6.30 Subd. 2. Preparation. (a) In preparing a report concerning a child, the investigator
6.31 may consult any person who may have information about the child and the potential 6.32 custodial arrangements except for persons involved in mediation efforts between the 6.33 parties. Mediation personnel may disclose to investigators and evaluators information

7.1 collected during mediation only if agreed to in writing by all parties. Upon order of the 7.2 court, the investigator may refer the child to professional personnel for diagnosis. The 7.3 investigator may consult with and obtain information from medical, psychiatric, school 7.4 personnel, or other expert persons who have served the child in the past after obtaining the 7.5 consent of the parents or the child's custodian or guardian.

7.6 (b) The report submitted by the investigator must consider and evaluate the factors
7.7 in section ~~518.17, subdivision 1~~ 518.169, subdivision 3, and include a detailed analysis
7.8 of all information considered for each factor, provided that if joint physical custody 7.9 is contemplated or sought not requested by either party, the report must consider and 7.10 evaluate the factors in section ~~518.17, subdivision 2~~, 518.17, subdivision 1. The report 7.11 must state the position of each party and the investigator's recommendation and the 7.12 reason for the recommendation, and reference established means for dispute resolution 7.13 between the parties.

7.14 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective for all investigations ordered on or 7.15 after July 1, 2013.

7.16 Sec. 9. [518.169] JOINT CUSTODY AND EQUAL SHARED PARENTING.

7.17 Subdivision 1. Public policy. (a) Recognizing the importance of protections 7.18 afforded children by their ability to develop strong parental bonds, and recognizing the 7.19 fundamental right and liberty interest that parents enjoy regarding the care, custody, and 7.20 companionship of their children, the legislature finds and declares the following with 7.21 respect to the intent of Minnesota laws relating to families:

7.22 (1) an intact, involved two-parent home provides the optimal environment through 7.23 which children grow into productive and responsible adult citizens;

7.24 (2) parents play the primary role in the nurturing and development of their children.
7.25 Our society, state, and statutes are secondary structures designed to support, not supplant,
7.26 both parents in their role as the primary shapers of their children;

7.27 (3) mothers and fathers provide unique and invaluable contributions toward the 7.28 development of their children. Each parent's contributions to the upbringing of their 7.29 children are indistinguishable and equally necessary to assure children the best opportunity 7.30 to develop into healthy citizens;

7.31 (4) children should be separated from their parents only under the most compelling
7.32 and unusual circumstances in order to protect a child from endangerment;

7.33 (5) it is in the best interests of children to have frequent and continuing physical 7.34 contact with both parents under joint legal and joint physical custody when the parents
7.35 live separately, including after parental separation or dissolution of marriage. The proper

8.1 role of the state is to interfere to the least degree in familial relationships with the specific 8.2 purpose of preserving maximum time allocations with each parent and their children;

8.3 (6) parents may, and should be encouraged to, reach any agreement mutually 8.4 acceptable to them regarding their parenting time allocations that reflects the individual
8.5 circumstances of the parents and children. In the event parents cannot reach agreement on 8.6 a parenting arrangement, it is the specific intent of Minnesota law that parents have a right 8.7 to a rebuttable presumption of equal time with their children; and

8.8 (7) the judiciary in contested custody proceedings should demonstrate consistent
8.9 application of the rebuttable presumption in favor of joint legal and joint physical custody
8.10 in order to minimize the adversarial nature of custody proceedings.

8.11 (b) The purpose of this section is to prevent children from being alienated or 8.12 disenfranchised from their parents' lives through the unwarranted interference of either 8.13 parent.

8.14 (c) This section establishes clear legislative policy regarding the relationship of 8.15 children with each parent when the parents live separately.

8.16 (d) In accordance with the findings in paragraph (a), the legislature declares that 8.17 public policy is advanced and the best interests of children are promoted through equal and 8.18 shared parenting and the recognition of both parents' fundamental freedoms to actively 8.19 participate in the care, custody, and companionship of their children.

8.20 Subd. 2. Presumption of joint legal and physical custody and shared parenting.
8.21 This subdivision applies to temporary and final orders in marriage dissolution or parentage
8.22 cases. Upon request of either or both parties, the court shall use a rebuttable presumption 8.23 that joint legal custody and joint physical custody, with equal shared parenting, is in the 8.24 best interests of the child. For purposes of this subdivision, "equal" means a minimum
8.25 parenting time for each parent of 45.1 percent. The percentage of parenting time may be 8.26 determined by calculating the number of overnights that a child spends with a parent or by 8.27 using a method other than overnights if the parent has significant time periods on separate 8.28 days when the child is in the parent's physical custody but does not stay overnight. The 8.29 parenting time must be spread throughout one calendar year in a way that best meets
8.30 variable circumstances for the parties, unless both parents agree to a different division
8.31 of time or schedule.

8.32 Subd. 3. Overcoming presumption. If the parents are unable to reach an 8.33 agreement on joint legal and joint physical custody and equal shared parenting, the 8.34 burden of overcoming the presumption of joint legal custody, joint physical custody, and 8.35 equal shared parenting rests on the parent challenging the presumption. To overcome

9.1 the presumption, the court must find that the parent challenging the presumption has 9.2 established by clear and convincing evidence that:

9.3 (1) the other parent's actions rise to the level of endangering the child due to any of 9.4 the following:

9.5 (i) abandonment under section 260C.007, subdivision 6, clause (1), 260C.301,
9.6 subdivision 2, or 518.1705, subdivision 6, paragraph (b), clause (3);

9.7 (ii) physical or sexual abuse under section 260C.007, subdivision 6, clause (2);

9.8 (iii) neglect under section 260C.007, subdivision 6, clause (3) or (8);

9.9 (iv) allowing the child to live in injurious or dangerous conditions under section 9.10 260C.007, subdivision 6, clause (9);

9.11 (v) egregious harm under section 260C.007, subdivision 14;

9.12 (vi) emotional maltreatment under section 260C.007, subdivision 15;

9.13 (vii) great bodily harm under section 609.02, subdivision 7;

9.14 (viii) conviction of child abuse as defined in section 609.185, clause (b);

9.15 (ix) child maltreatment under section 626.556, subdivision 2, clauses (c) to (g); or 9.16 (x) domestic abuse as defined in section 518B.01, except when:

9.17 (A) a parent has petitioned for an order for protection and the petition has been 9.18 dismissed or denied by a court, or an order for protection was filed by agreement of the 9.19 parties without a finding of domestic abuse and the agreement and order incorporating the 9.20 agreement did not provide otherwise, in which case the court must find that no domestic 9.21 abuse has occurred with respect to matters that were alleged or could have been alleged; or

9.22 (B) a parent knowingly makes false allegations of domestic abuse as defined in 9.23 section 518B.01, subdivision 2. Making a false allegation of abuse is sufficient grounds to 9.24 challenge the custody and parenting time of the accuser. Allegations raised in the context
9.25 of custody proceedings that do not display evidence of a previous pattern of abuse deserve 9.26 heightened scrutiny as to their veracity; or

9.27 (2) the other parent is incapable of self-management or management of personal 9.28 affairs and would jeopardize the safety of the children due to current habitual and 9.29 excessive use of alcohol, drugs, or other mind-altering substances and the related actions
9.30 due to the substance abuse demonstrate endangerment to the well-being of the child.

9.31 Subd. 4. Consideration of geographic limitations. This subdivision applies when 9.32 the presumption has not been overcome, but due to the parents' different geographic 9.33 locations, a 45.1 percent minimum parenting time for each parent would prevent the 9.34 parents from keeping the child in one school during a school year. During the pendency of 9.35 the custody proceeding, the child shall remain in the same school district which the child 9.36 currently attends or most recently attended, unless the parents agree otherwise, or except

10.1 in cases under section 518B.01 where the parent or child involved in the proceeding is 10.2 endangered. If the parents do not agree otherwise, the court shall determine which parent
10.3 has the majority of parenting time using the best interests of the child factors under section 10.4 518.17, subdivision 1, provided that a minimum of 25 percent parenting time must be 10.5 granted to the other parent, making every attempt to exceed this amount and maximize 10.6 the parental involvement of each parent.

10.7 Subd. 5. Findings and order. (a) If the court finds the presumption has been 10.8 overcome, the court shall make detailed written findings that enumerate and explain 10.9 which of the factors in this subdivision are applicable and what evidence supported these 10.10 factors. Upon making a finding or findings, the court shall report those findings pursuant 10.11 to the Reporting of Maltreatment of Minors Act, section 626.556. The court shall restrict 10.12 physical custody and parenting time with the other parent as to time, place, duration, or 10.13 supervision and may deny parenting time entirely, as the circumstances warrant.

10.14 (b) If the court finds the presumption was not overcome, the court shall issue a 10.15 custody order or parenting plan with a minimum 45.1 percent parenting time for each 10.16 parent, or a different division of time agreed to by the parents, or as provided under 10.17 subdivision 4, if applicable.

10.18 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective for temporary orders and child
10.19 custody determinations made on or after July 1, 2013.

10.20 Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

10.21 Subdivision 1. The best interests of the child. (a) Subject to section 518.169, "the 10.22 best interests of the child" means all relevant factors to be considered and evaluated by 10.23 the court including:

10.24 (1) the wishes of the child's parent or parents as to custody;

10.25 (2) the reasonable preference of the child, if the court deems the child to be of 10.26 sufficient age to express preference;

10.27 (3) the child's primary caretaker;

10.28 (4) the intimacy of the relationship between each parent and the child;

10.29 (5) the interaction and interrelationship of the child with a parent or parents, siblings,
10.30 and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;

10.31 (6) the child's adjustment to home, school, and community;

10.32 (7) the length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment and 10.33 the desirability of maintaining continuity;

10.34 (8) the permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed custodial home;

11.1 (9) the mental and physical health of all individuals involved; except that a 11.2 disability, as defined in section 363A.03, of a proposed custodian or the child shall not be 11.3 determinative of the custody of the child, unless the proposed custodial arrangement is not 11.4 in the best interest of the child;

11.5 (10) the capacity and disposition of the parties to give the child love, affection, 11.6 and guidance, and to continue educating and raising the child in the child's culture and 11.7 religion or creed, if any;

11.8 (11) the child's cultural background;

11.9 (12) the effect on the child of the actions of an abuser, if related to domestic abuse,
 11.10 as defined in section 518B.01, that has occurred between the parents or between a parent 11.11 and another individual, whether or not the individual alleged to have committed domestic 11.12 abuse is or ever was a family or household member of the parent; and

11.13 (13) except in cases in which a finding of domestic abuse as defined in section 11.14 518B.01 has been made, the disposition of each parent to encourage and permit frequent 11.15 and continuing contact by the other parent with the child.

11.16 The court may not use one factor to the exclusion of all others. The primary 11.17 caretaker factor may not be used as a presumption in determining the best interests of the 11.18 child. The court must make detailed findings on each of the factors and explain how the 11.19 factors led to its conclusions and to the determination of the best interests of the child.

11.20 (b) The court shall not consider conduct of a proposed custodian that does not affect 11.21 the custodian's relationship to the child.

11.22 Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.17, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

11.23 Subd. 3. Custody order. (a) Subject to section 518.169, upon adjudging the 11.24 nullity of a marriage, or in a dissolution or separation proceeding, or in a child custody 11.25 proceeding, the court shall make such further order as it deems just and proper concerning:

11.26 (1) the legal custody of the minor children of the parties which shall be sole or joint;

11.27 (2) their physical custody and residence; and 11.28 (3) their support. In determining custody, the court shall ~~consider~~ use section

11.29 518.169 or, if section 518.169 is not applicable, use the best interests of each the child

11.30 factors under subdivision 1 and shall not prefer one parent over the other solely on the 11.31 basis of the sex of the parent. If neither party requests joint legal and joint physical custody

11.32 under section 518.169 but either or both parties request joint legal custody, the court shall 11.33 use a rebuttable presumption that joint legal custody is in the best interests of the child.

11.34 (b) The court shall grant the following rights to each of the parties, unless specific 11.35 findings are made under section 518.68, subdivision 1. Each party has the right of access

12.1 to, and to receive copies of, school, medical, dental, religious training, and other important 12.2 records and information about the minor children. Each party has the right of access to 12.3 information regarding health or dental insurance available to the minor children. Each 12.4 party shall keep the other party informed as to the name and address of the school of 12.5 attendance of the minor children. Each party has the right to be informed by school
 12.6 officials about the children's welfare, educational progress and status, and to attend school
 12.7 and parent-teacher conferences. The school is not required to hold a separate conference 12.8 for each party. In case of an accident or serious illness of a minor child, each party shall 12.9 notify the other party of the accident or illness, and the name of the health care provider
 12.10 and the place of treatment. Each party has the right to reasonable access and telephone
 12.11 contact with the minor children. The court may waive any of the rights under this section 12.12 if it finds it is necessary to protect the welfare of a party or child.

12.13 Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.1705, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

12.14 Subd. 2. Plan elements. (a) A parenting plan must include the following:

12.15 (1) a schedule of the time each parent spends with the child;

12.16 (2) a designation of decision-making responsibilities regarding the child; ~~and~~

12.17 (3) a method of dispute resolution; and

12.18 (4) virtual parenting time, if the equipment necessary for virtual parenting time 12.19 is reasonably available.

12.20 (b) A parenting plan may include other issues and matters the parents agree to 12.21 regarding the child.

12.22 (c) Parents voluntarily agreeing to parenting plans may substitute other terms for 12.23 physical and legal custody, including designations of joint or sole custody, provided that 12.24 the terms used in the substitution are defined in the parenting plan.

12.25 (d) For purposes of this subdivision, "virtual parenting time" means reasonable 12.26 and uncensored time during which a parent and the parent's child communicate during 12.27 reasonable hours by using communication tools such as a telephone, electronic mail, 12.28 instant messaging, video conferencing or other wired or wireless technologies via the 12.29 Internet, or other medium of communication. Virtual parenting time may only be used to 12.30 supplement parenting time with the child. Virtual parenting time may not be used as a 12.31 replacement or as a substitute for parenting time with the child.

12.32 Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.1705, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

12.33 Subd. 3. Creating parenting plan; restrictions on creation; alternative. (a) Upon 12.34 the request of both parents, a parenting plan must be created in lieu of an order for child

13.1 custody and parenting time unless the court makes detailed findings that the proposed 13.2 plan is not in the best interests of the child.

13.3 (b) If both parents do not agree to a parenting plan, the court may create one on its 13.4 own motion, except that the court must not do so if it finds that a parent has committed 13.5 domestic abuse against a parent or child who is a party to, or subject of, the matter
 13.6 before the court. If the court creates a parenting plan on its own motion, it must not use 13.7 alternative terminology unless the terminology is agreed to by the parties.

13.8 (c) If an existing order does not contain a parenting plan, the parents must not be 13.9 required to create a parenting plan as part of a modification order under section 518A.39.

13.10 (d) A parenting plan must not be required during an action under section 256.87.

13.11 (e) If the parents do not agree to a parenting plan and the court does not create one
 13.12 on its own motion, orders for custody and parenting time must be entered under sections 13.13 ~~518.17~~ and 518.169 to 518.175 or section 257.541, as applicable.

13.14 (f) If the parents cannot agree on whether virtual parenting time equipment is 13.15 reasonably available for purposes of subdivision 2, paragraph (a), clause (4), the court 13.16 shall decide whether the equipment is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

13.17 (1) the best interests of the child;

13.18 (2) each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parenting
 13.19 time; and

13.20 (3) any other factors the court considers material.

13.21 Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.1705, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

13.22 Subd. 5. Role of court. If both parents agree to the use of a parenting plan but are 13.23 unable to agree on all terms, the court may create a parenting plan under this section. If 13.24 the court is considering a parenting plan, it may require each parent to submit a proposed 13.25 parenting plan at any time before entry of the final judgment and decree. If parents seek 13.26 the court's assistance in deciding the schedule for each parent's time with the child or 13.27 designation of decision-making responsibilities regarding the child, the court may order an 13.28 evaluation and should consider the appointment of a guardian ad litem. Parenting plans, 13.29 whether entered on the court's own motion, following a contested hearing, or reviewed by 13.30 the court pursuant to a stipulation, must be based on ~~the best interests factors in~~ section 13.31 518.169, 518.17₂ or 257.025, as applicable.

13.32 Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.1705, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

13.33 Subd. 9. Modification of parenting plans. (a) Parents may modify by agreement:

13.34 (1) the schedule of the time each parent spends with the child or;

14.1 (2) the decision-making provisions of a parenting plan by agreement; or 14.2 (3) the parenting plan by adding virtual parenting time.

14.3 To be enforceable, modifications must be confirmed by court order. A motion to 14.4 modify decision-making provisions or the time each parent spends with the child may be 14.5 made only within the time limits provided by section 518.18.

14.6 (b) The parties may agree, but the court must not require them, to apply the best 14.7 interests standard in section 518.17 or 257.025, as applicable, or another standard for 14.8 deciding a motion for modification that would change the child's primary residence or the 14.9 physical custodial arrangement for the child, provided that:

14.10 (1) both parties were represented by counsel when the parenting plan was approved; 14.11 or

14.12 (2) the court found the parties were fully informed, the agreement was voluntary, 14.13 and the parties were aware of its implications.

14.14 (c) If the parties do not agree to apply the best interests standard or another standard, 14.15 section 518.18, paragraph (d), applies.

14.16 Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.175, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

14.17 Subdivision 1. General. (a) ~~In all proceedings for dissolution or legal separation,~~
14.18 Subject to section 518.169, subsequent to the commencement of ~~the~~ a custody proceeding
14.19 and continuing thereafter during the minority of the child, the court shall, upon the request
14.20 of either parent, grant such parenting time on behalf of the child and a parent who does not 14.21 have temporary or permanent sole or joint physical custody of the child as will enable 14.22 the child and the parent to maintain a child to parent relationship that will be in the best 14.23 interests of the child.

14.24 (b) If the court finds, after a hearing, that parenting time with a parent is likely 14.25 to endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional 14.26 development, the court shall restrict parenting time with that parent as to time, place,
14.27 duration, or supervision and may deny parenting time entirely, as the circumstances
14.28 warrant. The court shall consider the age of the child and the child's relationship with the 14.29 parent prior to the commencement of the proceeding.

14.30 (c) A parent's failure to pay support because of the parent's inability to do so shall 14.31 not be sufficient cause for denial of parenting time.

14.32 ~~(b)~~ (d) The court may provide that a law enforcement officer or other appropriate 14.33 person will accompany a party seeking to enforce or comply with parenting time.

14.34 ~~(c)~~ (e) Upon request of either party, to the extent practicable an order for parenting
14.35 time must include:

15.1 (1) a specific schedule for parenting time, including the frequency and duration of 15.2 visitation and visitation during holidays and vacations, unless parenting time is restricted, 15.3 denied, or reserved; and

15.4 (2) virtual parenting time, as defined in section 518.1705, subdivision 2, paragraph 15.5 (d), at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration, unless parenting time is restricted, 15.6 denied, or reserved, and if the equipment is reasonably available, provided that if the 15.7 parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall 15.8 decide whether the equipment for virtual parenting time is reasonably available, taking 15.9 into consideration:

15.10 (i) the best interests of the child;

15.11 (ii) each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parenting
 15.12 time; and

15.13 (iii) any other factors the court considers material.

15.14 ~~(d)~~ (f) The court administrator shall provide a form for a pro se motion regarding 15.15 parenting time disputes, which includes provisions for indicating the relief requested, an 15.16 affidavit in which the party may state the facts of the dispute, and a brief description of 15.17 the parenting time expeditor process under section 518.1751. The form may not include 15.18 a request for a change of custody. The court shall provide instructions on serving and 15.19 filing the motion.

15.20 ~~(e) In the absence of other evidence, there is a rebuttable presumption that a parent is~~ 15.21 ~~entitled to receive at least 25 percent of the parenting time for the child. For purposes of~~ 15.22 ~~this paragraph, the percentage of parenting time may be determined by calculating the~~ 15.23 ~~number of overnights that a child spends with a parent or by using a method other than~~ 15.24 ~~overnights if the parent has significant time periods on separate days when the child is in~~ 15.25 ~~the parent's physical custody but does not stay overnight. The court may consider the age~~
 15.26 ~~of the child in determining whether a child is with a parent for a significant period of time.~~

15.27 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective for child custody determinations
 15.28 made on or after July 1, 2013.

15.29 Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.179, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

15.30 Subdivision 1. Seeking custody or parenting time. Notwithstanding any contrary
 15.31 provision in section 518.169, 518.17₂, or 518.175, if a person seeking child custody
 15.32 or parenting time has been convicted of a crime described in subdivision 2, the person
 15.33 seeking custody or parenting time has the burden to prove that custody or parenting time 15.34 by that person is in the best interests of the child if:

15.35 (1) the conviction occurred within the preceding five years;

16.1 (2) the person is currently incarcerated, on probation, or under supervised release 16.2 for the offense; or

16.3 (3) the victim of the crime was a family or household member as defined in section 16.4 518B.01, subdivision 2.

16.5 If this section applies, the court may not grant custody or parenting time to the 16.6 person unless it finds that the custody or parenting time is in the best interests of the 16.7 child. If the victim of the crime was a family or household member, the standard of 16.8 proof is clear and convincing evidence. A guardian ad litem must be appointed in any 16.9 case where this section applies.

16.10 Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.18, is amended to read:

16.11 518.18 MODIFICATION OF ORDER.

16.12 (a) Unless agreed to in writing by the parties, no motion to modify a custody order
16.13 or parenting plan may be made earlier than one year after the date of the entry of a decree 16.14 of dissolution or legal separation containing a provision dealing with custody, except in 16.15 accordance with paragraph (c).

16.16 (b) If a motion for modification has been heard, whether or not it was granted, unless 16.17 agreed to in writing by the parties no subsequent motion may be filed within two years
16.18 after disposition of the prior motion on its merits, except in accordance with paragraph (c).

16.19 (c) The time limitations prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall not prohibit a 16.20 motion to modify a custody order or parenting plan if the court finds that there is persistent 16.21 and willful denial or interference with parenting time, or has reason to believe that the 16.22 child's present environment may endanger the child's physical or emotional health or 16.23 impair the child's emotional development.

16.24 (d) If the court has jurisdiction to determine child custody matters, the court shall 16.25 not modify a prior custody order or a parenting plan provision which specifies the child's 16.26 primary residence or the physical custodial arrangement for the child unless it finds, upon 16.27 the basis of facts, including unwarranted denial of, or interference with, a duly established 16.28 parenting time schedule, that have arisen since the prior order or that were unknown to 16.29 the court at the time of the prior order, that a change has occurred in the circumstances of 16.30 the child or the parties and that the modification is necessary to serve the best interests
16.31 of the child, consistent with sections 518.169 to 518.175. In applying these standards, 16.32 the court shall retain the custody arrangement or the parenting plan provision specifying 16.33 the child's primary residence or the physical custodial arrangement for the child that 16.34 was established by the prior order unless:

17.1 (i) the court finds that a change in the custody arrangement or primary residence is ~~in~~ 17.2 ~~the best interests of the child and the parties~~ consistent with a standard previously agreed 17.3 to by the parties, in a writing approved by a court, ~~to apply the best interests standard in~~ 17.4 ~~section 518.17 or 257.025, as applicable~~; and, with respect to agreements approved by 17.5 a court on or after April 28, 2000, both parties were represented by counsel when the 17.6 agreement was approved or the court found the parties were fully informed, the agreement
17.7 was voluntary, and the parties were aware of its implications;

17.8 (ii) both parties agree to the modification;

17.9 (iii) the child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with the consent
17.10 of the other party;

17.11 (iv) the child's present environment endangers the child's physical or emotional 17.12 health or impairs the child's emotional development and the harm likely to be caused by a 17.13 change of environment is outweighed by the advantage of a change to the child; or

17.14 (v) the court has denied a request of ~~the primary custodial~~ a parent with sole or joint 17.15 physical custody of the child to move the residence of the child to another state, and the 17.16 ~~primary custodial~~ parent has relocated to another state despite the court's order.

17.17 In addition, a court may modify a custody order or parenting plan under section 17.18 631.52.

17.19 (e) In deciding whether to modify a prior joint custody order, the court shall apply 17.20 the standards set forth in paragraph (d) unless: (1) the parties agree in writing to the 17.21 application of a different standard, or (2) the party seeking the modification is asking the 17.22 court for permission to move the residence of the child to another state.

17.23 (f) If a parent has been granted sole physical custody of a minor and the child 17.24 subsequently lives with the other parent, and temporary sole physical custody has been 17.25 approved by the court or by a court-appointed referee, the court may suspend the obligor's
17.26 child support obligation pending the final custody determination. The court's order 17.27 denying the suspension of child support must include a written explanation of the reasons
17.28 why continuation of the child support obligation would be in the best interests of the child.

17.29 (g) There must be no modification of an existing custody order based on the joint 17.30 physical custody provisions of section 518.169 until July 1, 2014, unless the child's 17.31 environment presently endangers the child's physical or emotional health or impairs the 17.32 child's emotional development.

17.33 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2013.

17.34 Sec. 19. REVISOR'S INSTRUCTION.

18.1 The revisor of statutes shall change the headnote for Minnesota Statutes, section
18.2 518.175, to read "OTHER PARENTING TIME PROVISIONS."

18.3 Sec. 20. REPEALER.

18.4 Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 518.17, subdivision 2, is repealed.

18.5 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2013.

518.17 CUSTODY AND SUPPORT OF CHILDREN ON JUDGMENT.

Subd. 2. Factors when joint custody is sought. In addition to the factors listed in subdivision 1, where either joint legal or joint physical custody is contemplated or sought, the court shall consider the following relevant factors:

- (a) the ability of parents to cooperate in the rearing of their children;
- (b) methods for resolving disputes regarding any major decision concerning the life of the child, and the parents' willingness to use those methods;
- (c) whether it would be detrimental to the child if one parent were to have sole authority over the child's upbringing; and
- (d) whether domestic abuse, as defined in section 518B.01, has occurred between the parents.

The court shall use a rebuttable presumption that upon request of either or both parties, joint legal custody is in the best interests of the child. However, the court shall use a rebuttable presumption that joint legal or physical custody is not in the best interests of the child if domestic abuse, as defined in section 518B.01, has occurred between the parents.

If the court awards joint legal or physical custody over the objection of a party, the court shall make detailed findings on each of the factors in this subdivision and explain how the factors led to its determination that joint custody would be in the best interests of the child.
