cooperative in which the unit
 23.2 owners' interests are characterized as real estate shall also show the location and dimensions
 23.3 of the remaining portion.

23.4 (f) If, pursuant to section 515B.2-112, a declarant subdivides or converts any unit into 23.5 two or more units, common elements, or limited common elements, or combines two or 23.6 more units, the declarant shall record an amendment to the CIC plat showing the location 23.7 and dimensions of any new units, common elements, or limited common elements thus 23.8 created.

23.9 (g) A CIC plat that complies with subsection (c) is not subject to chapter 505.

23.10 (h) This section applies only to common interest communities created before August 1,

23.12 Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.2-1101, is amended to read:

23.13 515B.2-1101 COMMON INTEREST COMMUNITY PLAT (CIC PLAT); CIC
 23.14 CREATED ON OR AFTER AUGUST 1, 2010.

23.15 (a) A CIC plat is required for condominiums and planned communities, and cooperatives
 23.16 in which the unit owners' interests are characterized as real estate. The CIC plat is a part of 23.17 the declaration in condominiums, in planned communities utilizing a CIC plat complying 23.18 with subsection (c), and in cooperatives in which the unit owners' interests are characterized 23.19 as real estate, but need not be physically attached to the declaration.

23.20 (1) In a condominium, a planned community not utilizing a subdivision plat or registered 23.21 land survey under subsection (d), clause (1), or a cooperative in which the unit owners' 23.22 interests are characterized as real estate, the CIC plat shall comply with subsection (c).

23.23 (2) In a planned community, a CIC plat that does not comply with subsection (c) shall 23.24 consist of all or part of a subdivision plat or registered land survey complying with subsection
 23.25 (d), or any combination thereof. The CIC subdivision plat or registered land survey need 23.26 not contain the number of the common interest community and may be recorded at any time
 23.27 before the recording of the declaration; provided that if the CIC plat complies with subsection 23.28 (c), the number of the common interest community shall be included and the CIC plat shall 23.29 be recorded at the time of recording of the declaration.

23.30 (3) In a cooperative in which the unit owners' interests are characterized as personal 23.31 property, a CIC plat shall not be required. In lieu of a CIC plat, the declaration, or any 23.32 amendment or supplemental declaration creating, converting, or subdividing units shall 23.33 include an exhibit containing a dimensioned, scale drawing showing (i) the boundaries of 24.1 the land constituting the cooperative property, (ii) the location and dimensions of the front, 24.2 rear, and side boundaries of each unit, and (iii) the unit's unit identifier and its location 24.3 within the cooperative property.

24.4 (b) The CIC plat or supplemental or amended CIC plat for condominiums, for planned 24.5 communities using a plat complying with subsection (c), and for cooperatives in which the 24.6 unit owners' interests are characterized as real estate shall contain certifications by a licensed
24.7 professional land surveyor and licensed professional architect, as to the parts of the CIC
24.8 plat prepared by each, that (i) the CIC plat accurately depicts all information required by 24.9 this section, and (ii) the work was undertaken by, or reviewed and approved by, the certifying
24.10 land surveyor or architect. The portions of the CIC plat depicting the dimensions of the 24.11 portions of the common interest community described in subsection (c), clauses (8), (9), 24.12 and (10), may be prepared by either a land surveyor or an architect. The other portions of 24.13 the CIC plat shall be prepared only by a land surveyor. A certification of the CIC plat or 24.14 supplemental CIC plat, or an amendment to it, under this subsection by an architect is not 24.15 required if all parts of the CIC plat, supplemental CIC plat, or amendment are prepared by 24.16 a land surveyor. Certification by the land surveyor or architect does not constitute a guaranty
24.17 or warranty of the nature, suitability, or quality of construction of any improvements located 24.18 or to be located in the common interest community.

24.19 (c) A CIC plat for a condominium, a planned community not utilizing a subdivision plat 24.20 or registered land survey under subsection (d), clause (1), or a cooperative in which the unit 24.21 owners' interests are characterized as real estate shall show:

24.22 (1) the number of the common interest community, and the boundaries, dimensions, and 24.23 a legally sufficient description of the land included therein. CIC plats under this paragraph 24.24 shall be numbered serially beginning with the next number after the last CIC number assigned 24.25 and the numbers shall run consecutively within the County Recorder's Office and Office of 24.26 the Registrar of Titles for each county;

24.27 (2) the dimensions and location of all existing roadways and material structural 24.28 improvements that are part of the common elements;

24.29 (3) the intended location and dimensions of all roadways and material structural 24.30 improvements that may be constructed by the declarant within the common elements after 24.31 the filing of the CIC plat, labeled either "MUST BE BUILT" or "NEED NOT BE BUILT";

24.32 (4) the location and dimensions of any additional real estate, labeled as such, and a 24.33 legally sufficient description of the additional real estate;

- 25.1 (5) the extent of any encroachments by or upon any portion of the common interest 25.2 community;
- 25.3 (6) the location and dimensions of all recorded easements within the land included in 25.4 the common interest community burdening any portion of the land;
- 25.5 (7) the distance and direction between noncontiguous parcels of real estate;
- 25.6 (8) the location and dimensions of limited common elements, except that with respect 25.7 to limited common elements described in section ~~515B.2-109~~, subsections (c) 515B.2-109(c) 25.8 and (d), only such material limited common elements as porches, balconies, decks, and 25.9 patios shall be shown;
- 25.10 (9) the location and dimensions of the front, rear, and side boundaries of each unit and 25.11 that unit's unit identifier;
- 25.12 (10) the location and dimensions of the upper and lower boundaries of each unit with 25.13 reference to an established or assumed datum and that unit's unit identifier; and
- 25.14 (11) a legally sufficient description of any real estate in which the unit owners will own 25.15 only an estate for years, labeled as "leasehold real estate."
- 25.16 (d) A CIC plat for a planned community either shall comply with subsection (c), or it 25.17 shall:
- 25.18 (1) comply with chapter 505, 508, or 508A, as applicable; and
- 25.19 (2) comply with the applicable subdivision requirements of any governmental authority 25.20 within whose jurisdiction the planned community is located, subject to the limitations set 25.21 forth in section 515B.1-106.
- 25.22 (e) If a declarant adds additional real estate, the declarant shall record a supplemental 25.23 CIC plat or plats for the real estate being added, conforming to the requirements of this 25.24 section which apply to the type of common interest community in question. If less than all
25.25 additional real estate is being added, the supplemental CIC plat for a condominium, a planned
25.26 community whose CIC plat complies with subsection (c), or a cooperative in which the unit
25.27 owners' interests are characterized as real estate, shall also show the location and dimensions 25.28 of the remaining portion.
- 25.29 (f) A CIC plat which complies with subsection (c) is not subject to chapter 505, but any 25.30 CIC plat recorded on or after August 1, 2026, must comply with the requirements of section 25.31 505.021, subdivision 1.

26.1 (g) This section applies only to common interest communities created on or after August 26.2 1, 2010.

26.3 Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.2-113, is amended to read:

26.4 515B.2-113 ALTERATION OF UNITS.

26.5 (a) Subject to the provisions of the declaration and applicable law, a unit owner may, at 26.6 the unit owner's expense, make any improvements or alterations to the unit, provided: (i) 26.7 that they do not impair the structural integrity or mechanical systems, affect the common 26.8 elements, or impair the support of any portion of the common interest community; (ii) that 26.9 prior arrangements are made with the association to ensure that other unit owners are not 26.10 disturbed; (iii) that the common elements are not damaged; and (iv) that the common 26.11 elements and other units are protected against mechanics' liens.

26.12 (b) Subject to the provisions of applicable law, a unit owner of a unit that is used as a 26.13 dwelling, whether primary, secondary, or seasonal, may, at the unit owner's expense, make 26.14 improvements or alterations to the unit as necessary for the full enjoyment of the unit by 26.15 any person residing in the unit who has a disability, as provided in the Fair Housing 26.16 Amendments Act, United States Code, title 42, section 3601, et seq., and the Minnesota 26.17 Human Rights Act, chapter 363A, and any amendments to those acts. This subsection applies 26.18 to all common interest communities subject to this chapter, chapter 515, or 515A, 26.19 notwithstanding any contrary provision of section 515B.1-102.

26.20 (c) The declaration, bylaws, rules, and regulations, or agreements with the association 26.21 may not prohibit the improvements or alterations referred to in subsection (b), but may 26.22 reasonably regulate the type, style, and quality of the improvements or alterations, as they 26.23 relate to health, safety, and architectural standards. In addition, improvements or alterations 26.24 made pursuant to subsection (b) must comply with subsection (a)(i), (ii), (iii), and (iv).

26.25 (d) The unit owner's rights under this section may not be waived.

26.26 (e) Subsection (b) does not apply to restrictions on improvements or alterations imposed 26.27 by statute, rule, or ordinance.

26.28 (f) Subject to the provisions of the declaration and applicable law, a unit owner may, at 26.29 the unit owner's expense, after acquiring title to an adjoining unit or an adjoining part of an 26.30 adjoining unit, with the prior written approval of the association and first mortgagees of the 26.31 affected units, remove or alter any intervening partition or create apertures therein, even if 26.32 the partition is part of the common elements, if those acts do not impair the structural 26.33 integrity or mechanical systems or lessen the support of any portion of the common interest

27.1 community. The adjoining unit owners shall have the exclusive license to use the space 27.2 occupied by the removed partition, but the use shall not create an easement or vested right.
 27.3 Removal of partitions or creation of apertures under this subsection is not an alteration of 27.4 boundaries. The association may require that the owner or owners of units affected replace 27.5 or restore any removed partition, that the unit owner comply with subsection (a)(i), (ii) ~~and~~₂ 27.6 (iii), and (iv), and that the unit owner pay all fees and costs incurred by the association in 27.7 connection with the alteration.

27.8 Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.2-118, is amended to read:

27.9 515B.2-118 AMENDMENT OF DECLARATION.

27.10 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), the declaration, including any CIC 27.11 plat, may be amended only by vote or written consent of unit owners of units to which at 27.12 least 67 percent of the votes in the association are allocated, or any greater or other 27.13 requirement the declaration specifies, subject to the following qualifications:

27.14 (1) A declarant may execute supplemental declarations or amendments under section 27.15 515B.2-111 or 515B.2-112.

27.16 (2) The association and certain unit owners, as applicable, may execute amendments 27.17 under section 515B.2-107, 515B.2-109, 515B.2-112, 515B.2-114, or 515B.2-124.

27.18 (3) Except for amendments or supplemental declarations under subsection (a)(1) and 27.19 (2), and except as provided in sections ~~515B.1-102(d)(3)~~ 515B.1-102(d)(3) and ~~515B.2-106~~ 27.20 ~~(a)(2)~~ 515B.2-106(a)(2), the unanimous written consent of the unit owners is required for 27.21 any amendment which (i) creates or increases special declarant rights, (ii) increases the 27.22 number of units, (iii) changes the boundaries of any unit, (iv) changes the allocated interests 27.23 of a unit, (v) changes common elements to limited common elements or units, (vi) changes 27.24 the authorized use of a unit from residential to nonresidential, or conversely, or (vii) changes 27.25 the characterization of the unit owner's interest in a cooperative from real estate to personal 27.26 property, or conversely. Where the amendment involves the conversion of common elements 27.27 into a unit or units, the title to the unit or units created shall, upon recording of the 27.28 amendment, vest in the association free and clear of the interests of the unit owners and all 27.29 secured parties holding security interests in units.

27.30 (4) In addition to any other requirements contained in this section, a declarant must 27.31 execute an amendment that eliminates or modifies any special declarant rights held by that 27.32 declarant.

28.1 (5) If any provision of this chapter, the declaration, the bylaws, or the articles of 28.2 incorporation requires the consent of a secured party holding a security interest in a unit as 28.3 a condition for the approval or effectiveness of an amendment to the declaration, the bylaws, 28.4 or the articles of incorporation, the consent is deemed to be granted if the secured party's 28.5 written refusal to consent is not received by the association within 60 days after the secured 28.6 party receives from the association notice and a copy of the amendment, by certified United 28.7 States mail, postage prepaid and return receipt requested. If the secured party has not 28.8 otherwise provided to the association an address for notice, the association shall send the 28.9 notice to the address, if any, set forth in the recorded instrument that evidences the security 28.10 interest. This subsection shall not apply to an amendment that affects the priority of a secured 28.11 party's security interest or the ability of a secured party to foreclose its security interest. In 28.12 such cases, the number or percentage of secured parties whose consent is required by the 28.13 instrument to be amended must consent to the amendment in writing.

28.14 (6) The declaration may specify less than 67 percent for approval of an amendment, but 28.15 only if all of the units are restricted to nonresidential use.

28.16 (7) If any provision of this chapter, the declaration, the bylaws, or the articles of 28.17 incorporation requires the vote or consent of unit owners as a condition for the approval or 28.18 effectiveness of an amendment to the declaration, the bylaws, or the articles of incorporation, 28.19 the affirmative vote or consent of a unit owner is deemed to be granted if the association
28.20 sends notice and a copy of the amendment, by certified United States mail, postage prepaid 28.21 and return receipt requested, and (i) if a vote is conducted, the unit owner's vote is not cast 28.22 against the proposed amendment, or (ii) if consent is requested, the unit owner's written 28.23 refusal to consent is not received by the association within 60 days after notice is mailed.
28.24 This subsection shall not apply to any amendment that would require execution by the 28.25 association and certain unit owners pursuant to subsection (a)(2).

28.26 (b) No action to challenge the validity of an amendment or a supplemental declaration 28.27 may be brought more than two years after the amendment or supplemental declaration is 28.28 recorded.

28.29 (c) Every amendment to a declaration or supplemental declaration shall be recorded in 28.30 every county in which any portion of the common interest community is located and is 28.31 effective only when recorded and, for amendments recorded on or after August 1, 2026, 28.32 any vote or consent of unit owners required by this section or by the declaration is established 28.33 of record as provided in section 515B.1-116(d). If an amendment (i) changes the number 28.34 of units, (ii) changes the boundary of a unit, (iii) changes common elements to limited 28.35 common elements, ~~where the limited common element is required by~~ and section 515B.2-110

29.1 ~~(e), to 515B.2-110(c) or 515B.2-1101(c) requires the limited common element~~ be shown 29.2 on the CIC plat, (iv) changes limited common elements to common elements if the limited 29.3 common elements are shown as limited common elements on the CIC plat, or (v) makes 29.4 any other change that creates an inconsistency between the declaration, as amended, and 29.5 the CIC plat, then an amendment to the CIC plat reflecting the change shall be recorded.

29.6 (d) The association may petition the district court of any county in which any portion 29.7 of the common interest community is located for an order reducing the percentage of 29.8 affirmative votes or consents necessary for an amendment to the declaration, bylaws, or 29.9 articles of incorporation, subject to the following qualifications:

29.10 (1) The petition shall describe the reason for the amendment, the approval requirements 29.11 based on the governing documents and applicable law, the effort that has been made to 29.12 solicit approval of the association members, the number of affirmative votes or consents 29.13 actually received, the number of negative votes or denials actually received, the number or 29.14 percentage of affirmative votes or consents required to effect the amendment, and other 29.15 matters the petitioner considers relevant to the court's determination. The petition shall also 29.16 contain, as exhibits thereto, copies of all of the following: (i) the governing documents; (ii) 29.17 the complete text of the amendment; (iii) copies of any notice and solicitation materials 29.18 utilized in the solicitation of member approvals; and (iv) any other documentation that the 29.19 petitioner believes will be useful to the court in deciding whether to grant the petition.

29.20 (2) Upon filing the petition, the association shall contact the court administrator to obtain 29.21 a hearing date not less than 90 days after the date of filing the petition.

29.22 (3) Not less than 15 days prior to the date of the hearing, the association shall serve a 29.23 copy of the petition, excluding the exhibits, and notice of the hearing date on all members 29.24 of the association in the same manner as service of a summons by personal service, or by 29.25 publication in circumstances in which service of a summons by publication would be allowed 29.26 under the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to avoid 29.27 unnecessary expenses of service, the association may obtain from any member of the 29.28 association a signed waiver of service (i) acknowledging receipt of a copy of the petition, 29.29 excluding the exhibits, and notice of the hearing date, and (ii) waiving service thereof.

29.30 (4) The court may grant the petition if it finds all of the following:

29.31 (i) each member of the association was served with a copy of the petition, excluding the 29.32 exhibits, and notice of the hearing date not less than 15 days prior to the date of the hearing, 29.33 or waived service thereof, pursuant to subsection (d)(3);

30.1 (ii) each secured party that is entitled to notice of the proposed amendment under the 30.2 terms of the declaration, bylaws, or articles of incorporation, if any, either consented to the 30.3 amendment, is deemed to have consented to the amendment pursuant to subsection (a)(5), 30.4 or received a copy of the petition, excluding the exhibits, and notice of the hearing date not 30.5 less than 15 days prior to the date of the hearing;

30.6 (iii) the association conducted a vote or requested the consent of the members regarding 30.7 the proposed amendment in accordance with the declaration, the bylaws, the articles of 30.8 incorporation, this chapter, and any other applicable law;

30.9 (iv) a reasonably diligent effort was made to permit all eligible members to vote, or to 30.10 grant or deny consent, regarding the proposed amendment;

30.11 (v) the amendment was approved by the affirmative vote or consent of unit owners of 30.12 units to which at least 67 percent of the votes in the association are allocated, or if all of the 30.13 units are restricted to nonresidential use, by the affirmative vote or consent of unit owners 30.14 of units to which a majority of the votes in the association are allocated;

30.15 (vi) the amendment is reasonable; and 30.16 (vii) granting the petition is not improper for any reason stated in subsection (d)(6).

30.17 (5) If the court makes the findings required by subsection (d)(4), any order issued pursuant 30.18 to this section may confirm the amendment as being validly approved on the basis of the 30.19 affirmative votes or consents actually received, or the order may dispense with any 30.20 requirement relating to quorums or to the number or percentage of votes or consents needed 30.21 for approval of the amendment that would otherwise exist under the governing documents.

30.22 (6) Notwithstanding subsections (d)(1) to (5), the court shall not approve any amendment 30.23 that:

30.24 (i) would require execution by the association and certain unit owners pursuant to 30.25 subsection (a)(2), unless the association and unit owners execute the amendment;

30.26 (ii) would require the unanimous written consent of the unit owners pursuant to subsection 30.27 (a)(3);

30.28 (iii) would eliminate any special rights, preferences, or privileges designated in the 30.29 declaration as belonging to the declarant, without the consent of the declarant; or 30.30 (iv) would impair the security interest of a secured party without the approval of the 30.31 percentage of secured parties specified in the declaration, if the declaration requires the 30.32 approval of a specified percentage of secured parties.

31.1 (7) An amendment to a declaration is not effective pursuant to this subsection until the 31.2 court order and amendment have been recorded in every county in which a portion of the 31.3 common interest community is located. Upon recordation of the amendment and court order, 31.4 the declaration, as amended in accordance with this section, shall have the same force and 31.5 effect as if the amendment were adopted in compliance with every requirement imposed 31.6 by this chapter and the declaration.

31.7 Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.2-119, is amended to read:

31.8 515B.2-119 TERMINATION OF COMMON INTEREST COMMUNITY.

31.9 (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a common interest community may be 31.10 terminated only by agreement of unit owners of units to which at least 80 percent of the 31.11 votes in the association are allocated, and 80 percent of the first mortgagees of units (each 31.12 mortgagee having one vote per unit financed), or any larger percentage the declaration 31.13 specifies. The declaration may specify a smaller percentage only if all of the units are 31.14 restricted to nonresidential use.

31.15 (b) An agreement to terminate shall be evidenced by a written agreement, executed in 31.16 the same manner as a deed by the number of unit owners and first mortgagees of units
31.17 required by subsection (a). The agreement shall specify a date after which the agreement 31.18 shall be void unless recorded before that date. The agreement shall also specify a date by 31.19 which the termination of the common interest community and the winding up of its affairs
31.20 must be accomplished. A certificate of termination executed by the association evidencing 31.21 the termination shall be recorded on or before the termination date, or the agreement to 31.22 terminate shall be revoked. The agreement to terminate, or a memorandum thereof, and the 31.23 certificate of termination shall be recorded in every county in which a portion of the common 31.24 interest community is situated and is effective only upon recording.

31.25 (c) In the case of a condominium or planned community containing only units having 31.26 upper and lower boundaries, a termination agreement may provide that all of the common 31.27 elements and units of the common interest community must be sold following termination.
31.28 If, pursuant to the agreement, any real estate in the common interest community is to be 31.29 sold following termination, the termination agreement shall set forth the minimum terms 31.30 of sale acceptable to the association.

31.31 (d) In the case of a condominium or planned community containing any units not having 31.32 upper and lower boundaries, a termination agreement may provide for sale of the common 31.33 elements, but it may not require that the units be sold following termination, unless the 32.1 original declaration provided otherwise or all unit owners whose units are to be sold consent 32.2 to the sale.

32.3 (e) The association, on behalf of the unit owners, shall have authority to contract for the 32.4 sale of real estate in a common interest community pursuant to this section, subject to the 32.5 required approval. The agreement to terminate shall be deemed to grant to the association 32.6 a power of attorney coupled with an interest to effect the conveyance of the real estate on 32.7 behalf of the holders of all interests in the units, including without limitation the power to 32.8 execute all instruments of conveyance and related instruments. Until the sale has been 32.9 completed, all instruments in connection with the sale have been executed and the sale 32.10 proceeds distributed, the association shall continue in existence with all powers it had before 32.11 termination.

32.12 (1) The instrument conveying or creating the interest in the common interest community 32.13 shall include as exhibits (i) an affidavit of the secretary of the association certifying that the 32.14 approval required by this section has been obtained and (ii) a schedule of the names of all 32.15 unit owners in the common interest community as of the date of the approval.

32.16 (2) Proceeds of the sale shall be distributed to unit owners and secured parties as their 32.17 interests may appear, in accordance with subsections (h), (i), (j), and (k).

32.18 (3) Unless otherwise specified in the agreement of termination, until the association has 32.19 conveyed title to the real estate, each unit owner and the unit owner's successors in interest 32.20 have an exclusive right to occupancy of the portion of the real estate that formerly constituted 32.21 the unit. During the period of that occupancy, each unit owner and the unit owner's successors 32.22 in interest remain liable for all assessments and other obligations imposed on unit owners 32.23 by this chapter, the declaration or the bylaws.

32.24 (f) The legal description of the real estate constituting the common interest community 32.25 shall, upon the date of recording of the certificate of termination referred to in subsection 32.26 (b), be as follows:

32.27 (1) In a planned community utilizing a CIC plat complying with section 515B.2-110(d)(1)
32.28 and (2) or 515B.2-1101(d)(1) and (2), the lot and block description contained in the CIC 32.29 plat, and any amendments thereto, subject to any subsequent conveyance or taking of a fee 32.30 interest in any part of the property.

32.31 (2) In a condominium or cooperative, or a planned community utilizing a CIC plat 32.32 complying with section 515B.2-110(c) or 515B.2-1101(c), the underlying legal description 32.33 of the real estate as set forth in the declaration creating the common interest community,

33.1 and any amendments thereto, subject to any subsequent conveyance or taking of a fee interest 33.2 in any part of the property.

33.3 (3) The legal description referred to in this subsection shall apply upon the recording of 33.4 the certificate of termination. The recording officer for each county in which the common 33.5 interest community is located shall index the property located in that county in its records 33.6 under the legal description required by this subsection from and after the date of recording 33.7 of the certificate of termination. In the case of registered property, the registrar of titles shall 33.8 cancel the existing certificates of title with respect to the property and issue one or more 33.9 certificates of title for the property utilizing the legal description required by this subsection.

33.10 (g) In a condominium or planned community, if the agreement to terminate provides 33.11 that the real estate constituting the common interest community is not to be sold following 33.12 termination, title to the common elements and, in a common interest community containing 33.13 only units having upper and lower boundaries described in the declaration, title to all the 33.14 real estate in the common interest community, vests in the unit owners upon termination as 33.15 tenants in common in proportion to their respective interest as provided in subsection (k), 33.16 and liens on the units shift accordingly. While the tenancy in common exists, each unit 33.17 owner and the unit owner's successors in interest have an exclusive right to occupancy of 33.18 the portion of the real estate that formerly constituted the unit.

33.19 (h) The proceeds of any sale of real estate pursuant to subsection (e), together with the 33.20 assets of the association, shall be held by the association as trustee for unit owners, secured 33.21 parties and other holders of liens on the units as their interests may appear. Before distributing 33.22 any proceeds, the association shall have authority to deduct from the proceeds of sale due 33.23 with respect to the unit (i) unpaid assessments levied by the association with respect to the 33.24 unit, (ii) unpaid real estate taxes or special assessments due with respect to the unit, and 33.25 (iii) the share of expenses of sale and winding up of the association's affairs with respect to 33.26 the unit.

33.27 (i) Following termination of a condominium or planned community, creditors of the 33.28 association holding liens on the units perfected before termination may enforce those liens 33.29 in the same manner as any lienholder, in order of priority based upon their times of perfection.
33.30 All other creditors of the association are to be treated as if they had perfected liens on the 33.31 units immediately before termination.

33.32 (j) In a cooperative, the declaration may provide that all creditors of the association have 33.33 priority over any interests of unit owners and creditors of unit owners. In that event, following 33.34 termination, creditors of the association holding liens on the cooperative which were perfected

34.1 before termination may enforce their liens in the same manner as any lienholder, in order 34.2 of priority based upon their times of perfection. All other creditors of the association shall 34.3 be treated as if they had perfected a lien against the cooperative immediately before 34.4 termination. Unless the declaration provides that all creditors of the association have that 34.5 priority:

34.6 (1) the lien of each creditor of the association which was perfected against the association 34.7 before termination becomes, upon termination, a lien against each unit owner's interest in 34.8 the unit as of the date the lien was perfected;

34.9 (2) any other creditor of the association is to be treated upon termination as if the creditor 34.10 had perfected a lien against each unit owner's interest immediately before termination;

34.11 (3) the amount of the lien of an association's creditor described in paragraphs (1) and 34.12 (2) against each of the unit owners' interest shall be proportionate to the ratio which each 34.13 unit's common expense liability bears to the common expense liability of all of the units;

34.14 (4) the lien of each creditor of each unit owner which was perfected before termination 34.15 continues as a lien against that unit owner's interest in the unit as of the date the lien was 34.16 perfected; and

34.17 (5) the assets of the association shall be distributed to all unit owners and all lienholders
34.18 as their interests may appear in the order described in this section. Creditors of the association 34.19 are not entitled to payment from any unit owner in excess of the amount of the creditor's 34.20 lien against that unit owner's interest.

34.21 (k) The respective interest of unit owners referred to in subsections (e), (f), (g), (h) and 34.22 (i) are as follows:

34.23 (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the respective interests of unit owners are the 34.24 fair market values of their units, allocated interests, and any limited common elements 34.25 immediately before the termination, as determined by one or more independent appraisers 34.26 selected by the association. The decision of the independent appraisers must be distributed 34.27 to the unit owners and becomes final unless disapproved within 30 days after distribution 34.28 by unit owners of units to which 25 percent of the votes in the association are allocated.
34.29 The proportion of any unit's interest to that of all units is determined by dividing the fair 34.30 market value of that unit by the total fair market values of all the units.

34.31 (2) If any unit or any limited common element is destroyed to the extent that an appraisal 34.32 of the fair market value thereof before destruction cannot be made, the interests of all unit 34.33 owners shall be measured by: (i) in a condominium, their allocations of common element

35.1 interests immediately before the termination, (ii) in a cooperative, their respective ownership 35.2 interests immediately before the termination, and (iii) in a planned community, their 35.3 respective allocations of common expenses immediately before the termination.

35.4 (l) In a condominium or planned community, except as provided in subsection (m), 35.5 foreclosure or enforcement of a lien or encumbrance against the entire common interest 35.6 community does not terminate, of itself, the common interest community, and foreclosure 35.7 or enforcement of a lien or encumbrance against a portion of the common interest community 35.8 does not withdraw that portion from the common interest community.

35.9 (m) In a condominium or planned community, if a lien or encumbrance against a portion 35.10 of the real estate comprising the common interest community has priority over the declaration 35.11 and the lien or encumbrance has not been partially released, the parties foreclosing the lien 35.12 or encumbrance, upon foreclosure, may record an instrument excluding the real estate subject 35.13 to that lien or encumbrance from the common interest community.

35.14 (n) Following the termination of a common interest community in accordance with this 35.15 section, the association shall be dissolved in accordance with law.

35.16 Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.2-121, is amended to read:

35.17 515B.2-121 MASTER ASSOCIATIONS.

35.18 (a) A master association formed after June 1, 1994, shall be organized as a Minnesota 35.19 profit, nonprofit or cooperative corporation. A master association shall be incorporated prior 35.20 to the delegation to it of any powers under this chapter.

35.21 (b) The members of the master association shall be any combination of (i) unit owners, 35.22 (ii) associations, (iii) master associations, or (iv) owners of real estate or property owners' 35.23 associations not subject to this chapter but only in combination with at least one other 35.24 category of member. An association or its members may be members of an entity created 35.25 before June 1, 1994, which performs functions similar to those performed by a master 35.26 association regardless of whether the entity is subject to this chapter.

35.27 (c) A master association shall be governed by a master board. Except as expressly 35.28 prohibited by the master declaration, the master association's articles of incorporation or 35.29 bylaws, or other provisions of this chapter, the master board may act in all instances on 35.30 behalf of the master association. The directors of a master association shall be elected or, 35.31 if a nonprofit corporation, elected or appointed, in a manner consistent with the requirements 35.32 of the statute under which the master association is formed and of the master association's 35.33 articles of incorporation and bylaws, and subject to the following:

36.1 (1) The master declaration may provide for a period of master developer control of the 36.2 master association during which a master developer or a person designated by the master 36.3 developer may appoint and remove the officers and directors of the master association. The 36.4 period of master developer control begins on the date of the recording of the master 36.5 declaration and terminates upon the earliest of the following events:

36.6 (i) the voluntary surrender of the right to appoint directors;

36.7 (ii) the date ten years after the date the master declaration is recorded, unless extended 36.8 by an amendment to the master declaration approved in writing by the master developer, 36.9 and by 67 percent of the votes of members other than the master developer;

36.10 (iii) the termination date, if any, in the master declaration; or

36.11 (iv) the date when at least 75 percent of the total units and other parcels of real estate 36.12 referred to in subsection (e)(1)(vii) have been conveyed to persons other than a master 36.13 developer, master association, declarant, or association.

36.14 (2) Upon the termination of the period of master developer control, the master board 36.15 shall cause a meeting of the members of the master association to be called and held within 36.16 60 days after said termination, at which time the directors shall be elected by all members, 36.17 including the master developer if a member. If the master board fails or refuses to call a 36.18 meeting of the unit owners required to be called by this subsection, then the members other 36.19 than the master developer and its affiliates, if they are members, may cause the meeting to 36.20 be called pursuant to the applicable provisions of the statute under which the master 36.21 association was created. If the master developer or its affiliates are members, they shall be 36.22 deemed to be present at the meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum regardless of 36.23 their failure to attend the meeting. The master board shall thereafter be subject to the 36.24 following:

36.25 (i) unless otherwise approved by a vote of members other than the master developer or 36.26 an affiliate of the master developer, a majority of the directors shall be members, or a natural 36.27 person designated by a member that is not a natural person, other than the master developer 36.28 or an affiliate of the master developer;

36.29 (ii) subject to the requirements of subsection (c)(2)(i), the articles of incorporation or 36.30 bylaws may authorize the master developer or a person designated by the master developer
36.31 to appoint one director, who need not be a member. The articles of incorporation or bylaws 36.32 shall not be amended to change or terminate the authorization to appoint one director without 36.33 the written consent of the master developer or other person possessing the power to appoint; 36.34 and

37.1 (iii) subject to the requirements of subsection (c)(2)(i), the articles of incorporation or 37.2 bylaws may authorize special classes of directors and director voting rights, as follows: (A) 37.3 classes of directors, (B) the appointment or election of directors in certain classes by certain 37.4 classes of members, or (C) class voting by classes of directors on issues affecting only a 37.5 certain class or classes of members, units, or other parcels of real estate, or to otherwise 37.6 protect the legitimate interests of such class or classes. No person may utilize such special 37.7 classes or class voting for the purpose of evading any limitation imposed by this chapter on 37.8 master developers or declarants.

37.9 (d) Subject to subsection (c)(1), the officers of a master association shall be elected, 37.10 appointed, or designated in a manner consistent with the statute under which the master 37.11 association is formed and consistent with the master association articles of incorporation 37.12 and bylaws.

37.13 (e) The creation and authority of a master association shall be governed by the following 37.14 requirements:

37.15 (1) A master declaration shall be recorded in connection with the creation of a master 37.16 association. The master declaration shall be executed by the owners of the real estate 37.17 subjected to the master declaration and by the master developer if not an owner. The master 37.18 declaration shall contain, at a minimum:

37.19 (i) the name of the master association;

37.20 (ii) a legally sufficient description of the real estate which is subject to the master 37.21 declaration, identifying any interest in the real estate which will be owned by the master 37.22 association, and a legally sufficient description of any other real estate which may be 37.23 subjected to the master declaration pursuant to subsection (f);

37.24 (iii) a statement as to whether the real estate subject to, and which may be subjected to, 37.25 the master declaration collectively is or collectively will be a separate common interest 37.26 community;

37.27 (iv) a description of the members of the master association;

37.28 (v) a description of the master association's powers. To the extent described in the master 37.29 declaration, a master association has the powers with respect to the master association's 37.30 members and the property subject to the master declaration that section 515B.3-102 grants 37.31 to an association with respect to the association's members and the property subject to the 37.32 declaration. A master association also has the powers delegated to it by an association 37.33 pursuant to subsection (e)(2) or by a property owners' association not subject to the chapter;

38.1 provided (A) that the master declaration identifies the powers and authorizes the delegation 38.2 either expressly or by a grant of authority to the master board of the association or property
38.3 owners' association and (B) that the master association board has not refused the delegation 38.4 pursuant to subsection (e)(4). The provisions of the declarations of the common interest 38.5 communities, or the provisions of recorded instruments governing other property subject 38.6 to the master declaration, that delegate powers to the master association shall be consistent 38.7 with the provisions of the master declaration that govern the delegation of the powers;

38.8 (vi) a description of the formulas governing the allocation of assessments and member 38.9 voting rights, including any special classes or class voting referred to in subsection (c);

38.10 (vii) a statement, based upon the master developer's good faith estimate, of the total 38.11 number of units and other parcels of real estate intended for ownership by persons other 38.12 than a master developer, master association, declarant, or association that are (A) subject 38.13 to the master declaration as initially recorded and (B) intended to be created by the addition 38.14 of real estate or by the subdivision of units or other parcels of real estate; and

38.15 (viii) the requirements for amendment of the master declaration, other than an amendment 38.16 under subsection (f).

38.17 (2) The declaration of a common interest community located on property subject to a 38.18 master declaration may:

38.19 (i) delegate any of the powers described in section 515B.3-102 to the master association;
38.20 provided, that a delegation of the powers described in section 515B.3-102(a)(2) is effective 38.21 only if expressly stated in the declaration; and

38.22 (ii) authorize the board to delegate any of the powers described in section 515B.3-102, 38.23 except for the powers described in section 515B.3-102(a)(2), to the master association.

38.24 (3) With respect to any other property subject to a master association, there need not be 38.25 an instrument other than the master declaration recorded against the property to empower 38.26 the master association to exercise powers with respect to the property.

38.27 (4) If a declaration or other recorded instrument authorizes the master board or the board 38.28 of a property owners' association to delegate powers to a master association, the master 38.29 board may refuse any delegation of powers that does not comply with (i) this chapter, (ii) 38.30 the declaration or other recorded instrument, or (iii) the organizational documents of the 38.31 master association.

38.32 (5) The failure of a declaration, a master board, or an owner of property subject to a 38.33 master association to properly delegate some or all of the powers to the master association

39.1 does not affect the authority of the master association to exercise those and other powers 39.2 with respect to other common interest communities or owners of properties that are subject 39.3 to the master association.

39.4 (6) Any interest in the real estate subject to a master declaration that subsection (e)(1)(ii)
39.5 or (f) indicates will be owned by the master association shall be conveyed to the master 39.6 association immediately after the recording of the master declaration or amendment to the 39.7 master declaration, as applicable.

39.8 (f) If the master declaration so provides, other real estate may be subjected to the master 39.9 declaration. The other real estate shall be subjected to the master declaration by an 39.10 amendment executed (i) by the master developer and (ii) by the owner of the other real 39.11 estate. The amendment shall identify any ownership interest in the other real estate that will 39.12 be owned by the master association.

39.13 (g) Sections 515B.3-103(a), (b), and (g), 515B.3-108, 515B.3-109, 515B.3-110, and 39.14 515B.3-112 shall apply in the conduct of the affairs of a master association. But the rights 39.15 of voting, notice, and other rights enumerated in those sections apply to persons who elect 39.16 or appoint the directors of a master board, whether or not those persons are otherwise unit 39.17 owners within the meaning of this chapter.

39.18 (h) If so provided in the master declaration, a master association may levy assessments 39.19 for common expenses of the master association against its members and the property subject 39.20 to the master declaration, and have and foreclose liens securing the assessments. The 39.21 assessment liens shall have the same priority against secured parties, shall include the same 39.22 fees and charges, and may be foreclosed in the same manner, as assessment liens under 39.23 section 515B.3-116. The master association's lien shall have priority as against the lien of 39.24 an association or property owners' association subject to the master association, regardless 39.25 of when the lien arose or was perfected.

39.26 (1) Master association common expenses shall be allocated among the members of the 39.27 master association in a fair and equitable manner. If the members include associations or 39.28 property owners' associations, then the master assessments may be allocated among and 39.29 levied against the associations or property owners' associations, or allocated among and 39.30 levied against the units or other parcels of real estate owned by the members of the association 39.31 or property owners' association. If so provided in the master declaration, master assessments 39.32 levied against a member association or property owners' association are allocated among 39.33 and levied against the units or other parcels of real estate owned by the members of the 39.34 association or property owners' association. If applicable and appropriate, the formulas and 40.1 principles described in section ~~515B.2-108, subsections (b)~~ 515B.2-108(b), (c), (d), and (e), 40.2 shall be used in making the allocations. The assessment formulas and procedures described 40.3 in the declarations of any common interest communities or any instruments governing other 40.4 real estate subject to the master association shall not conflict with the formulas and procedures 40.5 described in the master declaration.

40.6 (2) Subject to subsection (i), the master declaration may exempt from liability for all or 40.7 a portion of master association assessments any person authorized by subsection (c)(1) to 40.8 appoint the members of the master board, or any other person, and exempt any unit or other 40.9 parcel of real estate owned by the person from a lien for such assessments, until the building 40.10 containing the unit, or located within the boundaries of the unit or other parcel of real estate, 40.11 is substantially completed. Substantial completion shall be evidenced by a certificate of 40.12 occupancy in a jurisdiction that issues that certificate.

40.13 (i) A master association shall not be used, directly or indirectly, to avoid or nullify any 40.14 warranties or other obligations for which a declarant of a common interest community 40.15 subject to the master association is responsible, or to otherwise avoid the requirements of 40.16 this chapter.

40.17 Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.2-124, is amended to read:

40.18 515B.2-124 SEVERANCE OF COMMON INTEREST COMMUNITY.

40.19 (a) Unless the declaration provides otherwise, a part of a common interest community 40.20 containing one or more units, with or without common elements, may be severed from the 40.21 common interest community, subject to the requirements of this section. Subject to any 40.22 additional requirements contained in the declaration, the severance shall be approved in a 40.23 written severance agreement complying with this section, executed by:

40.24 (1) unit owners entitled to cast at least 67 percent of the votes in the association, which 40.25 approval shall include the approval of unit owners entitled to cast a majority of the votes 40.26 allocated to units in the remaining common interest community and the approval of unit 40.27 owners entitled to cast a majority of the votes allocated to units in the part of the common 40.28 interest community being severed;

40.29 (2) declarant until the earlier of five years after the recording of the declaration or the 40.30 time at which declarant no longer owns an unsold unit; and

40.31 (3) in the case of a cooperative, all holders of mortgages or contracts for deed on the 40.32 entire real estate constituting the cooperative.

41.1 (b) The declaration may specify a smaller percentage for unit owner approval only if all 41.2 of the units are restricted to nonresidential use.

41.3 (c) The severance agreement shall specify a severance date by which the severance of 41.4 the common interest community shall be accomplished, after which the severance agreement 41.5 is void. The severance agreement shall be deemed to grant to the association a power of 41.6 attorney coupled with an interest to effect the severance of the common interest community 41.7 on behalf of the unit owners and the holders of all other interests in the units, including 41.8 without limitations the power to execute the amendment to the declaration, any instruments 41.9 of conveyance, and all related instruments.

41.10 (d) The severance agreement shall:

41.11 (1) Approve an amendment to the declaration complying with this chapter, in substantially 41.12 the same form to be recorded, and an amendment to the CIC plat if required. The declaration 41.13 amendment shall, at a minimum, (i) legally describe the real estate constituting the remaining 41.14 common interest community and the real estate being severed, (ii) restate the number of 41.15 units in the remaining common interest community, (iii) reallocate the interests of the unit 41.16 owners in the remaining common interest community among the remaining units in 41.17 accordance with the allocation formula set forth in the declaration, and (iv) recite any 41.18 easements to which the severed portion of the common interest community remains subject.

41.19 (2) Approve an amendment to the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the remaining 41.20 common interest community, if necessary.

41.21 (3) Authorize the association to execute and record the amended declaration, articles of 41.22 incorporation or bylaws on behalf of the unit owners and all other persons holding an interest 41.23 in the remaining common interest community, and to take other actions necessary to 41.24 accomplish the severance of the common interest community.

41.25 (4) Allocate the assets and liabilities of the association between the association and (i) 41.26 a new association formed pursuant to subsection (g), or (ii) the owners of the units being 41.27 severed, subject to a lien against their interest in the severed real estate or their share in the 41.28 assets of the association in favor of any person that held a security interest in their unit.

41.29 (5) If the units that are being severed from the common interest community will not be 41.30 included in a new common interest community that is (i) formed simultaneously with the 41.31 severance of the common interest community, and (ii) includes all of the units and 41.32 substantially all of the common elements being severed, then the agreement shall contain 41.33 the written consent of holders of first mortgages on all units that are being severed, and 41.34 shall describe in detail the proposed disposition of all real estate to be severed and all assets

42.1 of the association allocated to the severed units, and the distribution of the proceeds of the 42.2 disposition, if any, consistent with subsection (i).

42.3 (e) The severance agreement or a memorandum of it shall be recorded in every county 42.4 in which a part of the common interest community is located. The recording of the severance 42.5 agreement or memorandum of it shall, from the date of recording, constitute notice to all 42.6 persons subsequently acquiring an interest in the common interest community that the 42.7 common interest community is being severed, and that those persons acquire their interests 42.8 subject to the terms and conditions contained in the severance agreement and the amendment 42.9 to the declaration.

42.10 (f) The amendment to the declaration of the remaining common interest community 42.11 shall be recorded on or before the severance date or the severance agreement and the 42.12 amendment to the declaration are void as of the day after the severance date. The recording 42.13 of the amendment to the declaration shall complete the severance of the common interest 42.14 community and release the severed part of the common interest community from the 42.15 declaration without further action by any person.

42.16 (g) If the units that are being severed from the common interest community will be 42.17 included in a new common interest community, then unit owners entitled to cast at least 80 42.18 percent of the votes allocated by the existing declaration to these units shall approve a new 42.19 declaration, articles of incorporation and bylaws to govern the new common interest 42.20 community no later than the date of the severance agreement. However, the new declaration 42.21 shall not create, increase, or extend special declarant rights, increase the number of units, 42.22 change unit boundaries, change the formula for allocations of interests, change the use of 42.23 a unit from residential to nonresidential or conversely, or change the form of common 42.24 interest community, unless agreed to in writing by all owners whose units are being severed.
42.25 The new declaration shall be recorded simultaneously with the amendment to the existing 42.26 declaration. The articles of incorporation creating the association intended to govern the 42.27 new common interest community shall be filed with the secretary of state and the unit owners 42.28 whose units are being severed shall elect a board of directors to act on behalf of the new 42.29 association before the recording of the new declaration. The new association shall have a 42.30 power of attorney coupled with an interest to execute and record the new declaration, any 42.31 instruments of conveyance, and all related instruments on behalf of the unit owners whose 42.32 units are being severed from the common interest community, but shall not thereby acquire 42.33 any rights or obligations of a declarant. The board of directors of the new association shall 42.34 cooperate with the board of directors of the existing association to complete the severance.
42.35 The existing association shall retain all authority to act on behalf of the common interest

43.1 community until the amendment to the existing declaration and the new declaration are 43.2 recorded.

43.3 (h) The legal descriptions of the real estate constituting (i) the remaining common interest 43.4 community, and (ii) the severed portion of the common interest community shall, at the 43.5 time of recording of the amendment to the declaration referred to in subsection (e), be as 43.6 follows:

43.7 (1) In a planned community using a CIC plat that complies with section ~~515B.2-110,~~ 43.8 ~~subsection (d) 515B.2-110(d)(1) and (2) or 515B.2-1101(d)(1) and (2),~~ the lot and block 43.9 descriptions contained in the CIC plat, and any amendments to it, with respect to (i) the 43.10 remaining common interest community, and (ii) the severed portion of the common interest 43.11 community.

43.12 (2) In a condominium, or cooperative or planned community using a CIC plat that 43.13 complies with section ~~515B.2-110, subsection (e) 515B.2-110(c) or 515B.2-1101(c),~~ (i) the 43.14 CIC plat description relating to the remaining common interest community, and (ii) the part 43.15 of the underlying legal description of the real estate in the declaration creating the common 43.16 interest community, and any amendments to it, relating to the severed part of the common 43.17 interest community.

43.18 (3) The recording officer for each county in which the common interest community is 43.19 located shall index the property located in that county in its records under the legal 43.20 descriptions required by this subsection as of the date of recording of the amendment to the 43.21 declaration. In the case of registered property, the registrar of titles shall cancel the existing 43.22 certificates of title for the severed part of the common interest community and issue 43.23 certificates of title for the property using the legal descriptions required by this subsection.

43.24 (i) In a condominium or planned community, if the severed part of the common interest 43.25 community is not to be reconstituted as a new common interest community following 43.26 severance, title to all the real estate in the severed part of the common interest community 43.27 vests in the unit owners of the units being severed, upon severance, as provided in the 43.28 severance agreement.

43.29 (j) No common interest community shall be severed in such a manner as to materially 43.30 impair access, utility services, communication services, or other essential services with 43.31 respect to either the remaining common interest community or the severed part of the 43.32 common interest community.

44.1 Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.2-125, is amended to read:

44.2 515B.2-125 ADDITION OF COMMON ELEMENTS.

44.3 (a) Unless the declaration provides otherwise, real estate owned by the association may 44.4 be added to the common interest community, as common elements only, subject to the 44.5 requirements of this section. Subject to any additional requirements contained in the 44.6 declaration, the addition of the real estate shall be approved by:

44.7 (1) unit owners entitled to cast at least 67 percent of the votes in the association;

44.8 (2) declarant until the earlier of (i) five years after the recording of the declaration, or 44.9 (ii) the time at which declarant no longer owns an unsold unit; and

44.10 (3) in the case of a cooperative, all holders of mortgages or contracts for deed on the 44.11 entire real estate constituting the cooperative.

44.12 (b) The declaration may specify a smaller percentage for unit owner approval only if all 44.13 of the units are restricted to nonresidential use. A part of the common elements shall not be 44.14 designated as limited common elements unless approved unanimously in writing by the 44.15 unit owners.

44.16 (c) The approval by the unit owners shall be deemed to grant to the association a power 44.17 of attorney coupled with an interest to acquire title to the real estate, if not previously 44.18 acquired, and to add the real estate to the common interest community on behalf of the unit 44.19 owners and the holders of all other interests in the units, including without limit the power 44.20 to execute an amendment to the declaration and any other instruments relating to the 44.21 acquisition.

44.22 (d) Following the required approvals, the association shall record an amendment to the 44.23 declaration complying with this chapter, that, at a minimum, (i) legally describes the real 44.24 estate added, (ii) designates the real estate as part of the common elements, and (iii) subjects 44.25 the real estate to the declaration.

44.26 (e) In the case of a common interest community using a plat complying with section 44.27 ~~515B.2-110, subsection (e)~~ 515B.2-110(c) or 515B.2-1101(c), the association shall record
44.28 an amended CIC plat reflecting the change in the common elements with the amendment
44.29 to the declaration. The recording of the amendment to the declaration, and amended CIC 44.30 plat if required, shall complete the addition of the real estate without further action by any 44.31 person.

45.1 Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.3-102, is amended to read:

45.2 515B.3-102 POWERS OF UNIT OWNERS' ASSOCIATION.

45.3 (a) Except as provided in subsections (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) and subject to the provisions 45.4 of the declaration or bylaws, the association shall have the power to:

45.5 (1) adopt, amend and revoke rules and regulations not inconsistent with the articles of 45.6 incorporation, bylaws and declaration, as follows: (i) regulating the use of the common 45.7 elements; (ii) regulating the use of the units, and conduct of unit occupants, which may 45.8 jeopardize the health, safety or welfare of other occupants, which involves noise or other 45.9 disturbing activity, or which may damage the common elements or other units; (iii) regulating 45.10 or prohibiting animals; (iv) regulating changes in the appearance of the common elements 45.11 and conduct which may damage the common interest community; (v) regulating the exterior 45.12 appearance of the common interest community, including, for example, balconies and patios, 45.13 window treatments, and signs and other displays, regardless of whether inside a unit; (vi) 45.14 implementing the articles of incorporation, declaration and bylaws, and exercising the 45.15 powers granted by this section; and (vii) otherwise facilitating the operation of the common 45.16 interest community;

45.17 (2) adopt and amend budgets for revenues, expenditures and reserves, and levy and 45.18 collect assessments for common expenses from unit owners;

45.19 (3) hire and discharge managing agents and other employees, agents, and independent 45.20 contractors;

45.21 (4) institute, defend, or intervene in litigation or administrative proceedings (i) in its 45.22 own name on behalf of itself or two or more unit owners on matters affecting the common 45.23 elements or other matters affecting the common interest community or, (ii) with the consent 45.24 of the owners of the affected units on matters affecting only those units;

45.25 (5) make contracts and incur liabilities;

45.26 (6) regulate the use, maintenance, repair, replacement, and modification of the common 45.27 elements and the units;

45.28 (7) cause improvements to be made as a part of the common elements, and, in the case 45.29 of a cooperative, the units;

45.30 (8) acquire, hold, encumber, and convey in its own name any right, title, or interest to 45.31 real estate or personal property, but (i) common elements in a condominium or planned 45.32 community may be conveyed or subjected to a security interest only pursuant to section

46.1 515B.3-112, or (ii) part of a cooperative may be conveyed, or all or part of a cooperative 46.2 may be subjected to a security interest, only pursuant to section 515B.3-112;

46.3 (9) grant or amend easements for public utilities, public rights-of-way or other public 46.4 purposes, and cable television or other communications, through, over or under the common 46.5 elements; grant or amend easements, leases, or licenses to unit owners for purposes authorized 46.6 by the declaration; and, subject to approval by a vote of unit owners other than declarant 46.7 or its affiliates, grant or amend other easements, leases, and licenses through, over or under 46.8 the common elements;

46.9 (10) impose and receive any payments, fees, or charges for the use, rental, or operation 46.10 of the common elements, other than limited common elements, and for services provided 46.11 to unit owners;

46.12 (11) impose interest and late charges for late payment of assessments and, after notice 46.13 and an opportunity to be heard before the board or a committee appointed by it, levy 46.14 reasonable fines for violations of the declaration, bylaws, and rules and regulations of the 46.15 association, provided that attorney fees and costs must not be charged or collected from a 46.16 unit owner who disputes a fine or assessment and, if after the homeowner requests a hearing 46.17 and a hearing is held by the board or a committee of the board, the board does not adopt a 46.18 resolution levying the fine or upholding the assessment against the unit owner or owner's 46.19 unit;

46.20 (12) impose reasonable charges for the review, preparation and recordation of 46.21 amendments to the declaration, resale certificates required by section 515B.4-107, statements 46.22 of unpaid assessments, or furnishing copies of association records;

46.23 (13) provide for the indemnification of its officers and directors, and maintain directors' 46.24 and officers' liability insurance;

46.25 (14) provide for reasonable procedures governing the conduct of meetings and election 46.26 of directors;

46.27 (15) exercise any other powers conferred by law, or by the declaration, articles of 46.28 incorporation or bylaws; and 46.29 (16) exercise any other powers necessary and proper for the governance and operation 46.30 of the association.

46.31 (b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) the declaration or bylaws may not impose limitations 46.32 on the power of the association to deal with the declarant which are more restrictive than 46.33 the limitations imposed on the power of the association to deal with other persons.

47.1 (c) An association that levies a fine pursuant to subsection (a)(11), or an assessment 47.2 pursuant to section 515B.3-115(g); or 515B.3-1151(g), must provide a dated, written notice 47.3 to a unit owner that:

47.4 (1) states the amount and reason for the fine or assessment;

47.5 (2) for fines levied under section 515B.3-102(a)(11), specifies: (i) the violation for which 47.6 a fine is being levied and the date of the levy; and (ii) the specific section of the declaration, 47.7 bylaws, rules, or regulations allegedly violated;

47.8 (3) for assessments levied under section 515B.3-115(g) or 515B.3-1151(g), identifies:

47.9 (i) the damage caused; and (ii) the act or omission alleged to have caused the damage;

47.10 (4) states that all unpaid fines and assessments are liens which, if not satisfied, could 47.11 lead to foreclosure of the lien against the owner's unit;

47.12 (5) describes the unit owner's right to be heard by the board or a committee appointed 47.13 by the board;

47.14 (6) states that if the assessment, fine, late fees, and other allowable charges are not paid, 47.15 the amount may increase as a result of the imposition of attorney fees and other collection 47.16 costs; and

47.17 (7) informs the unit owner that homeownership assistance is available from the Minnesota 47.18 Homeownership Center.

47.19 (d) Notwithstanding subsection (a), powers exercised under this section must comply 47.20 with sections 500.215, 500.216, and 500.217.

47.21 (e) Notwithstanding subsection (a)(4) or any other provision of this chapter, for common 47.22 interest communities created on or after August 1, 2017, the association, before instituting 47.23 litigation or arbitration involving construction defect claims against a development party, 47.24 shall:

47.25 (1) mail or deliver written notice of the anticipated commencement of the action to each 47.26 unit owner at the addresses, if any, established for notices to owners in the declaration and, 47.27 if the declaration does not state how notices are to be given to owners, to the owner's last 47.28 known address. The notice shall specify the nature of the construction defect claims to be 47.29 alleged, the relief sought, and the manner in which the association proposes to fund the cost 47.30 of pursuing the construction defect claims; and

47.31 (2) obtain the approval of owners of units to which a majority of the total votes in the 47.32 association are allocated. Votes allocated to units owned by the declarant, an affiliate of the 48.1 declarant, or a mortgagee who obtained ownership of the unit through a foreclosure sale 48.2 are excluded. The association may obtain the required approval by a vote at an annual or 48.3 special meeting of the members or, if authorized by the statute under which the association 48.4 is created and taken in compliance with that statute, by a vote of the members taken by 48.5 electronic means or mailed ballots. If the association holds a meeting and voting by electronic 48.6 means or mailed ballots is authorized by that statute, the association shall also provide for 48.7 voting by those methods. Section 515B.3-110(c) applies to votes taken by electronic means 48.8 or mailed ballots, except that the votes must be used in combination with the vote taken at 48.9 a meeting and are not in lieu of holding a meeting, if a meeting is held, and are considered 48.10 for purposes of determining whether a quorum was present. Proxies may not be used for a 48.11 vote taken under this paragraph unless the unit owner executes the proxy after receipt of 48.12 the notice required under subsection (e)(1) and the proxy expressly references this notice.

48.13 (f) For common interest communities created on or after August 1, 2017, the association 48.14 may intervene in a litigation or arbitration involving a construction defect claim or assert a 48.15 construction defect claim as a counterclaim, crossclaim, or third-party claim before complying 48.16 with subsections (e)(1) and (e)(2) but the association's complaint in an intervention, 48.17 counterclaim, crossclaim, or third-party claim shall be dismissed without prejudice unless 48.18 the association has complied with the requirements of subsection (e) within 90 days of the 48.19 association's commencement of the complaint in an intervention or the assertion of the 48.20 counterclaim, crossclaim, or third-party claim.

48.21 Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 2025 Supplement, section 515B.3-103, is amended to read:

48.22 515B.3-103 BOARD OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND DECLARANT
 48.23 CONTROL.

48.24 (a) An association shall be governed by a board of directors whose appointment or 48.25 election shall occur no later than the date of creation of the common interest community 48.26 and shall be reflected in the association's records. Except as expressly prohibited by the 48.27 declaration, the articles of incorporation, bylaws, subsection (b), or other provisions of this 48.28 chapter, the board may act in all instances on behalf of the association. In the performance 48.29 of their duties, the officers and directors are required to exercise (i) if appointed by the 48.30 declarant, the care required of fiduciaries of the unit owners and (ii) if elected by the unit 48.31 owners, the care required of a director by section 302A.251, 308B.455, 308C.455, or 48.32 317A.251, as applicable. The officers and directors appointed by the declarant shall have 48.33 a duty to fulfill, and to cause the association to fulfill, their respective obligations under the 48.34 declaration, bylaws, articles of incorporation, and this chapter and to enforce the provisions

49.1 of the declaration, bylaws, articles of incorporation, and this chapter against all unit owners, 49.2 including the declarant and its affiliates, in a uniform and fair manner. The standards of 49.3 conduct for officers and directors set forth in this subsection shall also apply to the officers 49.4 and directors of master associations in the exercise of their duties on behalf of the master
49.5 association. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 317A.203, if an association is formed 49.6 under chapter 317A and consists of fewer than three units, the number of directors may be 49.7 equal to or greater than the number of units.

49.8 (b) The board may not act unilaterally to amend the declaration, to terminate the common 49.9 interest community, to elect directors to the board, or to determine the qualifications, powers 49.10 and duties, or terms of office of directors, but the board may fill vacancies in its membership 49.11 created other than by removal by the vote of the association members for the unexpired 49.12 portion of any term.

49.13 (c) The declaration may provide for a period of declarant control of the association, 49.14 during which a declarant, or persons designated by the declarant, may appoint and remove 49.15 the officers and directors of the association. The period of declarant control begins on the 49.16 date of creation of the common interest community and terminates upon the earliest of the 49.17 following events: (i) five years after the date of the first conveyance of a unit to a unit owner 49.18 other than a declarant in the case of a flexible common interest community or three years 49.19 in the case of any other common interest community, (ii) the declarant's voluntary surrender 49.20 of control by giving written notice to the unit owners pursuant to section 515B.1-115, or 49.21 (iii) the conveyance of 75 percent of the units to unit owners other than a declarant.

49.22 (d) The board shall cause a meeting of the unit owners to be called, as follows:

49.23 (1) If the period of declarant control has terminated pursuant to subsection (c), a meeting 49.24 of the unit owners shall be called and held within 60 days after said termination, at which 49.25 the board shall be appointed or elected by all unit owners, including declarant, subject to 49.26 the requirements of subsection (e).

49.27 (2) If 50 percent of the units that a declarant is authorized by the declaration to create 49.28 have been conveyed prior to the termination of the declarant control period, a meeting of 49.29 the unit owners shall be called and held within 60 days thereafter, at which not less than 49.30 33-1/3 percent of the members of the board shall be elected by unit owners other than a 49.31 declarant or an affiliate of a declarant.

49.32 (3) If the board fails or refuses to cause a meeting of the unit owners required to be called 49.33 pursuant to subsection (d), then the unit owners other than a declarant and its affiliates may 49.34 cause the meeting to be called pursuant to the applicable provisions of the law under which

50.1 the association was created. The declarant and its affiliates shall be deemed to be present 50.2 at the meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum regardless of their failure to attend the 50.3 meeting.

50.4 (e) Following the termination of any period of declarant control, the unit owners shall 50.5 appoint or elect the board. All unit owners, including the declarant and its affiliates, may 50.6 cast the votes allocated to any units owned by them. The board shall thereafter be subject 50.7 to the following:

50.8 (1) Unless otherwise approved by a vote of unit owners other than the declarant or an 50.9 affiliate of the declarant, a majority of the directors shall be unit owners or a natural person 50.10 designated by a unit owner that is not a natural person, other than a declarant or an affiliate 50.11 of a declarant. The remaining directors need not be unit owners unless required by the 50.12 articles of incorporation or bylaws.

50.13 (2) Subject to the requirements of subsection (e)(1), the articles of incorporation or 50.14 bylaws may authorize the declarant or a person designated by the declarant to appoint one 50.15 director, who need not be a member. The articles of incorporation or bylaws shall not be 50.16 amended to change or terminate the authorization to appoint one director without the written 50.17 consent of the declarant or other person possessing the power to appoint.

50.19 bylaws may authorize special classes of directors and director voting rights, as follows: (i) 50.20 classes of directors, (ii) the appointment or election of directors in certain classes by certain 50.21 classes of members, or (iii) class voting by classes of directors on issues affecting only a
50.22 certain class or classes of members, units, or other parcels of real estate, or to otherwise
50.23 protect the legitimate interest of such class or classes. No person may utilize such special 50.24 classes or class voting for the purpose of evading any limitation imposed on declarants by 50.25 this chapter.

50.26 (4) The board shall elect the officers. The directors and officers shall take office upon 50.27 election.

50.28 (f) In determining whether the period of declarant control has terminated under subsection 50.29 (c), or whether unit owners other than a declarant are entitled to elect members of the board 50.30 of directors under subsection (d), the percentage of the units conveyed shall be calculated 50.31 using as a numerator the number of units conveyed and as a denominator the number of 50.32 units subject to the declaration plus the number of units which the declarant is authorized 50.33 by the declaration to create on any additional real estate. The percentages referred to in 50.34 subsections (c) and (d) shall be calculated without reference to units that are auxiliary to

51.1 other units, such as garage units or storage units. A person shall not use a master association 51.2 or other device to evade the requirements of this section.

51.3 (g) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, meetings of the board of directors
51.4 must be open to the unit owners. To the extent practicable, the board shall give reasonable 51.5 notice to the unit owners of the date, time, and place of a board meeting. If the date, time, 51.6 and place of meetings are provided for in the declaration, articles, or bylaws, announced at 51.7 a previous meeting of the board, posted in a location accessible to the unit owners and 51.8 designated by the board from time to time, or if an emergency requires immediate 51.9 consideration of a matter by the board, notice is not required. "Notice" has the meaning 51.10 given in section 317A.011, subdivision 14. Meetings may be closed to discuss the following:

51.11 (1) personnel matters;

51.12 (2) pending or potential litigation, arbitration or other potentially adversarial proceedings, 51.13 between unit owners, between the board or association and unit owners, or other matters in 51.14 which any unit owner may have an adversarial interest, if the board determines that closing 51.15 the meeting is necessary to discuss strategy or to otherwise protect the position of the board 51.16 or association or the privacy of a unit owner or occupant of a unit; or

51.17 (3) criminal activity arising within the common interest community if the board 51.18 determines that closing the meeting is necessary to protect the privacy of the victim or that 51.19 opening the meeting would jeopardize investigation of the activity.

51.20 Nothing in this subsection imposes a duty on the board to provide special facilities for 51.21 meetings. The failure to give notice as required by this subsection shall not invalidate the 51.22 board meeting or any action taken at the meeting. The minutes of any part of a meeting that 51.23 is closed under this subsection may be kept confidential at the discretion of the board.

51.24 Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.3-1041, is amended to read:

51.25 515B.3-1041 SPECIAL DECLARANT RIGHTS; TRANSFER, LIABILITY OF 51.26 TRANSFEROR AND TRANSFEREE, AND TERMINATION; SPECIAL 51.27 DECLARANT RIGHTS TRANSFERRED ON OR AFTER AUGUST 1, 2010.

51.28 (a) Except as set forth in subsection (b) or (c), a special declarant right, as defined in 51.29 section ~~515B.1-103(33b)~~ 515B.1-103(33a) or (33b), does not run with title and may only 51.30 be transferred pursuant to a separate transfer instrument, titled a "Transfer of Special 51.31 Declarant Rights," that both the transferor and the transferee execute.

51.32 (1) A transfer shall be recorded in compliance with applicable law, and is not effective 51.33 unless the transferee is the owner of record of a unit or additional real estate at the time the 52.1 transfer is recorded. Transfers recorded on or after June 1, 2011, shall be recorded against 52.2 title to all units in the common interest community.

52.3 (2) A transferor may transfer fewer than all of the special declarant rights the transferor 52.4 holds provided that any special declarant rights not transferred are subject to item (i).

52.5 (3) If as a result of a transfer there will be multiple declarants holding special declarant 52.6 rights, the transfer shall describe the allocation of each special declarant right between or 52.7 among the transferor and each transferee, including, at a minimum, a description of the 52.8 units or additional real estate to which the respective special declarant rights apply and the 52.9 name and address of the owner or owners of record of the respective units or additional real 52.10 estate at the time the transfer is recorded.

52.11 (b) If a declarant's ownership interest in a unit, or in additional real estate that may 52.12 become subject to the declaration pursuant to the exercise of a special declarant right, is 52.13 transferred to another person as a result of the foreclosure, termination, or cancellation of 52.14 a security interest, foreclosure of a judgment lien, tax judgment sale, tax-forfeited land sale, 52.15 sale or transfer under bankruptcy code or receivership proceedings, or other sale or transfer 52.16 approved by a court, or is transferred by a deed in lieu of foreclosure, then all special 52.17 declarant rights that are reserved to the declarant in the declaration and that relate to the 52.18 units or additional real estate transferred are automatically transferred to the person acquiring 52.19 title from the declarant, and the transfer is effective as to all special declarant rights, unless 52.20 or until: (i) the security instrument in the case of the foreclosure, termination, or cancellation 52.21 of a security interest, (ii) the instrument effecting the involuntary transfer, or (iii) a separate 52.22 instrument executed by the transferee and recorded in compliance with applicable law within 52.23 60 days after the date the transferee acquires title to the declarant's ownership interest, 52.24 provides for the transfer of fewer than all of the declarant's special declarant rights. From 52.25 and after June 1, 2011, a separate instrument recorded pursuant to subsection (b), item (iii), 52.26 shall be recorded against title to all units in the common interest community. For purposes 52.27 of this subsection, the transferee shall be deemed to acquire title upon the expiration of the 52.28 owner's period of redemption, or reinstatement in the case of contract for deed. The transferor 52.29 shall cease to have and shall not exercise any special declarant right that relates to the 52.30 transferor's ownership interest in the units or additional real estate transferred, whether or 52.31 not the transferee subsequently disclaims the right, but the transferor retains all reserved 52.32 special declarant rights that relate to its ownership interest that is not transferred to the 52.33 transferee.

52.34 (c) If a declarant is an individual rather than a legal entity, and the individual dies, than 52.35 all special declarant rights that are reserved to the declarant in the declaration and that relate

53.1 to the units or additional real estate owned by the declarant are automatically transferred 53.2 with the title to said units or additional real estate.

53.3 (d) A transferor's liability for the performance of obligations that this chapter imposes 53.4 upon a declarant is as follows:

53.5 (1) A transferor remains liable under this chapter for all obligations that this chapter 53.6 imposes upon a declarant that arise on or before the effective date of the transfer, except 53.7 that a transferor is not liable under section 515B.4-112 for any express warranties that a 53.8 transferee makes to a purchaser. Except as set forth in subsection (d), clauses (2) and (3), 53.9 a transferor is not liable under this chapter for the performance of any obligations that this 53.10 chapter imposes upon a declarant and arising after the effective date of the transfer.

53.11 (2) If a transferor and a transferee are affiliates, the transferor and the transferee are 53.12 jointly and severally liable under this chapter for the performance of all the obligations that 53.13 this chapter imposes upon a declarant, whether such obligations arise before, on, or after 53.14 the effective date of the transfer. Upon a subsequent transfer, a prior transferor remains 53.15 liable to the extent its transferee remains liable under subsection (d) and is relieved of 53.16 liability to the same extent that its transferee is relieved of liability under subsection (e).

53.17 (3) If, following a transfer of special declarant rights, the transferor retains special 53.18 declarant rights, the transferor and transferee are jointly and severally liable for the 53.19 performance of all the obligations that this chapter imposes upon a declarant and that arise 53.20 after the effective date of the transfer, except that the transferor is not liable under section 53.21 515B.4-101(b) ~~or~~ 515B.4-102(b), ~~and section~~ or 515B.4-1021(b), as applicable, 515B.4-109, 53.22 515B.4-110, 515B.4-111, 515B.4-112, 515B.4-113, 515B.4-117, or 515B.4-118, to any 53.23 purchaser from or through the transferee.

53.24 (e) Except as provided in subsections (g) and (h), a transferee's liability for the 53.25 performance of obligations that this chapter imposes upon a declarant is as follows:

53.26 (1) Except as set forth in subsection (e), clause (3), a transferee is liable under this chapter 53.27 for all obligations that this chapter imposes upon a declarant and that arise after the effective 53.28 date of the transfer. A transferee is not liable under this chapter for the performance of any 53.29 obligations that this chapter imposes upon a declarant and that arise before or on the effective 53.30 date of the transfer, except that a transferee is liable under section 515B.4-112 for any 53.31 express warranties the transferee makes to a purchaser before or on the effective date of the 53.32 transfer.

53.33 (2) If a transferor and a transferee are affiliates, the transferor and the transferee are 53.34 jointly and severally liable under this chapter for the performance of all the obligations that

54.1 this chapter imposes upon a declarant, whether such obligations arise before, on, or after
 54.3 liable to the extent its transferee remains liable under subsection (d) and is relieved of 54.4 liability to the same extent that its transferee is relieved of liability under this subsection.

54.5 (3) If, following a transfer of special declarant rights under subsection (a) or (b), the 54.6 transferor retains special declarant rights, the transferor and transferee are jointly and 54.7 severally liable for the performance of all the obligations that this chapter imposes upon a 54.8 declarant and that arise after the effective date of the transfer, except that the transferee is 54.9 not liable under section 515B.4-101(b) ~~or~~ 515B.4-102(b), ~~and section~~ or 515B.4-1021(b), 54.10 as applicable, 515B.4-109, 515B.4-110, 515B.4-111, 515B.4-112, 515B.4-113, 515B.4-117, 54.11 or 515B.4-118, to any purchaser from or through the transferor.

54.12 (f) For purposes of this section, a declarant's obligations under section 515B.3-111(a) 54.13 arise when the tort or contract violation occurs, a declarant's obligations to a purchaser under 54.14 section 515B.4-112 arise when the declarant makes an express warranty to the purchaser 54.15 and a declarant's obligations to a purchaser under sections 515B.4-113 and 515B.4-118(a) 54.16 arise when the declarant conveys a unit to the purchaser.

54.17 (g) A transferee who acquires special declarant rights pursuant to subsection (b) and 54.18 who is not an affiliate of the transferor may record an instrument in compliance with 54.19 subsection (b) stating that the transferee elects to acquire only the special declarant rights 54.20 described in section ~~515B.1-103(33b)(i)~~ 515B.1-103(33a)(i), (ii), and (iv) or (33b)(i), (ii), 54.21 and (iv). In that case, the transferee is liable as a declarant only to purchasers from said 54.22 transferee and only for the obligations of a declarant under sections 515B.4-101(b) ~~and~~ 54.23 515B.4-102(b), and sections or 515B.4-1021(b), as applicable, 515B.4-109, 515B.4-110, 54.24 515B.4-111, 515B.4-113, 515B.4-117, and 515B.4-118, and for any express warranties 54.25 under section 515B.4-112 that the transferee makes to purchasers.

54.26 (h) A transferee who acquires special declarant rights pursuant to subsection (b) and 54.27 who is not an affiliate of the transferor may record an instrument in compliance with 54.28 subsection (b) stating that the transferee elects to acquire the special declarant rights solely 54.29 for subsequent retransfer to another person who acquires title to units or additional real

 54.31 rights in the sale of units or otherwise sell units, except to a person who also acquires one 54.32 or more special declarant rights the transferee holds with respect to the units or additional 54.33 real estate sold; (ii) the transferee may not exercise any special declarant rights other than

 55.2 the obligations of a declarant under sections 515B.3-103, 515B.3-111, and 515B.3-120, as 55.3 applicable. A transferee who makes the election described in this subsection may 55.4 subsequently rescind the election in whole or in part by recording an instrument in compliance 55.5 with applicable law, and upon the recording of such an instrument the transferee's rights 55.6 and obligations as a declarant shall be as otherwise set forth in this section.

55.7 (i) Nothing in this section shall subject any transferee of a special declarant right to any 55.8 claims against or other obligations of a transferor, other than claims and obligations arising 55.9 under this chapter, or the declaration or bylaws.

55.10 (j) A special declarant right held by a declarant terminates upon the earlier of: (i) that 55.11 declarant's voluntary surrender of the special declarant right by giving written notice to the 55.12 unit owners pursuant to section 515B.1-115; or (ii) the conveyance, whether voluntary or 55.13 involuntary, by that declarant, of all of the units and additional real estate owned by that 55.14 declarant, unless immediately after the conveyance the special declarant right is transferred

 55.16 conveyance of a unit to a person other than a declarant unless extended by the vote or written 55.17 agreement of unit owners entitled to cast at least 67 percent of the votes allocated to units 55.18 not owned by a declarant.

59.11 515B.3-113, the association is responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of 59.12 the common elements, and each unit owner is responsible for the maintenance, repair and 59.13 replacement of the unit owner's unit. ~~Damage to the common~~ With respect to common 59.14 interest communities created before August 1, 2017, damage to the common elements or 59.15 any unit as a result of the acts or omissions of a unit owner or the association is the 59.16 responsibility of the person causing the damage, or whose agents or invitees caused the 59.17 damage. With respect to common interest communities created on or after August 1, 2017, 59.18 damage to the common elements or any unit as a result of the acts or omissions of a unit 59.19 owner or the association, including damage resulting from the unit owner's or association's 59.20 lack of maintenance or failure to perform necessary repairs or replacement, is the 59.21 responsibility of the unit owner or association responsible for causing the damage, or whose 59.22 agents or invitees caused the damage.

59.23 (b) The association's board of directors shall prepare and approve a written preventative 59.24 maintenance plan, maintenance schedule, and maintenance budget for the common elements.
59.25 The association shall follow the approved preventative maintenance plan. The association's 59.26 board may amend, modify, or replace an approved preventative maintenance plan or an 59.27 approved maintenance schedule from time to time. The association must provide all unit 59.28 owners with a paper copy, electronic copy, or electronic access to the preventative 59.29 maintenance plan, the maintenance schedule, and any amendments or modifications to or 59.30 replacements of the preventative maintenance plan and the maintenance schedule. If a 59.31 common interest community was created on or before August 1, 2017, the association's 59.32 board of directors shall have until January 1, 2019, to comply with the requirements of this 59.33 subsection.

60.1 (c) The association shall have access through and into each unit for purposes of 60.2 performing maintenance, repair or replacement for which the association may be responsible.
 60.3 The association and any public safety personnel shall also have access for purposes of 60.4 abating or correcting any condition in the unit which violates any governmental law, 60.5 ordinance or regulation, which may cause material damage to or jeopardize the safety of 60.6 the common interest community, or which may constitute a health or safety hazard for 60.7 occupants of units.

60.8 (d) Neither the association, nor any unit owner other than the declarant or its affiliates, 60.9 is subject to a claim for payment of expenses incurred in connection with any additional 60.10 real estate.

60.11 Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.3-112, is amended to read:

60.12 515B.3-112 CONVEYANCE OF, OR CREATION OF SECURITY INTERESTS
 60.13 IN, COMMON ELEMENTS.

60.14 (a) In a condominium or planned community, unless the declaration provides otherwise, 60.15 portions of the common elements may be conveyed or subjected to a security interest by 60.16 the association if persons entitled to cast at least 67 percent of the votes in the association, 60.17 including 67 percent of the votes allocated to units not owned by a declarant, or any larger 60.18 percentage the declaration specifies, approve that action in writing or at a meeting; but all 60.19 unit owners of units to which any limited common element is allocated must agree in order
 60.20 to convey that limited common element or subject it to a security interest. The declaration 60.21 may specify a smaller percentage only if all of the units are restricted to nonresidential use.

60.22 (b) In a cooperative, unless the declaration provides otherwise, part of a cooperative 60.23 may be conveyed, or all or a part subjected to a security interest, by the association if persons 60.24 entitled to cast at least 67 percent of the votes in the association, including 67 percent of 60.25 the votes allocated to units in which the declarant has no interest, or any larger percentage 60.26 the declaration specifies, approves that action in writing or at a meeting. If fewer than all 60.27 of the units or limited common elements are to be conveyed or subjected to a security 60.28 interest, then all unit owners of those units, or the units to which those limited common 60.29 elements are allocated, must agree in order to convey those units or limited common elements 60.30 or subject them to a security interest. The declaration may specify a smaller percentage only 60.31 if all of the units are restricted to nonresidential use. Any purported conveyance or other 60.32 voluntary transfer of an entire cooperative is void, unless made pursuant to section 60.33 515B.2-119.

61.1 (c) The association, on behalf of the unit owners, may contract to convey or encumber 61.2 an interest in the common elements of a common interest community pursuant to this 61.3 subsection, subject to the required approval. After the approval has been obtained, the 61.4 association shall have a power of attorney coupled with an interest to effect the conveyance 61.5 or encumbrance on behalf of all unit owners in the common interest community, including 61.6 the power to execute deeds, mortgages, or other instruments of conveyance or security. The 61.7 instrument conveying or creating the interest in the common interest community shall be 61.8 recorded and shall include as exhibits (i) an affidavit of the president or secretary of the 61.9 association certifying that the approval required by this section has been obtained and (ii) 61.10 a schedule of the names of all unit owners and units in the common interest community as 61.11 of the date of the approval.

61.12 (d) Unless made pursuant to this section, any purported conveyance, creation of a security 61.13 interest in or other voluntary transfer of any interest in the common elements, or of any part 61.14 of a cooperative, is void. The grant of an easement, lease, or license pursuant to section 61.15 515B.3-102(a)(9) is not subject to this section.

61.16 (e) In the case of a conveyance involving a condominium, a planned community utilizing 61.17 a CIC plat complying with section 515B.2-110(c) or 515B.2-1101(c), or a cooperative in 61.18 which the unit owners' interests are characterized as real estate, the association shall record, 61.19 simultaneously with the recording of the instrument of conveyance, an amended CIC plat 61.20 showing the real estate constituting the common interest community exclusive of the real 61.21 estate conveyed.

61.22 (f) A conveyance or encumbrance of common elements, or of a cooperative, pursuant 61.23 to this section shall not deprive any unit of its rights of support, reasonable access or utility 61.24 services.

61.25 (g) In all common interest communities, upon recording of the instrument of conveyance, 61.26 the real estate conveyed shall be released from the declaration and all rights and obligations
61.27 arising therefrom. Except as provided in subsection (a), or unless the declaration otherwise 61.28 provides, a conveyance or encumbrance of common elements pursuant to this section does 61.29 not affect the priority or validity of preexisting encumbrances.

61.30 (h) Any proceeds of the conveyance or creation of a security interest under this section 61.31 are an asset of the association.

61.32 (i) This section shall not apply to any conveyance or encumbrance of any interest in a 61.33 proprietary lease.

62.1 Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.3-113, is amended to read:

62.2 515B.3-113 INSURANCE.

62.3 (a) Commencing not later than the time of the first conveyance of a unit to a unit owner 62.4 other than a declarant, the association shall maintain, to the extent reasonably available:

62.5 (1) subject to subsection (b), property insurance (i) on the common elements and, in a 62.6 planned community, also on property that must become common elements, (ii) for broad 62.7 form covered causes of loss, and (iii) in a total amount of not less than the full insurable 62.8 replacement cost of the insured property, less deductibles, at the time the insurance is 62.9 purchased and at each renewal date, exclusive of items normally excluded from property 62.10 policies; and

62.11 (2) commercial general liability insurance against claims and liabilities arising in 62.12 connection with the ownership, existence, use or management of the property in an amount, 62.13 if any, specified by the common interest community instruments or otherwise deemed 62.14 sufficient in the judgment of the board, insuring the board, the association, the management 62.15 agent, and their respective employees, agents and all persons acting as agents. The declarant 62.16 shall be included as an additional insured in its capacity as a unit owner or board member.
62.17 The unit owners shall be included as additional insureds but only for claims and liabilities 62.18 arising in connection with the ownership, existence, use or management of the common 62.19 elements. The insurance shall cover claims of one or more insured parties against other 62.20 insured parties.

62.21 (b) In the case of a common interest community that contains units, or structures within 62.22 units, sharing or having contiguous walls, siding or roofs, the insurance maintained under 62.23 subsection (a)(1) shall include those units, or structures within those units, and the common 62.24 elements. The insurance need not cover the following items within the units: (i) ceiling or 62.25 wall finishing materials, (ii) finished flooring, (iii) cabinetry, (iv) finished millwork, (v) 62.26 electrical, heating, ventilating, and air conditioning equipment, and plumbing fixtures serving 62.27 a single unit, (vi) built-in appliances, or (vii) other improvements and betterments, regardless 62.28 of when installed. If any improvements and betterments are covered, any increased cost 62.29 may be assessed by the association against the units affected. The association may, in the 62.30 case of a claim for damage to a unit or units, (i) pay the deductible amount as a common 62.31 expense, (ii) assess the deductible amount against one or more of the units affected in any 62.32 reasonable manner, or (iii) require the unit owners of one or more of the units affected to 62.33 pay the deductible amount directly.

63.1 (c) If the insurance described in subsections (a) and (b) is not reasonably available, the 63.2 association shall promptly cause notice of that fact to be hand delivered or sent prepaid by 63.3 United States mail to all unit owners. The declaration may require the association to carry 63.4 any other insurance, and the association in any event may carry any other insurance it 63.5 considers appropriate to protect the association, the unit owners or officers, directors or 63.6 agents of the association.

63.7 (d) Insurance policies carried pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) shall provide that:

63.8 (1) each unit owner and secured party is an insured person under the policy with respect 63.9 to liability arising out of the unit owner's interest in the common elements or membership 63.10 in the association;

63.11 (2) the insurer waives its right to subrogation under the policy against any unit owner 63.12 of ~~the condominium~~ a unit in the common interest community or members of the unit owner's 63.13 household and against the association and members of the board of directors;

63.14 (3) no act or omission by any unit owner or secured party, unless acting within the scope 63.15 of authority on behalf of the association, shall void the policy or be a condition to recovery 63.16 under the policy; and

63.17 (4) if at the time of a loss under the policy there is other insurance in the name of a unit 63.18 owner covering the same property covered by the policy, the association's policy is primary 63.19 insurance. A declaration may provide, however, that with respect to insurance policies 63.20 carried pursuant to subsection (a)(2), if, at the time of a claim under the policy that arises 63.21 out of or relates to the use of a limited common element assigned to a unit that is restricted 63.22 to nonresidential use, there is other insurance in the name of the unit owner of the unit to 63.23 which that limited common element is assigned, any insurance in the name of the unit owner 63.24 to which the limited common element is assigned is primary insurance.

63.25 (e) Any loss covered by the property policy under subsection (a)(1) shall be adjusted by 63.26 and with the association. The insurance proceeds for that loss shall be payable to the 63.27 association, or to an insurance trustee designated by the association for that purpose. The 63.28 insurance trustee or the association shall hold any insurance proceeds in trust for unit owners 63.29 and secured parties as their interests may appear. The proceeds shall be disbursed first for 63.30 the repair or restoration of the damaged common elements and units. If there is a surplus 63.31 of proceeds after the common elements and units have been completely repaired or restored 63.32 or the common interest community is terminated, the board of directors may retain the 63.33 surplus for use by the association or distribute the surplus among the owners on an equitable 63.34 basis as determined by the board.

64.1 (f) Unit owners may obtain insurance for personal benefit in addition to insurance carried 64.2 by the association.

64.3 (g) An insurer that has issued an insurance policy under this section shall issue certificates
64.4 or memoranda of insurance, upon request, to any unit owner or secured party. The insurance 64.5 may not be canceled until 60 days after notice of the proposed cancellation has been mailed 64.6 to the association, each unit owner and each secured party for an obligation to whom 64.7 certificates of insurance have been issued.

64.8 (h) Any portion of the common interest community which is damaged or destroyed as 64.9 the result of a loss covered by the association's insurance shall be promptly repaired or 64.10 replaced by the association unless (i) the common interest community is terminated and the 64.11 association votes not to repair or replace all or part thereof, (ii) repair or replacement would 64.12 be illegal under any state or local health or safety statute or ordinance, or (iii) 80 percent of 64.13 the unit owners, including every unit owner and holder of a first mortgage on a unit or 64.14 assigned limited common element which will not be rebuilt, vote not to rebuild. Subject to 64.15 subsection (b), the cost of repair or replacement of the common elements in excess of 64.16 insurance proceeds and reserves shall be paid as a common expense, and the cost of repair 64.17 of a unit in excess of insurance proceeds shall be paid by the respective unit owner.

64.18 (i) If less than the entire common interest community is repaired or replaced, (i) the 64.19 insurance proceeds attributable to the damaged common elements shall be used to restore 64.20 the damaged area to a condition compatible with the remainder of the common interest 64.21 community, (ii) the insurance proceeds attributable to units and limited common elements 64.22 which are not rebuilt shall be distributed to the owners of those units, including units to 64.23 which the limited common elements were assigned, and the secured parties of those units, 64.24 as their interests may appear, and (iii) the remainder of the proceeds shall be distributed to 64.25 all the unit owners and secured parties as their interests may appear in proportion to their 64.26 common element interest in the case of a condominium or in proportion to their common 64.27 expense liability in the case of a planned community or cooperative.

64.28 (j) If the unit owners and holders of first mortgages vote not to rebuild a unit, that unit's 64.29 entire common element interest, votes in the association, and common expense liability are 64.30 automatically reallocated upon the vote as if the unit had been condemned under section 64.31 515B.1-107. The association shall have the power to, and shall, promptly prepare, execute 64.32 and record an amendment to the declaration reflecting the reallocations. Notwithstanding 64.33 the provisions of this subsection, if the common interest community is terminated, insurance 64.34 proceeds not used for repair or replacement shall be distributed in the same manner as sales 64.35 proceeds pursuant to section 515B.2-119(e).

65.1 (k) The provisions of this section may be varied or waived in the case of a common 65.2 interest community in which all units are restricted to nonresidential use.

65.3 Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.3-1141, is amended to read:

65.4 515B.3-1141 REPLACEMENT RESERVES.

65.5 (a) The association shall include in its annual budgets replacement reserves projected 65.6 by the board to be adequate, together with past and future contributions to replacement 65.7 reserves, to fund the replacement of those components of the common interest community 65.8 which the association is obligated to replace by reason of ordinary wear and tear or 65.9 obsolescence, subject to the following:

65.10 (1) The amount annually budgeted for replacement reserves shall be adequate, together 65.11 with past and future contributions to replacement reserves, to replace the components as 65.12 determined based upon the estimated remaining useful life of each component; provided 65.13 that portions of replacement reserves need not be segregated for the replacement of specific 65.14 components.

65.15 (2) Unless otherwise required by the declaration, annual budgets need not include reserves 65.16 for the replacement of (i) components that a remaining useful life of more than 30 years, 65.17 or (ii) components whose replacement will be funded by assessments authorized under 65.18 section 515B.3-115(e)(1) or 515B.3-1151(e)(1), or approved in compliance with clause (5).

65.19 (3) The association shall keep the replacement reserves in an account or accounts separate 65.20 from the association's operating funds, and shall not use or borrow from the replacement 65.21 reserves to fund the association's operating expenses, provided that this restriction shall not 65.22 affect the association's authority to pledge the replacement reserves as security for a loan 65.23 to the association.

65.24 (4) The association shall reevaluate the adequacy of its budgeted replacement reserves 65.25 at least every third year after the recording of the declaration creating the common interest 65.26 community.

65.27 (5) Unless otherwise required by the declaration, after the termination of the period of 65.28 declarant control, and subject to approval by (i) the board, and (ii) unit owners, other than 65.29 the declarant or its affiliates, of units to which 51 percent of the votes in the association are 65.30 allocated, the association need not annually assess for replacement reserves to replace those 65.31 components whose replacement is planned to be paid for by special assessments, if the 65.32 declaration authorizes special assessments, or by assessments levied under section 65.33 515B.3-115(e)(2) or 515B.3-1151(e)(2). The approval provided for in the preceding sentence

66.1 shall be effective for no more than the association's current and three following fiscal years, 66.2 subject to modification or renewal by the same approval standards.

66.3 (6) Unless otherwise required by the declaration, subsection (a) shall not apply to a 66.4 common interest community which is restricted to nonresidential use.

66.5 (b) Unless the declaration provides otherwise, any surplus funds that the association has 66.6 remaining after payment of or provision for common expenses and reserves shall be (i) 66.7 credited to the unit owners to reduce their future common expense assessments or (ii) 66.8 credited to reserves, or any combination thereof, as determined by the board of directors.

66.9 (c) This section applies to common interest communities only for their fiscal years 66.10 commencing on or after January 1, 2012.

66.11 Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.3-1151, is amended to read:

66.12 515B.3-1151 ASSESSMENTS FOR COMMON EXPENSES; CIC CREATED ON 66.13 OR AFTER AUGUST 1, 2010.

66.14 (a) The association shall approve an annual budget of common expenses at or prior to 66.15 the conveyance of the first unit in the common interest community to a purchaser and 66.16 annually thereafter. The annual budget shall include all customary and necessary operating 66.17 expenses and replacement reserves for the common interest community, consistent with 66.18 this section and section 515B.3-114 or 515B.3-1141, as applicable. For purposes of 66.19 replacement reserves under subsection (b), until an annual budget has been approved, the 66.20 reserves shall be paid based upon the budget contained in the disclosure statement required 66.21 by section ~~515B.4-102~~ 515B.4-1021(a)(23). The obligation of a unit owner to pay common 66.22 expenses shall be as follows:

66.23 (1) If a common expense assessment has not been levied by the association, the declarant 66.24 shall pay all common expenses of the common interest community, including the payment 66.25 of the replacement reserve component of the common expenses for all units in compliance 66.26 with subsection (b).

66.27 (2) If a common expense assessment has been levied by the association, all unit owners, 66.28 including the declarant, shall pay the assessments levied against their units, except as follows:

66.29 (i) The declaration may provide for an alternate common expense plan whereby the 66.30 declarant's common expense liability, and the corresponding assessment lien against the 66.31 units owned by the declarant, is limited to: (A) paying when due, in compliance with 66.32 subsection (b), an amount equal to the full share of the replacement reserves allocated to 66.33 units owned by the declarant, as set forth in the association's annual budget approved as

67.1 provided in this subsection; and (B) paying when due all accrued expenses of the common 67.2 interest community in excess of the aggregate assessments payable with respect to units 67.3 owned by persons other than a declarant; provided, that the alternate common expense plan 67.4 shall not affect a declarant's obligation to make up any operating deficit pursuant to item 67.5 (iv), and shall terminate upon the termination of any period of declarant control unless 67.6 terminated earlier pursuant to item (iii).

67.7 (ii) The alternate common expense plan may be authorized only by including in the 67.8 declaration and the disclosure statement required by section ~~515B.4-102~~ 515B.4-1021 67.9 provisions authorizing and disclosing the alternate common expense plan as described in 67.10 item (i), and including in the disclosure statement either (A) a statement that the alternate 67.11 common expense plan will have no effect on the level of services or amenities anticipated
67.12 by the association's budget contained in the disclosure statement, or (B) a statement 67.13 describing how the services or amenities may be affected.

67.14 (iii) A declarant shall give notice to the association of its intent to utilize the alternate 67.15 common expense plan and a commencement date after the date the notice is given. The 67.16 alternate common expense plan shall be valid only for periods after the notice is given. A 67.17 declarant may terminate its right to utilize the alternate common expense plan prior to the 67.18 termination of the period of declarant control only by giving notice to the association and 67.19 the unit owners at least 30 days prior to a selected termination date set forth in the notice.

67.20 (iv) If a declarant utilizes an alternate common expense plan, that declarant shall cause 67.21 to be prepared and delivered to the association, at the declarant's expense, within 90 days 67.22 after the termination of the period of declarant control, an audited balance sheet and profit 67.23 and loss statement certified to the association and prepared by an accountant having the 67.24 qualifications set forth in section 515B.3-121(b). The audit shall be binding on the declarant 67.25 and the association.

67.26 (v) If the audited profit and loss statement shows an accumulated operating deficit, the 67.27 declarant shall be obligated to make up the deficit within 15 days after delivery of the audit 67.28 to the association, and the association shall have a claim against the declarant for an amount 67.29 equal to the deficit until paid. A declarant who does not utilize an alternate common expense 67.30 plan is not liable to make up any operating deficit. If more than one declarant utilizes an 67.31 alternate common expense plan, all declarants who utilize the plan are jointly and severally 67.32 liable to the association for any operating deficit.

67.33 (vi) The existence and amount, if any, of the operating deficit shall be determined using 67.34 the accrual method of accounting applied as of the date of termination of the period of 68.1 declarant control, regardless of the accounting methodology previously used by the 68.2 association to maintain its accounts.

68.3 (vii) Unless approved by a vote of the unit owners other than the declarant and its 68.4 affiliates, the operating deficit shall not be made up, prior to the election by the unit owners 68.5 of a board of directors pursuant to section 515B.3-103(d), through the use of a special 68.6 assessment described in subsection (c) or by assessments described in subsections (e), (f), 68.7 and (g).

68.8 (viii) The use by a declarant of an alternate common expense plan shall not affect the 68.9 obligations of the declarant or the association as provided in the declaration, the bylaws, or 68.10 this chapter, or as represented in the disclosure statement required by section ~~515B.4-102~~ 68.11 515B.4-1021, except as to matters authorized by this chapter.

68.12 (b) The replacement reserves required by section 515B.3-114 or 515B.3-1141, as 68.13 applicable, shall be paid to the association by each unit owner for each unit owned by that 68.14 unit owner in accordance with the association's annual budget approved pursuant to 68.15 subsection (a), regardless of whether an annual assessment has been levied or whether the 68.16 declarant has utilized an alternate common expense plan under subsection (a)(2). Replacement 68.17 reserves shall be paid with respect to a unit commencing as of the later of (1) the date of 68.18 creation of the common interest community or (2) the date that the structure and exterior 68.19 of the building containing the unit, or the structure and exterior of any building located 68.20 within the unit boundaries, but excluding the interior finishing of the structure itself, are 68.21 substantially completed. If the association has not approved an annual budget as of the 68.22 commencement date for the payment of replacement reserves, then the reserves shall be 68.23 paid based upon the budget contained in the disclosure statement required by section 68.24 ~~515B.4-102~~ 515B.4-1021.

68.25 (c) After an assessment has been levied by the association, assessments shall be levied 68.26 at least annually, based upon an annual budget approved by the association. In addition to 68.27 and not in lieu of annual assessments, an association may, if so provided in the declaration, 68.28 levy special assessments against all units in the common interest community based upon 68.29 the same formula required by the declaration for levying annual assessments. Special 68.30 assessments may be levied only (1) to cover expenditures of an emergency nature, (2) to 68.31 replenish underfunded replacement reserves, (3) to cover unbudgeted capital expenditures 68.32 or operating expenses, or (4) to replace certain components of the common interest 68.33 community described in section ~~515B.3-114(a)~~ 515B.3-1141(a), if such alternative method
68.34 of funding is approved under section ~~515B.3-114(a)(5)~~ 515B.3-1141(a)(5). The association 68.35 may also levy assessments against fewer than all units as provided in subsections (e), (f),

69.1 and (g). An assessment under subsection (e)(2) for replacement reserves is subject to the 69.2 requirements of section 515B.3-1141(a)(5).

69.3 (d) Except as modified by subsections (a), clauses (1) and (2), (e), (f), and (g), all common 69.4 expenses shall be assessed against all the units in accordance with the allocations established 69.5 by the declaration pursuant to section 515B.2-108.

69.6 (e) Unless otherwise required by the declaration:

69.7 (1) any common expense associated with the maintenance, repair, or replacement of a 69.8 limited common element shall be assessed against the units to which that limited common

70.10 Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 2024, section 515B.3-116, is amended to read:

70.11 515B.3-116 LIEN FOR ASSESSMENTS.

70.12 (a) The association has a lien on a unit for any assessment levied against that unit from 70.13 the time the assessment becomes due. If an assessment is payable in installments, the full 70.14 amount of the assessment is a lien from the time the first installment thereof becomes due.
70.15 Unless the declaration otherwise provides, fees, charges, late charges, fines and interest 70.16 charges pursuant to section 515B.3-102(a)(10), (11) and (12) are liens, and are enforceable
70.17 as assessments, under this section. Recording of the declaration constitutes record notice 70.18 and perfection of any assessment lien under this section, and no further recording of any 70.19 notice of or claim for the lien is required.

70.20 (b) Subject to subsection (c), a lien under this section is prior to all other liens and 70.21 encumbrances on a unit except (i) liens and encumbrances recorded before the declaration 70.22 and, in a cooperative, liens and encumbrances which the association creates, assumes, or 70.23 takes subject to, (ii) any first mortgage encumbering the fee simple interest in the unit, or, 70.24 in a cooperative, any first security interest encumbering only the unit owner's interest in the 70.25 unit, (iii) liens for real estate taxes and other governmental assessments or charges against 70.26 the unit, and (iv) a master association lien under section 515B.2-121(h). This subsection 70.27 shall not affect the priority of mechanic's liens.

70.28 (c) If a first mortgage on a unit is foreclosed, the first mortgage was recorded after June 70.29 1, 1994, and no owner or person who acquires the owner's interest in the unit redeems 70.30 pursuant to chapter 580, 581, or 582, the holder of the sheriff's certificate of sale from the 70.31 foreclosure of the first mortgage or any person who acquires title to the unit by redemption 70.32 as a junior creditor shall take title to the unit subject to a lien in favor of the association for 70.33 unpaid assessments for common expenses levied pursuant to section 515B.3-115(a), (e)(1)

71.2 acceleration, during the six months immediately preceding the end of the owner's period of 71.3 redemption. The common expenses shall be based upon the association's then current annual 71.4 budget, notwithstanding the use of an alternate common expense plan under section 71.5 515B.3-115(a)(2) or 515B.3-1151(a)(2). If a first security interest encumbering a unit owner's 71.6 interest in a cooperative unit which is personal property is foreclosed, the secured party or 71.7 the purchaser at the sale shall take title to the unit subject to unpaid assessments for common 71.8 expenses levied pursuant to section 515B.3-115(a), (e)(1) to (3), (f), and (i) and 71.9 515B.3-1151(a), (e)(1) to (3), (f), and (i) which became due, without acceleration, during 71.10 the six months immediately preceding the first day following either the disposition date 71.11 pursuant to section 336.9-610 or the date on which the obligation of the unit owner is 71.12 discharged pursuant to section 336.9-622.

71.13 (d) Proceedings to enforce an assessment lien shall be instituted within three years after 71.14 the last installment of the assessment becomes payable, or shall be barred.

71.15 (e) The unit owner of a unit at the time an assessment is due shall be personally liable 71.16 to the association for payment of the assessment levied against the unit. If there are multiple 71.17 owners of the unit, they shall be jointly and severally liable.

71.18 (f) This section does not prohibit actions to recover sums for which subsection (a) creates 71.19 a lien nor prohibit an association from taking a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

71.20 (g) The association shall furnish to a unit owner or the owner's authorized agent upon 71.21 written request of the unit owner or the authorized agent a statement setting forth the amount 71.26 (h) The association's lien may be foreclosed as provided in this subsection.

71.27 (1) In a condominium or planned community, the association's lien may be foreclosed 71.28 in a like manner as a mortgage containing a power of sale pursuant to chapter 580, or by 71.29 action pursuant to chapter 581. The association shall have a power of sale to foreclose the 71.30 lien pursuant to chapter 580, except that any portion of the assessment that represents 71.31 attorney fees or costs shall not be included in the amount a unit owner must pay to reinstate 71.32 under section 580.30 or chapter 581.

72.1 (2) In a cooperative whose unit owners' interests are real estate, the association's lien 72.2 shall be foreclosed in a like manner as a mortgage on real estate as provided in paragraph 72.3 (1).

72.4 (3) In a cooperative whose unit owners' interests in the units are personal property, the 72.13 the unit, and (iv) the notice of sale, disposition, or retention shall contain the following

86.20 altering the size and appearance of the common interest community and by making other

95.7 (1) a unit and the common elements in the common interest community are suitable for 95.8 the ordinary uses of real estate of its type; and

95.10 the declarant, or made by any person in contemplation of the creation of the common interest 95.11 community, will be (i) free from defective materials and (ii) constructed in accordance with 95.12 applicable law, according to sound engineering and construction standards, and in a 95.13 workmanlike manner.

96.16 mediation has the meaning given under the General Rules of Practice, rule 114.02 (7). If 96.17 the parties are not able to agree on a neutral third-party mediator from the roster maintained

96.19 in which the common interest community is located to appoint a mediator. The applicable 96.20 statute of limitations and statute of repose for an action based on breach of a warranty 96.21 imposed by this section, or any other action in contract, tort, or other law for any injury to 96.22 real or personal property or bodily injury or wrongful death arising out of the alleged 96.23 construction defect, is tolled from the date that any party makes a written demand for
