2.13 hotels, and rural event venues shall be operated and maintained in compliance with the State
2.14 Fire Code as promulgated pursuant to section 326B.02, subdivision 6.

2.15 Sec. 3. [299F.48] INSPECTIONS OF RURAL EVENT VENUES.

2.16 Subdivision 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following definitions
2.17 apply:

2.18 (1) "rural event venue" has the meaning given in section 299F.391, subdivision 1;

2.19 (2) "new rural event venue" means a building constructed or converted for use after 2.20 August 1, 2019; and

2.21 (3) "existing rural event venue" means a building currently used as a rural event venue.

2.22 Subd. 2. Fire safety. (a) All new and existing rural event venues shall be operated and
2.23 maintained in compliance with the State Fire Code except as amended in this subdivision:

2.24 (1) roads and parking lots shall be provided so that firefighting apparatus are able to get
2.25 within 150 feet of all portions of the building for firefighting and rescue purposes;

2.26 (2) all rooms and spaces shall be furnished with automatic smoke detection connected
2.27 to a commercial fire alarm system with audible and visual notification throughout the 2.28 building to alert occupants of fire conditions;

3.1 (3) no open flames are allowed in the building and within 20 feet of the building, except
3.2 for flames used for the purposes of reheating or maintaining food temperatures;

3.3 (4) smoking is prohibited in the building and at any location within 20 feet of the building;

3.4 (5) interior finishes, decorations, and means of egress features shall comply with the 3.5 existing building requirements of the State Fire Code; and

3.6 (6) an analysis shall be performed by a qualified person to determine the structural
3.7 soundness of the building against wind, applied loads, and sound vibration for wedding
3.8 receptions and similar social events and the results furnished to the state fire marshal upon 3.9 request.

3.10 (b) The owner or operator of a rural event venue shall furnish copies of the most recent
3.11 fire inspection report, upon request, to persons desiring to hold events at the rural event
3.12 venue.

3.13 Subd. 3. Inspections; fees. The state fire marshal shall develop a plan to inspect every 3.14 rural event venue once every three years. The state fire marshal shall charge the owner of 3.15 each rural event venue a triennial inspection fee of 15 cents per square foot for each building
3.16 inspected. The fee includes two follow-up inspections or on-site consultations. For each
3.17 additional follow-up inspection conducted in the same three-year cycle that is necessary to
3.18 bring the rural event venue into compliance with the State Fire Code, the state fire marshal
3.19 shall charge the owner a fee of five cents per square foot for each building inspected.

3.20 Subd. 4. Special account; appropriation. Money received by the State Fire Marshal
3.21 Division for inspections of rural event venues must be deposited in the state treasury and
3.22 credited to a state fire marshal rural event venue inspection account in the special revenue
3.23 fund. All money in the state fire marshal rural event venue inspection account is annually
3.24 appropriated to the commissioner of public safety to operate and administer the inspections.
