1.7 whether the need was great or small; and

1.8 WHEREAS, civic and national days of prayer have a long and venerable history in our

1.9 constitutional republic, dating back to the First Continental Congress in 1775; and

1.10 WHEREAS, the Declaration of Independence, our first statement of national purpose and

1.13 WHEREAS, in 1988, legislation setting aside the first Thursday in May in each year as a

1.14 National Day of Prayer was passed unanimously by both houses of Congress and signed by the

1.15 President; and

1.16 WHEREAS, the National Day of Prayer is an opportunity for Americans of all faiths to join

1.17 in united prayer to acknowledge our dependence on God's grace, to give thanks for blessings

1.18 received, to request healing from diseases like COVID-19 and for wounds endured, and to ask God

1.19 to guide our leaders, bless our troops, uplift all to see God's glory, and bring wholeness to the United

2.3 WHEREAS, we continue to pray for American armed services members and their families, 2.4 for the families of loved ones who have died, and for all who suffer because of various diseases,
2.5 illnesses, and addictions; and

2.6 WHEREAS, this year we also pray for the citizens of Ukraine, for those who remain trapped
2.7 in their cities and towns or who are transient within Ukraine, and for the millions who have fled 2.8 for their lives to nearby countries, and to whom we are grateful for their love, compassion, and 2.9 assistance. We are thankful as well for all persons and organizations that provide medical care and 2.10 food distribution within Ukraine. We pray that the conflict ends soon and that "WE EXALT THE 2.11 LORD WHO HAS ESTABLISHED US"; and

2.12 WHEREAS, in his 1863 proclamation of a national day of prayer, President Abraham Lincoln
2.13 noted that the Congress had called upon him to appoint such a day "devoutly recognizing the 2.14 supreme authority and just government of Almighty God in all the affairs of men and of nations"; 2.15 and

2.16 WHEREAS, Lincoln noted further in this proclamation that "It behooves us then, to humble
