

(b) The effects of screen overuse and misuse impacts every generation, gender, race, and social class. Technology poses a greater detriment to underserved populations on social mobility comparisons, academic achievement, distraction by devices in the learning environment, compromised use of technology as a learning tool, reduced social and emotional learning skills, and lower levels of learning motivation and self-confidence.

(c) The negative effects of social media on young people include sleep disruption, increased cyberbullying and rumor spreading, increased depression and anxiety, declines in life satisfaction, loss of interest in daily activities with peers, increased tendency to send sexualized images, suicidal ideation, self-harming, and obesity.

(d) The commissioner of education must award a grant to LiveMore ScreenLess, a Minnesota-based organization that collaborates with communities to promote digital well-being. LiveMore ScreenLess must use the grant funds as described in subdivisions 2 to 5.

Subd. 2. Digital well-being resource hub. The grant to LiveMore ScreenLess must be used to support the development of a library of resources for young people, parents, schools, after-school programs, and community-based organizations to serve Minnesota as the premiere resource for promoting digital well-being.

Subd. 3. Network of organizations. LiveMore ScreenLess must identify key local and national organizations focused on particular aspects of healthy screen use and healthy youth development, including the issues of cyberbullying, suicide prevention, mental health, antipornography, mindfulness, and social and emotional learning, in order to create a robust network for addressing digital well-being. LiveMore ScreenLess must collaborate, coordinate, and build upon Minnesota organizations and resources to address the effects of screen overuse and misuse with other advocates of young people.

Subd. 4. Train-the-trainer series. LiveMore ScreenLess must implement the digital well-being train-the-trainer series for all Minnesotans serving and advocating for young people in Minnesota, including youth development and leadership organizations, schools, community-based organizations, government sectors, and other related agencies.

Subd. 5. Peer-to-peer training development. LiveMore ScreenLess must deliver peer-to-peer training to develop young people as mentors and leaders to advocate and promote digital well-being among their peers and younger students.
