3.32 Subd. 3. Definitions. (a) The terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings
3.33 given them for purposes of this act.

3.34 (b) "Bullying" means use of one or a series of words, images, or actions, directly or 3.35 indirectly between individuals or through technology, that a reasonable person knows or 3.36 should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of materially interfering with

4.1 the ability of an individual, including a student who observes the conduct, to participate 4.2 in a safe and supportive learning environment. Examples of bullying may include, but 4.3 are not limited to, conduct that:

4.4 (1) places an individual in reasonable fear of harm to person or property, including 4.5 through intimidation;

4.6 (2) has a detrimental effect on the physical, social, or emotional health of a student;

4.7 (3) interferes with a student's educational performance or ability to participate in 4.8 educational opportunities;

4.9 (4) encourages the deliberate exclusion of a student from a school service, activity,
4.10 or privilege;

4.11 (5) creates or exacerbates a real or perceived imbalance of power between students;

4.12 (6) violates the reasonable expectation of privacy of one or more individuals; or

4.13 (7) relates to the actual or perceived race, ethnicity, color, creed, religion, national 4.14 origin, immigration status, sex, age, marital status, familial status, socioeconomic status,
4.15 physical appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, academic status,
4.16 disability, or status with regard to public assistance, age, or any additional characteristic 4.17 defined in chapter 363A of a person or of a person with whom that person associates, but 4.18 the conduct does not rise to the level of harassment.

4.19 (c) "Cyberbullying" means bullying through use of technology or any electronic 4.20 communication, including, but not limited to, a transfer of signs, signals, writing, images,
4.21 sounds, or data, including a post on a social network Internet Web site or forum transmitted 4.22 through a computer, cell phone, or other electronic device.

4.27 with regard to public assistance, age, or any additional characteristic defined in chapter
4.28 363A that creates a hostile environment by materially interfering with or denying a student 4.29 or other individual the ability to participate in or receive a benefit, service, or opportunity
4.30 in a district or school program. Harassing conduct is unwelcome if the person does not

5.2 actual or perceived race, ethnicity, color, creed, religion, national origin, immigration 5.3 status, sex, marital status, familial status, socioeconomic status, physical appearance,
5.4 sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, academic status, disability, or status
5.5 with regard to public assistance, age, or any additional characteristic defined in chapter
5.6 363A, as well as association with a person or group of persons with one or more of these 5.7 actual or perceived characteristics; however, prohibited conduct need not be based on any 5.8 particular characteristic defined in this paragraph or chapter 363A. Each district and 5.9 school must list in their policy the characteristics identified in this paragraph.

5.10 (g) "Remedial response" means a measure to stop and correct prohibited conduct,
5.11 prevent prohibited conduct from recurring, and protect, support, and intervene on behalf

5.14 implement remedial responses on behalf of a student who is the target of prohibited 5.15 conduct, to stop and correct a student engaging in prohibited conduct, and for use with

6.24 procedures, and standards of conduct, and the student handbook on school policies 6.25 to publicize the policy;

6.26 (10) require annual reporting, collection, and analysis of summary data on incidents 6.27 of bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, and intimidation and on remedial responses both
