Licensees shall obtain a signed listing agreement or other signed written authorization from the owner of real property or from another person authorized to offer the property for sale or lease before advertising to the general public that the real property is available for sale or lease. For the purposes of this section "advertising" includes placing a sign on the owner's property that indicates that the property is being offered for sale or lease. (b) Contents. All listing agreements must be in writing and must include:

- 2.1 (4) the amount of any compensation or commission or the basis for computing
 2.2 the commission;
- 2.3 (5) a clear statement explaining the events or conditions that will entitle a broker to 2.4 a commission;
- 2.5 (6) a clear statement explaining if the agreement may be canceled and the terms2.6 under which the agreement may be canceled;
- 2.7 (7) information regarding an override clause, if applicable, including a statement
 2.8 to the effect that the override clause will not be effective unless the licensee supplies the 2.9 seller with a protective list within 72 hours after the expiration of the listing agreement;
- 2.10 (8) the following notice in not less than ten-point boldface type immediately
 2.11 preceding any provision of the listing agreement relating to compensation of the licensee:
- 2.12 "NOTICE: THE COMPENSATION FOR THE SALE, LEASE, RENTAL, OR
- 2.13 MANAGEMENT OF REAL PROPERTY SHALL BE DETERMINED BETWEEN
- 2.14 EACH INDIVIDUAL BROKER AND THE BROKER'S CLIENT.";
- (9) for residential property listings, the following "dual agency" disclosure statement: 2.15 If a buyer represented by broker wishes to buy the seller's property, a dual agency 2.16 will be created. This means that broker will represent both the seller(s) and the buyer(s), 2.17 and owe the same duties to the buyer(s) that broker owes to the seller(s). This conflict 2.18 of interest will prohibit broker from advocating exclusively on the seller's behalf. Dual 2.19 agency will limit the level of representation broker can provide. If a dual agency should 2.20 arise, the seller(s) will need to agree that confidential information about price, terms, and 2.21 motivation will still be kept confidential unless the seller(s) instruct broker in writing to 2.22 disclose specific information about the seller(s). All other information will be shared. 2.23 Broker cannot act as a dual agent unless both the seller(s) and the buyer(s) agree to it. By 2.24 agreeing to a possible dual agency, the seller(s) will be giving up the right to exclusive 2.25 2.26 representation in an in-house transaction. However, if the seller(s) should decide not to agree to a possible dual agency, and the seller(s) want broker to represent the seller(s), the 2.27 seller(s) may give up the opportunity to sell the property to buyers represented by broker. 2.28 Seller's Instructions to Broker 2.29 Having read and understood this information about dual agency, seller(s) now 2.30 instructs broker as follows: 2.31 Seller(s) will agree to a dual agency representation and will consider 2.32 offers made by buyers represented by broker. 2.33
- 2.34Seller(s) will not agree to a dual agency representation and will not2.35consider offers made by buyers represented by broker.

4.1 (d) Override clauses. (1) Licensees shall not seek to enforce an override clause
4.2 unless a protective list has been furnished to the seller within 72 hours after the expiration 4.3 of the listing agreement.

4.4 (2) A listing agreement may contain an override clause of up to two years in length
4.5 when used in conjunction with the purchase or sale of a business. The length of the 4.6 override clause must be negotiable between the licensee and the seller of the business. The 4.7 protective list provided in connection with the override clause must include the written 4.8 acknowledgment of each party named on the protective list, that the business which is the 4.9 subject of the listing agreement was presented to that party by the licensee.

(e) Protective lists. A broker or salesperson has the burden of demonstrating that 4.10 each person on the protective list has, during the period of the listing agreement, either 4.11 made an affirmative showing of interest in the property by responding to an advertisement 4.12 or by contacting the broker or salesperson involved or has been physically shown the 4.13 property by the broker or salesperson. For the purpose of this section, the mere mailing or 4.14 other distribution by a licensee of literature setting forth information about the property in 4.15 question does not, of itself, constitute an affirmative showing of interest in the property on 4.16 the part of a subsequent purchaser. 4.17

4.18 For listings of nonresidential real property which do not contain the notice described 4.19 in paragraph (b), clause (11), the protective list must contain the following notice in 4.20 boldface type:

4.21 "IF YOU RELIST WITH ANOTHER BROKER WITHIN THE OVERRIDE
4.22 PERIOD AND THEN SELL YOUR PROPERTY TO ANYONE WHOSE NAME
4.23 APPEARS ON THIS LIST, YOU COULD BE LIABLE FOR FULL COMMISSIONS
4.24 TO BOTH BROKERS. IF THIS NOTICE IS NOT FULLY UNDERSTOOD, SEEK
4.25 COMPETENT ADVICE."

4.26 Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 82.66, subdivision 2, is amended to read:
4.27 Subd. 2. Buyer's broker agreements. (a) Requirements. Licensees shall obtain a Seller's Broker: A broker who lists a property, or a salesperson who is licensed to 7.28 the listing broker, represents the Seller and acts on behalf of the Seller. A Seller's 7.29 broker owes to the Seller the fiduciary duties described below.(2) The broker 7.30 must also disclose to the Buyer material facts as defined in Minnesota Statutes, 7.31 section 82.68, subdivision 3, of which the broker is aware that could adversely and 7.32 significantly affect the Buyer's use or enjoyment of the property. If a broker or 7.33 salesperson working with a Buyer as a customer is representing the Seller, he or 7.34 she must act in the Seller's best interest and must tell the Seller any information 7.35

- disclosed to him or her, except confidential information acquired in a facilitator relationship (see paragraph V below). In that case, the Buyer will not be represented and will not receive advice and counsel from the broker or salesperson.
- Subagent: A broker or salesperson who is working with a Buyer but represents the 8.5 Seller. In this case, the Buyer is the broker's customer and is not represented by that 8.6 broker. If a broker or salesperson working with a Buyer as a customer is representing 8.7 the Seller, he or she must act in the Seller's best interest and must tell the Seller 8.8 any information that is disclosed to him or her. In that case, the Buyer will not be 8.9 represented and will not receive advice and counsel from the broker or salesperson. 8.10

III. 8.11

8.12 Buyer's Broker: A Buyer may enter into an agreement for the broker or salesperson to represent and act on behalf of the Buyer. The broker may represent the Buyer 8 1 3 only, and not the Seller, even if he or she is being paid in whole or in part by the 8 1 4 Seller. A Buyer's broker owes to the Buyer the fiduciary duties described below.(2) 8.15 The broker must disclose to the Buyer material facts as defined in Minnesota 8.16 Statutes, section 82.68, subdivision 3, of which the broker is aware that could 8.17 adversely and significantly affect the Buyer's use or enjoyment of the property. If 8.18 a broker or salesperson working with a Seller as a customer is representing the 8.19 Buyer, he or she must act in the Buyer's best interest and must tell the Buyer any 8.20 information disclosed to him or her, except confidential information acquired in a 8.21 facilitator relationship (see paragraph V below). In that case, the Seller will not be 8.22 represented and will not receive advice and counsel from the broker or salesperson. 8.23

IV. III. 8.24

Dual Agency-Broker Representing both Seller and Buyer: Dual agency occurs 8.25 when one broker or salesperson represents both parties to a transaction, or when two 8.26 salespersons licensed to the same broker each represent a party to the transaction. 8.27 Dual agency requires the informed consent of all parties, and means that the broker 8.28 8.29 and salesperson owe the same duties to the Seller and the Buyer. This role limits the level of representation the broker and salespersons can provide, and prohibits them 8.30 from acting exclusively for either party. In a dual agency, confidential information 8.31 8.32 about price, terms, and motivation for pursuing a transaction will be kept confidential unless one party instructs the broker or salesperson in writing to disclose specific 8.33 information about him or her. Other information will be shared. Dual agents may 8.34 not advocate for one party to the detriment of the other.(3) 8.35

9.1 Within the limitations described above, dual agents owe to both Seller and Buyer the 9.2 fiduciary duties described below.(2) Dual agents must disclose to Buyers material
9.3 facts as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 82.68, subdivision 3, of which the 9.4 broker is aware that could adversely and significantly affect the Buyer's use or 9.5 enjoyment of the property.

9.6 IV.

9.7Designated Agency: Designated agency occurs when a broker represents both9.8parties to a transaction, and, by written agreement of the parties, designates one or9.9more salespersons associated with the broker to represent only the interests of the9.10Seller and one or more salespersons associated with the broker to represent only the9.11interests of the Buyer.

9.12 A licensee responsible for the supervision of other licensees is prohibited from

9.13 acting as a designated agent for a party in a real estate transaction when a salesperson

9.14 subject to that licensee's supervision is acting as a designated agent for the other

9.15 party. When a broker designates salesperson(s) to represent a Seller or Buyer, the

9.16 salesperson(s) so designated shall represent only the interest of that respective party

9.17 and shall not, without that party's permission, disclose to the other party or a licensee
9.18 designated to represent the other party the following information:

9.19 (1) Seller may agree to a price, terms, or any conditions of sale other than those

9.20 established by the Seller, or, that the Buyer may agree to a price, terms, or any

9.21 conditions of sale other than those established by the Buyer;

9.22 (2) Seller's motivation for engaging in the transaction, unless disclosure is otherwise
9.23 required by statute or rule, or, the Buyer's motivation for engaging in the transaction,

9.24 unless disclosure is otherwise required by statute or rule; and

9.25 (3) any information about Seller that the Seller has identified as confidential,

9.26 unless disclosure of the information is otherwise required by statute or rule, or, any

9.27 information about the Buyer that the Buyer has identified as confidential, unless

9.28 disclosure of the information is otherwise required by statute or rule.

9.29 V.

9.30 Facilitator: A broker or salesperson who performs services for a Buyer, a Seller, or 9.31 both but does not represent either in a fiduciary capacity as a Buyer's Broker, Seller's
9.32 Broker, or Dual Agent. THE FACILITATOR BROKER OR SALESPERSON
9.33 DOES NOT OWE ANY PARTY ANY OF THE FIDUCIARY DUTIES LISTED
9.34 BELOW, EXCEPT CONFIDENTIALITY, UNLESS THOSE DUTIES ARE 9.35 INCLUDED IN A WRITTEN FACILITATOR SERVICES AGREEMENT. The 9.36 facilitator broker or salesperson owes the duty of confidentiality to the party but

02/20/14

owes no other duty to the party except those duties required by law or contained in 10.1 a written facilitator services agreement, if any. In the event a facilitator broker or 10.2 salesperson, working with a Buyer, shows a property listed by the facilitator broker 10.3 or salesperson, then the facilitator broker or salesperson must act as a Seller's Broker 10.4 (see paragraph I above). In the event a facilitator broker or salesperson, working 10.5 with a Seller, accepts a showing of the property by a Buyer being represented by the 10.6 facilitator broker or salesperson, then the facilitator broker or salesperson must act 10.7 as a Buyer's Broker (see paragraph III above). 10.8 10.9 (1) This disclosure is required by law in any transaction involving property occupied 10.10 or intended to be occupied by one to four families as their residence. 10.11 (2) The fiduciary duties mentioned above are listed below and have the following 10.12 meanings: 10.13 Loyalty-broker/salesperson will act only in client(s)' best interest. 10.14 Obedience-broker/salesperson will carry out all client(s)' lawful instructions. 10.15 10.16 Disclosure-broker/salesperson will disclose to client(s) all material facts of which broker/salesperson has knowledge which might reasonably affect the client's use and 10.17 enjoyment of the property. 10.18 10.19 Confidentiality-broker/salesperson will keep client(s)' confidences unless required by law to disclose specific information (such as disclosure of material facts to Buyers). 10.20 Reasonable Care-broker/salesperson will use reasonable care in performing duties as 10.21 an agent. 10.22 Accounting-broker/salesperson will account to client(s) for all client(s)' money 10.23 10.24 and property received as agent. (3) If Seller(s) decides not to agree to a dual agency relationship, Seller(s) may give 10.25 up the opportunity to sell the property to Buyers represented by the broker/salesperson. 10.26 If Buyer(s) decides not to agree to a dual agency relationship, Buyer(s) may give up the 10.27 opportunity to purchase properties listed by the broker. 10.28 Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 82.67, subdivision 4, is amended to read: 10.29 Subd. 4. Creation of dual agency and designated agency. If circumstances 10.30 create a dual agency situation, the broker must make full disclosure to all parties to the 10.31 transaction as to the change in relationship of the parties to the broker due to dual agency. 10.32 A broker, having made full disclosure, must obtain the consent of all parties to these 10.33 10.34 circumstances in residential real property transactions in the purchase agreement in the 10.35 form set forth below which shall be set off in a boxed format to draw attention to it:

11.1	Broker represents both the seller(s) and t	he buyer(s) of the property involved in this
11.2	transaction, which creates a dual agency. This means that broker and its salespersons owe
11.3	fiduciary duties to both seller(s) and buyer(s). Because the parties may have conflicting
11.4	interests, broker and its salespersons are prohibited from advocating exclusively for either
11.5	party. Broker cannot act as a dual agent in this transaction without the consent of both
11.6	seller(s) and buyer(s).
11.7	If circumstances create a designated agency situation, the broker must make full

12.10 Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 82.73, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Responsibilities of brokers. (a) Supervision of personnel. A primary 12.11 broker shall adequately supervise the activities of the broker's salespersons and employees. 12.12 Supervision includes the ongoing monitoring of listing agreements, purchase agreements, 12.13 other real estate-related documents which are prepared or drafted by the broker's 12.14 12.15 salespersons or employees or which are otherwise received by the broker's office, and the review of all trust account books and records. If an individual a primary broker maintains 12.16 more than one place of business, each place of business shall be under the broker's 12.17 direction and supervision. If a brokerage maintains more than one place of business, each 12.18 place of business shall be under the direction and supervision of an individual broker 12.19 licensed to act on behalf of the brokerage. 12.20

The primary broker shall maintain records specifying the name of each broker 12.21 responsible for the direction and supervision of each place of business. If an individual 12.22 broker, who may be the primary broker, is responsible for supervising more than one 12.23 place of business, the primary broker shall, upon written request of the commissioner, 12.24 file a written statement specifying the procedures which have been established to ensure 12.25 that all salespersons and employees are adequately supervised. Designation of another 12.26 broker to supervise a place of business does not relieve the primary broker of the ultimate 12.27 responsibility for the actions of licensees. 12.28

(b) Preparation and safekeeping of documents. A broker is responsible for the preparation, custody, safety, and accuracy of all real estate contracts, documents, and records, even though another person may be assigned these duties by the broker. A broker shall have a written company policy that identifies and describes the types of real estate brokerage relationships in which the broker and affiliated licensees may engage with any seller or buyer as a part of any real estate brokerage activities.

(c) Documentation and resolution of complaints. A broker shall investigate and attempt to resolve complaints made regarding the practices of any individual licensed to the broker and shall maintain, with respect to each individual licensed to the broker, a complaint file containing all material relating to any complaints received in writing for a period of three years.

(d) Disclosure of listed property information. A broker may allow any unlicensed person, who is authorized by the broker, to disclose any factual information pertaining to the properties listed with the broker, if the factual information is provided to the unlicensed person in written form by the broker representing or assisting the seller(s).

(e) Property management functions for individually owned or entity-owned real estate. A broker shall not be responsible for supervising, nor shall the licensee be responsible for operating, within the scope of the brokerage or within the requirements of this chapter, activities that would be considered property management, including leasing, maintenance, and repair, so long as the real estate being managed is "individually owned"
or "entity-owned" as defined below:

- 13.14 (1) "individually owned" real estate is real property in which the licensee holds an13.15 ownership interest; and
- (2) "entity-owned" real estate is real property owned by a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or trust, within which entity the licensee holds an ownership interest as an owner, trustee, partner, or officer, or in another beneficiary capacity.
- 13.19 Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 82.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to13.20 read:

Subd. 4. Prohibition. A licensee responsible for the direction and supervision of other licensees is prohibited from acting as a designated agent for a party in a real estate transaction when a salesperson subject to that licensee's direction and supervision is acting as a designated agent for the other party.

- 13.25 Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 82.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to13.26 read:
- 13.27 Subd. 5. Restrictions on the disclosure of information. In a designated agency 13.28 situation, salesperson(s) representing seller(s) or buyer(s) shall not disclose certain
- 13.29 information of a personal nature to the other party without that party's authorization.
- 13.30 The protected information is as follows:
- 13.31 (1) the party's willingness to agree to a price, terms, or any conditions of sale other
- 13.32 than those established or offered;
- 13.33 (2) the motivation of the party for engaging in the transaction, unless disclosure is 13.34 otherwise required by statute or rule; and

- 14.1 (3) any information about the party that the party has identified as confidential,
- 14.2 unless disclosure is otherwise required by statute or rule.
