 6.30 is created in the special revenue fund. The state court administrator shall forward fees 6.31 collected under subdivision 1 to the commissioner of management and budget who shall 6.32 deposit them in the state treasury and credit them to the account. The judicial performance 6.33 evaluation fee collected under section 204B.11, subdivision 3, must also be credited to the 7.1 account. Money in the account is appropriated to the independent Judicial Performance

 7.2 Evaluation Commission.

7.3 Sec. 15. [490A.04] JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE EVALUATION COMMISSION.

7.4 Subdivision 1. Establishment. A Judicial Performance Evaluation Commission 7.5 is established and shall be an independent body not subject to the direct control of any 7.6 branch of government.

7.7 Subd. 2. Purpose of commission. After public hearings, the commission shall 7.8 adopt and administer for all judges a process for evaluating judicial performance.
 7.9 The performance review process must be designed to assist voters in evaluating the 7.10 performance of judges standing for retention, facilitate self-improvement of all judges, 7.11 and promote public accountability of the judiciary.

7.12 Subd. 3. Composition; appointment of commission members. (a)(1) The 7.13 commission is composed of 24 members. All members of the commission must be 7.14 residents of Minnesota at the time of their appointment and for the duration of their term.

7.15 (2) Sitting judges and public officials, as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 35, 7.16 may not be appointed or serve on the commission. A person may not simultaneously serve
 7.17 as either a member of the Commission on Judicial Selection established in section 480B.01
 7.18 or the Board on Judicial Standards established in section 490A.01 while also serving as a 7.19 member of the Judicial Performance Evaluation Commission established in this section.
 7.20 Members of the commission who are attorneys at the time of their appointment must have 7.21 been admitted to practice before the Minnesota Supreme Court for not less than five years.

7.22 (b) Members of the commission must be appointed and serve as follows:

7.23 (1) the governor shall appoint a total of eight members, no more than three of whom 7.24 may be attorneys at the time of their appointment. Gubernatorial appointees serve on the 7.25 commission until the governor who made the appointment leaves office or for a four-year 7.26 term, whichever comes first;

7.27 (2) the Supreme Court shall appoint a total of eight members. The court shall 7.28 designate one of the appointees to serve as chair of the commission. No more than four 7.29 of the appointees may be attorneys at the time of the appointment. The Supreme Court's 7.30 appointees serve on the commission for a four-year term; and

7.31 (3) the legislature shall appoint a total of eight members, no more than four of whom 7.32 may be attorneys at the time of the appointment. Legislative appointments must be made 7.33 sequentially as follows: the speaker of the house shall appoint one member, the minority 7.34 leader of the house of representatives shall appoint one member, the senate majority leader 7.35 shall appoint one member, and the senate minority leader shall appoint one member. After

8.1 each appointing authority has made the appointments as provided in this clause, a second 8.2 round of appointments must be made in the same sequence. Legislative appointees serve 8.3 on the commission for a two-year term.

8.4 Members of the commission are eligible for reappointment up to two additional full 8.5 terms. Upon expiration of a member's term, the member shall continue to serve until a 8.6 successor is appointed and qualified. In the case of a vacancy on the commission, the 8.7 authority who appointed the member whose seat has become vacant shall appoint a person 8.8 to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

8.9 (c) In making appointments, the governor, Supreme Court, and the legislature shall 8.10 include qualified members of minority groups as well as consider the importance of 8.11 balanced geographic representation, and appoint individuals of outstanding competence
8.12 and reputation. The governor, Supreme Court, and the legislature must consult with one 8.13 another to ensure the requirements of this paragraph are met.

8.14 (d) Members shall perform commission duties in an impartial and objective manner 8.15 and shall base their recommendations solely upon matters that are in the record developed 8.16 by the commission. A member who violates this paragraph may be removed from the 8.17 commission by majority vote of the commission's membership.

8.18 (e) A member may be removed by the appointing authority at any time for cause, 8.19 after notice and hearing, or after missing three consecutive meetings. After a member 8.20 misses two consecutive meetings and before the next meeting, the secretary of the 8.21 commission shall notify the member in writing that the member may be removed if the 8.22 member misses the next meeting. The chair of the commission shall inform the appointing 8.23 authority if a member misses three consecutive meetings.

8.24 (f) A commission member shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed 8.25 for expenses associated with the member's work on the commission.

8.26 (g) The commission shall appoint an executive secretary to provide administrative 8.27 assistance and coordinate the work of the commission. The Board on Judicial Standards 8.28 shall provide additional support as necessary to facilitate the commission's work, upon 8.29 request of the commission.

8.30 Subd. 4. Meetings and data. Meetings of the Judicial Performance Evaluation 8.31 Commission must be open to the public, except that a meeting held to evaluate the 8.32 performance of a judge may be closed to discuss issues related to the judge's health or 8.33 allegations against the judge that may be defamatory. Data collected by the commission 8.34 must be made available to the public, except where otherwise provided in this section.

8.35 Subd. 5. Standards and procedures. (a) The Judicial Performance Evaluation
8.36 Commission shall develop written standards, subject to approval of the Supreme Court

9.1 in its entirety, by which judicial performance is to be evaluated. The standards must 9.2 be periodically updated and must include knowledge of the law, procedure, integrity, 9.3 impartiality, temperament, respect for litigants, respect for the rule of law, administrative 9.4 skill, punctuality, and communication skills. The commission must not evaluate judicial 9.5 performance based on substantive legal issues or opinions that are subject to standard 9.6 appellate processes.

9.7 (b) The commission shall adopt procedures for collecting information and 9.8 conducting reviews and shall create and implement a program of periodic review of the 9.9 performance of each judge. The commission must request public comment on these 9.10 procedures before adoption.

9.11 Subd. 6. Surveys. (a) Midway through a judge's term and again no fewer than nine 9.12 months before the date of a judge's retention election, the commission must distribute 9.13 anonymous survey forms eliciting performance evaluations of the judge to a representative 9.14 sampling of attorneys, litigants, other judges, and other persons who have been in direct 9.15 contact with the judge being evaluated and who have direct knowledge of the judge's 9.16 judicial performance during the evaluation period.

9.17 (b) The commission must employ or contract with qualified individuals to prepare 9.18 survey forms, process responses, and compile the statistical reports of the survey results in 9.19 a manner that ensures confidentiality and accuracy.

9.20 (c) Each survey conducted must seek evaluations in accordance with the written 9.21 performance standards adopted as provided in paragraph (a) and must solicit narrative
9.22 comments regarding the judge's performance. Narrative comments contained in a survey 9.23 response, and data on an individual who completes or responds to a survey form must not 9.24 be made available to the public.

9.25 Subd. 7. Midterm evaluation. The commission shall evaluate each judge halfway 9.26 through the judge's term, as nearly as practicable, to provide feedback to the judge about 9.27 the judge's performance and to give the judge an opportunity for improvement. The 9.28 commission shall adopt procedures for conducting the midterm evaluation.

9.29 Subd. 8. Retention-year evaluation. (a) In each year in which a judge has the 9.30 opportunity to file as a candidate for retention, the Judicial Performance Evaluation
9.31 Commission must conduct an evaluation of the judge and determine whether the judge 9.32 meets or does not meet judicial performance standards. Upon completion of the evaluation, 9.33 the commission must rate the judge "well-qualified," "qualified," or "unqualified" for office.
9.34 A rating of "unqualified" does not prohibit a judge from seeking retention by the voters.

9.35 (b) The evaluation of a judge must include a public hearing and an opportunity 9.36 for submission of written public comments on the performance of a judge standing for 10.1 retention. Before accepting public comment and conducting a hearing, the commission 10.2 must notify each judge to be evaluated of the process for conducting the evaluation and 10.3 the judge's right to submit written comments and appear in person at the hearing. The 10.4 hearing and evaluation may be conducted by a panel of commission members, as provided 10.5 in subdivision 9.

10.6 (c) A judge who does not intend to seek retention may waive the evaluation process 10.7 by providing written notice to the commission affirming the judge's intention to not file as 10.8 a retention candidate for the judge's current office. If a judge waives the evaluation under 10.9 this paragraph, the judge is not eligible to file an affidavit of candidacy for the office and is 10.10 not eligible to be appointed to fill the resulting vacancy.

10.11 Subd. 9. Evaluation panels; review by full commission. (a) The evaluation of a 10.12 judge may be conducted by an evaluation panel. An evaluation panel is composed of five 10.13 members, including at least one member appointed by each branch of government, but 10.14 otherwise chosen randomly. A panel must report its results to the full commission. The full 10.15 commission shall review a panel's evaluation if the panel rates a judge unqualified, or if one 10.16 panelist or three members of the commission request a review within 15 days after the panel 10.17 makes its report. The commission may overturn a panel's rating. If a panel's report and 10.18 rating is not reviewed, the panel's determination is final. Decisions of an evaluation panel 10.19 or the full commission regarding a judge's performance are not subject to judicial review.

10.20 (b) If an evaluation is reviewed by the full commission, the commission shall 10.21 provide written notice to the affected judge. The judge has the right to submit written 10.22 comments to the commission and to appear before and be heard by the commission prior 10.23 to a final vote of the commission members regarding the judge's performance.

10.24 Subd. 10. Publication of evaluation results. Following the evaluation of a judge, 10.25 the commission shall compile a factual report on the judicial performance of the judge, 10.26 including the final rating assigned to the judge's performance. The report must be made 10.27 available to the public at least one month before the time period established in section 10.28 204B.09 for filing an affidavit of candidacy with the secretary of state.

10.29 Sec. 16. JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE EVALUATION COMMISSION; FIRST 10.30 MEETING; TRANSITION.

10.31 (a) Initial appointments must be made to the Judicial Performance Evaluation
10.32 Commission on July 1, 2015.

10.33 (b) Initial appointees shall serve for a term ending January 15, 2017, and may be 10.34 considered for reappointment as provided in this article at that time. The chair of the 10.35 commission must convene the first full meeting of the commission no later than August

11.1 1, 2015, and appoint a secretary for the commission at that first meeting. The Board on 11.2 Judicial Standards shall provide administrative and other support as required to assist in 11.3 convening the meeting.

11.4 Sec. 17. REPEALER.

11.5 Minnesota Statutes 2012, sections 204B.36, subdivision 5; and 204D.14, subdivision 11.6 3, are repealed.

11.7 Sec. 18. EFFECTIVE DATE.

11.8 If the constitutional amendment in article 1 is adopted, this article is effective July 11.9 1, 2015, except that the governor, legislature, and Supreme Court may immediately 11.10 undertake any procedure necessary to consider and select potential appointees to the 11.11 Judicial Performance Evaluation Commission.
