Subd. 2. Electronic and nonelectronic publication. An official publisher that publishes legal material in an electronic record and also publishes the material in a record other than an electronic record may designate the electronic record as official if the publisher complies with sections 3E.05, 3E.07, and 3E.08.

Sec. 5. [3E.05] AUTHENTICATION OF OFFICIAL ELECTRONIC RECORD.

An official publisher of legal material in an electronic record that is designated as official under section 3E.04 shall authenticate the record. To authenticate an electronic record, the publisher shall provide a method for a user to determine that the record received by the user from the publisher is unaltered from the official record published by the publisher.

Sec. 6. [3E.06] EFFECT OF AUTHENTICATION.

Subdivision 1. Presumption of accuracy. Legal material in an electronic record that is authenticated under section 3E.05 is presumed to be an accurate copy of the legal material.

Subd. 2. Presumption in another state. If another state has adopted a law substantially similar to this chapter, legal material in an electronic record that is designated as official and authenticated by the official publisher in that state is presumed to be an accurate copy of the legal material.
