relating to transportation; making the license reinstatement diversion pilot program 1 2 permanent; requiring a report; amending Laws 2009, chapter 59, article 3, section 1.3 4, subdivision 9, as amended; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, 1.4 chapter 171. 1.5

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. [171.2405] LICENSE REINSTATEMENT DIVERSION PROGRAM.

Subdivision 1. Establishment. (a) A city or county may establish a license reinstatement diversion program for holders of class D drivers' licenses who have been charged with violating section 171.24, subdivision 1 or 2. An individual charged with driving after revocation under section 171.24, subdivision 2, is eligible for diversion only if the revocation was due to a violation of section 169.791; 169.797; 169A.52; 169A.54; or 171.17, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (6). An individual who is a holder of a commercial driver's license or who has committed an offense in a commercial motor vehicle is not eligible to participate in the diversion program.

- (b) Notwithstanding any law or ordinance to the contrary, a city or county may contract with a third party to create and administer the diversion program under this section. Any participating city or county, at its own expense, may request an audit of the administrator.
- (c) For purposes of this section, "administrator" means the city, county, or administrator 1.19 1.20 of the program.
- Subd. 2. Diversion of an individual. (a) A prosecutor for a participating city or county 1.21 1.22 may determine whether to accept an individual for diversion. When making the determination, the prosecutor must consider: 1.23

Section 1. 1

(1) whether the individual has a record of driving without a valid license or other criminal 2.1 record, or has previously participated in a diversion program; 2.2 (2) the strength of the evidence against the individual, along with any mitigating factors; 2.3 and 2.4 2.5 (3) the apparent ability and willingness of the individual to participate in the diversion program and comply with program requirements. 2.6 (b) A city or county attorney may request an individual be reviewed for a diversion 2.7 program without a formal city or county diversion program being established. The city or 2.8 county attorney must follow the requirements of subdivision 1 and may submit the 2.9 individual's application to an administrator for processing in collaboration with DVS to 2.10 determine if an individual is eligible for approval into the diversion program. The participant 2.11 must meet the requirements in subdivision 4. 2.12 (c) A judge may submit a request for an individual to apply for entry into a diversion 2.13 program under subdivision 1. The participant must meet the requirements in subdivision 4. 2.14 Subd. 3. Diversion driver's license. (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the 2.15 commissioner may issue a diversion driver's license to a person who is a participant in a 2.16 diversion program, after receiving an application and payment of: 2.17 (1) the reinstatement fee under section 171.20, subdivision 4, by a participant whose 2.18 driver's license has been suspended; 2.19 (2) the reinstatement fee under section 171.29, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), by a 2.20 participant whose driver's license has been revoked under section 169.791; 169.797; or 2.21 171.17, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (6); or 2.22 (3) the reinstatement fee under section 171.29, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), by a 2.23 participant whose driver's license has been revoked under section 169A.52 or 169A.54. The 2.24 reinstatement fee and surcharge under section 171.29, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), must 2.25 also be paid during the course of and as a condition of the diversion program. 2.26 2.27 (b) The commissioner may impose restrictions on a diversion driver's license that are suitable to the licensee's driving ability or applicable to the licensee as the commissioner 2.28 2.29 deems appropriate to ensure the safe operation of a motor vehicle by the licensee. The participant must follow all requirements of this section, the requirements set out by DVS 2.30 2.31 and court restrictions. (c) Payments made by participants in the diversion program of the reinstatement fee and 2.32 surcharge under section 171.29, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), must be applied first toward 2.33

the program.

	(c) The original charge against the individual of a violation of section 171.24 may be rein	stated against an individual whose participation in the diversion program terminates und	er paragraph (a), clause (1) or (2).
	(d) If an individual satisfies all requirements of the diversion program, including, at a
min	imum, satisfactory fulfillment of the components under subdivision 4, the administrator
nus	st inform the court, the prosecutor, and the commissioner of the individual's satisfactory on	npletion of the diversion program.
	(e) Upon receiving notice under paragraph (d), the commissioner must reinstate the indi	vidual's driver's license.
	(f) Upon receiving notice under paragraph (d), the court must dismiss the charge or the pro	secutor must decline to prosecute the individual.
	Subd. 6. Fees held on termination of participant. (a) Upon termination of the participant in t	he program under subdivision 5, where there are any held funds and only after the adn	ninistrator has made payouts on citations and fees, the administrator shall hold remaining art	cicipant fees for 12 months from the date of termination under subdivision 5, paragraph a),	clause (1) or (2).
	(b) A participant who meets DVS requirements to re-enter the diversion program may ıse	held funds to pay fees to be reinstated into the program.
•	(c) After 12 months, the administrator shall retain the funds for the work performed
lur	ing the participant's enrollment period, prior to the participant's termination date in the live	ersion program.
	Subd. 7. Biennial report. (a) By February 1 of each even-numbered year, the adn	ninistrator must report on each city and county that participated in the diversion program and	provide a report to each participating city and county, the commissioner, and the egi	slative committees with jurisdiction over transportation and the judiciary concerning ne	results of the program. The report must be made available electronically and, upon equ	uest, in print. The report must include, without limitation, the effect of the program on:
•	(1) recidivism rates for participants in the diversion program;
	(2) the number of participants who successfully completed the program;
	(3) the amount charged to individuals for program fees;
	(4) payment of the fees and fines collected in the diversion program to cities, counties,
and	the state;
