(6) the employee is experiencing any other substantially similar condition specified by the secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services in consultation with the secretary of the Department of the Treasury and the secretary of the Department of Labor.

Subd. 3. Duration and use of leave. (a) An employee shall be entitled to emergency paid sick leave as provided under this section for the following number of hours:

(1) up to 100 hours for an employee who:

employer, whichever is shorter, for an employee who works variable hours and who is not covered by clause (1) or (2).

(b) Leave under this section shall be available for use by an employee for a reason listed in subdivision 2 beginning the day following final enactment and may be used intermittently, provided that any amount of leave taken under this section shall end with the employee's next scheduled work shift immediately following the termination of the employee's need for leave under a reason provided in subdivision 2.

(c) After the first workday or portion thereof that an employee receives leave under this section, an employer may require the employee to follow reasonable notice procedures to continue receiving leave.

(d) Leave under this section expires 30 days after a peacetime emergency declared by the governor in an executive order that relates to the infectious disease known as COVID-19 is terminated or rescinded.

Subd. 4. Amount of compensation. (a) An employee shall receive compensation for each hour of emergency paid sick leave received under this section in an amount that shall be the greater of:

(1) the employee's regular rate of pay for the employee's last pay period, including pursuant to any collective bargaining agreement that applies;
(2) the state minimum wage in effect under Minnesota Statutes, section 177.24; or

(b) Unused or remaining leave under this section shall not carry over past the expiration of this section.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require financial or other reimbursement to an employee from an employer upon the employee’s termination, resignation, retirement, or other separation from employment for emergency paid sick time under this section that has not been used by the employee.

Subd. 5. Relationship to other leave. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (c), emergency paid sick leave under this section shall be in addition to any paid or unpaid leave provided to an employee by an employer under a collective bargaining agreement, negotiated agreement, contract, or any other employment policy.

(b) An employee may use leave provided under this section first, and except as provided in paragraph (c), an employer shall not require an employee to use other paid or unpaid leave provided by the employer before the employee uses the leave provided under this section or in lieu of the leave provided under this section.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b), if an employer has already provided an employee with additional paid leave for any reason provided in subdivision 2, and the leave is in addition to the regular amount of paid leave provided by the employer and would compensate the employee in an amount equal to or greater than the amount of compensation provided under this section, the employer may count the hours of other additional paid leave toward the total number of hours of emergency paid sick leave required under this section.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be deemed:

(1) to limit the rights of a public employee or employer under any law, rule, regulation, or collectively negotiated agreement, or the rights and benefits that accrue to employees through collective bargaining agreements, or the rights of employees with respect to any other employment benefits; or

(2) to prohibit any personnel action that otherwise would have been taken regardless of a request to use, or use of, any leave provided by this section.

(e) Nothing in this section shall prevent an employer from providing, or the parties to a collective bargaining agreement from agreeing to, leave benefits that meet or exceed and do not otherwise conflict with the requirements for emergency paid sick leave under this section.

Subd. 6. Requirements and enforcement. (a) An employer shall provide notice to employees of the requirements for emergency paid sick leave provided under this section.

(b) An employer shall not take any retaliatory personnel action against an employee for requesting or obtaining emergency paid sick leave under this section or for bringing a complaint related to this section, including a proceeding that seeks enforcement of this section.

(c) In addition to any remedies otherwise provided by law, an employee seeking redress for a violation of this section may bring a civil action in district court to recover any damages recoverable at law, together with costs and disbursements, including reasonable attorney fees. An employer who violates this section may be liable for compensatory damages, injunctive relief, or other equitable relief as determined by the district court.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment and applies retroactively to all employees covered by this section as of March 13, 2020, and sunset 30 days after a peacetime emergency declared by the governor in an executive order that relates to the infectious disease known as COVID-19 is terminated or rescinded.
