

A bill for an act

relating to human services; directing the commissioner of human services to allocate permanent funding for Minnesota Faith in Action; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 256.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. [256.9761] COMMISSIONER TO ALLOCATE FUNDING;
MINNESOTA FAITH IN ACTION.

Subdivision 1. Appropriation. The commissioner of human services shall annually allocate $600,000 from the department's existing budget to support up to 30 existing Faith in Action volunteer groups in the state not currently receiving ongoing state support at $20,000 per group. The commissioner shall allocate the funding by issuing up to $300,000 semiannually to Minnesota Faith in Action, to be distributed to the Faith in Action volunteer groups selected through a request for proposals process jointly agreed to with the commissioner. These funds must be used to support seniors, the disabled, or persons with long-term illnesses in areas of: transportation, home modifications, chores, friendly visiting, and respite care. Services performed must be secular in nature.

Subd. 2. Report. The Faith in Action groups selected are required to report quarterly to the commissioner of human services as to (1) number of persons served by the funds, and (2) types of services provided. The commissioner reserves the right to cancel funding to any group at any time the commissioner determines the funds are not being spent in accordance with this section. The performance of the selected Faith in Action groups must be evaluated jointly and be used as a future funding criterion. This funding must be available on an ongoing basis to support the activities in this section. For purposes of this section, "Minnesota Faith in Action" is the state association of Faith in Action and
