 2.35 metal in a ~~coin~~ bullion product and the percentage that the precious metal constitutes of 2.36 the total weight of the ~~coin~~ bullion product.

3.1 Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 80G.02, is amended to read:

3.2 80G.02 REGISTRATION.

3.3 Subdivision 1. Registration required. ~~Beginning July 1, 2014, It shall be is~~
3.4 unlawful for a ~~bullion coin~~ dealer or ~~coin~~ dealer representative to solicit, market, buy,
3.5 sell, or deliver ~~bullion coins~~ products or investments in ~~bullion coins~~ products to a
3.6 consumer without being registered by the commissioner as provided for in this chapter,
3.7 ~~if the bullion coin dealer has engaged in a bullion coin transaction or transactions with~~
3.8 ~~consumers during the 12-month period prior to July 1, 2014, that exceed $5,000 in~~
3.9 ~~the aggregate, as determined by the transactions' sale prices. If a bullion coin dealer~~
3.10 ~~was not required to be registered beginning on July 1, 2014, the bullion coin.~~ A dealer
3.11 must submit an application to register itself and each of its ~~coin~~ dealer representatives
3.12 within ~~30~~ 45 days of reaching ~~$5,000~~ $25,000 in the aggregate of ~~bullion coin~~ product
3.13 ~~transactions with consumers in any 12-month period prior to~~ between July 1 and June 30
3.14 ~~of any calendar year, as determined by the transactions' sale or purchase prices. Once a~~
3.15 ~~bullion coin~~ dealer is required to register itself and its ~~coin~~ dealer representatives, the 3.16 ~~coin~~ dealer must thereafter renew its registration and the registration of each of its ~~coin~~
3.17 dealer representatives in accordance with this chapter, regardless of the aggregate annual
3.18 amount of transactions, unless the person ceases to be a ~~bullion coin~~ dealer. A ~~coin~~ dealer
3.19 representative may not buy, sell, solicit, or market ~~bullion coins~~ products or investments
3.20 in ~~bullion coins~~ products on behalf of a ~~bullion coin~~ dealer unless the dealer is properly
3.21 registered with the commissioner under this section.

3.22 Subd. 2. Registration obligations. Registrations issued or renewed by the 3.23 commissioner under this chapter shall expire on June 30 and must be renewed.

3.24 Subd. 3. Registration application and renewal. The application and renewal
3.25 forms shall include the following information, as applicable, which shall be considered by 3.26 the commissioner in determining whether to issue a registration and whether to thereafter
3.27 renew the registration:

3.28 (1) the name, assumed names, doing business as names, including caller 3.29 identification names, and business addresses of the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer, the name of 3.30 each owner and officer, and the name and primary work location of each ~~coin~~ dealer
3.31 representative. A ~~bullion coin~~ dealer who desires to carry on business in more than one
3.32 location shall identify each address where business is conducted;

3.33 (2) if a ~~bullion coin~~ dealer is doing business under any name other than the dealer's 3.34 legal name, documentation that the assumed name has been properly filed with the 3.35 secretary of state or appropriate government office;

4.8 misdemeanors, misdemeanors under chapter 169 and sections 169A.20 and 171.24, and 4.9 same or similar laws from other states, for the bullion coin dealer and each officer and 4.10 owner of the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer and for each of its ~~coin~~ dealer representatives;

4.11 (5) the disclosure of any civil judgments in favor of a government entity or 4.12 government entity orders entered, filed, or issued against the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer, its 4.13 officers and owners, or its ~~coin~~ dealer representatives within the last ten years for violation
4.14 of consumer protection laws or unfair trade practice laws or for failure to account to a 4.15 consumer for money or property received from the consumer;

4.16 (6) the disclosure of any settlement or other agreement with any government entity
4.17 within the last ten years resolving concerns that the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer, its officers and 4.18 owners, or its coin dealer representatives violated consumer protection or unfair trade
4.19 practice laws, or for failure to account to a consumer for money or property received 4.20 from the consumer; and

4.21 (7) the disclosure of any instance in which the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer, its officers and 4.22 owners, and its ~~coin~~ dealer representatives were at any time permanently or temporarily 4.23 prohibited by any court of competent jurisdiction or ordered to cease and desist as the 4.24 result of a government agency action from engaging in buying, selling, soliciting, or 4.25 marketing of ~~bullion coin~~ products or investments in ~~bullion coin~~ products. A ~~bullion~~
4.26 ~~coin~~ dealer may rely on the screening process provided for in section 80G.05 and the 4.27 statements of its ~~coin~~ dealer representatives for the purposes of complying with the 4.28 disclosure requirements of this clause relating to ~~coin~~ dealer representatives, provided that 4.29 such reliance is reasonable, in good faith, and the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer has no knowledge of 4.30 information suggesting that the screening results or statement are inaccurate.

4.31 Subd. 4. Notice of change in registration information. A ~~bullion coin~~ dealer must 4.32 provide the commissioner written notice of a change in the dealer's name, assumed names,
4.33 doing business as names, business addresses, including all business addresses at which it or 4.34 its ~~coin~~ dealer representatives conduct business, owners, ~~electronic mail~~ e-mail addresses,
4.35 Web site domain names, or primary telephone ~~numbers~~ number used by it or its ~~coin~~

5.1 dealer representatives to buy, sell, solicit, or market to consumers ~~bullion coin~~ products or 5.2 investments in ~~bullion coin~~ products no later than ~~ten~~ 30 days after the change occurs.

5.3 Subd. 5. Registration fee. (a) The fee for each registration under this chapter
 5.4 shall be as follows:

5.5 (1) ~~bullion coin~~ dealers, $25; and

5.6 (2) ~~coin~~ dealer representatives, $10.

5.7 (b) The commissioner, based on the cost of processing registrations, may adjust the 5.8 registration fee on an annual basis as needed.

5.9 Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 80G.03, is amended to read:

5.10 80G.03 REGISTRATION DENIAL, NONRENEWAL, REVOCATION, AND
 5.11 SUSPENSION.

5.12 Subdivision 1. Authority. The commissioner may, by order, suspend, revoke, or 5.13 refuse to issue or renew a ~~bullion coin~~ dealer or ~~coin~~ dealer representative registration for 5.14 any one or more of the following causes:

5.15 (1) providing incorrect, false, misleading, or incomplete information to the 5.16 commissioner or refusing to allow a reasonable inspection of information and documents
 5.17 in the possession of the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer, ~~coin~~ dealer representative, or a third party or 5.18 to allow a reasonable inspection of premises;

5.19 (2) obtaining or attempting to obtain a registration through misrepresentation or fraud;

5.20 (3) having a ~~bullion coin~~ dealer or ~~coin~~ dealer representative registration or its 5.21 equivalent, including licensure under section 325F.73, denied, suspended, or revoked by 5.22 any locality within the state or other state, province, district, or territory;

5.23 (4) being permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction
 5.24 or being ordered to cease and desist by a government agency from engaging in or continuing
 5.25 any conduct or practice involving the buying, selling, soliciting, or marketing of ~~bullion~~
 5.26 ~~coins~~ products, investments in ~~bullion coins~~ products, or precious metal to consumers;

5.27 (5) violating the provisions of this chapter or sections 45.027, 325D.43 to 325D.48,
 5.28 325F.67, 325F.68 to 325F.69, 325F.694, and 325F.73 to 325F.744, or federal or state
 5.29 taxation or labor law; or

5.30 (6) violating a subpoena or order of the commissioner or a court issued pursuant 5.31 to this chapter or sections 45.027, 325D.43 to 325D.48, 325F.67, 325F.68 to 325F.69, 5.32 325F.694, 325F.70, and 325F.73 to 325F.744.

5.33 Subd. 2. Bullion coin Dealer responsibility for actions of coin dealer
 5.34 representatives. The commissioner may take action against a ~~bullion coin~~ dealer for 5.35 any violations of this chapter by its ~~coin~~ dealer representatives conducting activities on

6.1 behalf of or at the direction of the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer. The commissioner may also take 6.2 action against the ~~coin~~ dealer representative.

6.3 Subd. 3. Other authority of the commissioner. If a registration lapses, is 6.4 surrendered, withdrawn, terminated, or otherwise becomes ineffective, the commissioner
6.5 may institute a proceeding under this subdivision within two years after the registration
6.6 was last effective and enter a revocation order as of the last date on which the registration
6.7 was in effect, and impose a civil penalty as provided for in section 45.027, subdivision 6.

6.8 Subd. 4. Effect of revocation. A revocation of a registration prohibits the ~~bullion~~
6.9 ~~coin~~ dealer or ~~coin~~ dealer representatives from making a new application for a registration 6.10 for at least two years from the effective date of the revocation.

6.11 Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 80G.04, is amended to read:

6.12 80G.04 CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS.

6.13 Subdivision 1. Bullion coin Dealer registration precluded. The commissioner 6.14 must deny an application for registration or renewal of a ~~bullion coin~~ dealer, or revoke such 6.15 registration, if the bullion coin dealer or its owners or officers have within the last ten years
6.16 been convicted in any court of any financial crime or other crime involving fraud or theft.

6.17 Subd. 2. Coin Dealer representative registration precluded. The commissioner
6.18 must deny an application for registration or renewal of a ~~coin~~ dealer representative, or 6.19 revoke such registration, if the ~~coin~~ dealer representative has within the last ten years been 6.20 convicted in any court of any financial crime or other crime involving fraud or theft.

6.21 Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 80G.05, is amended to read:

6.22 80G.05 SCREENING.

6.23 Subdivision 1. Screening process required. Each ~~bullion coin~~ dealer must 6.24 establish procedures to screen each of its owners and officers and each of its ~~coin~~
6.25 dealer representatives prior to submitting the application to the commissioner for initial 6.26 registration and at each renewal. The results of such screenings shall be kept on file by the 6.27 dealer and, if requested by the commissioner, provided to the commissioner as part of the 6.28 initial registration and all renewal registrations ~~if requested by the commissioner.~~

6.29 Subd. 2. Initial screening. The screening process for initial registration must be 6.30 done no more than 60 days before the submission of an application for registration. The 6.31 process must include a national criminal history record search, a judgment search, and a
6.32 county criminal history search for all counties where the owner, officer, or ~~coin~~ dealer
6.33 representative has resided within the immediately preceding ten years. Each ~~bullion coin~~ 6.34 dealer shall use a reputable, reliable, and accurate vendor authorized to do business in

7.1 ~~Minnesota~~ any state to conduct the background screening process on its owners, officers,
7.2 and ~~coin~~ dealer representatives.

7.3 Subd. 3. Renewal screening. The screening process for the renewal of a 7.4 registration must include a national criminal history record search, a judgment search, and
7.5 county criminal history search for all counties where the owner, officer, or ~~coin~~ dealer
7.6 representative has resided since satisfactorily completing the last screening process
7.7 conducted pursuant to this section. Screening for renewal of the owner, officer, and ~~coin~~ 7.8 dealer representative registrations must take place no more than 60 days before the 7.9 submission of an application for renewal of a registration.

7.21 $500,000.01 to $1,000,000	$100,000
7.22 $1,000,000.01 to $2,000,000	$150,000
7.23 Over $2,000,000	$200,000

7.24 Subd. 2. Action on bond permitted. A consumer injured in money or property
7.25 by a ~~bullion-coin~~ dealer's or ~~coin~~ dealer representative's failure to provide ~~bullion coins~~
7.26 products that the consumer has paid for or failure to remit money or goods owed to the 7.27 consumer in connection with the consumer's sale of ~~bullion coins~~ products may file a 7.28 claim with the surety and if the claim is not paid, is authorized to bring an action based 7.29 on the bond and recover against the surety. The commissioner or attorney general may 7.30 also file a claim and bring an action on the bond and recover against the surety on behalf
7.31 of a consumer so injured.

7.32 Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 80G.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

7.33 Subdivision 1. Sales practices. No ~~bullion-coin~~ dealer or ~~coin~~ dealer representative 7.34 shall:

8.1 (1) prior to a transaction regarding bullion coins products, or concurrent with the 8.2 delivery thereof, fail to provide to the consumer ~~in writing~~ an invoice, which, in a clear
8.3 and conspicuous manner, discloses the dealer's registration number, the Department of 8.4 Commerce's e-mail address and telephone number, the sale or purchase price and, the 8.5 precious metal content quantity of the bullion coins products involved in the transaction,
8.6 and specifically identifies and describes the bullion products. ~~The written notice shall~~ 8.7 ~~also include the bullion coin dealer's registration identification information issued by the~~ 8.8 ~~commissioner, and the Department of Commerce's e-mail address and telephone number.~~
8.9 ~~A copy of the written notice shall be provided to the consumer and a copy retained by the~~ 8.10 ~~bullion coin dealer, as well as their precious metal content, but only if it differs from the~~ 8.11 ~~precious metal content specified by a government mint issuing the product and struck on~~
8.12 ~~the product, or if the product is not issued by a government mint;~~

8.14 complaints, the results of its investigations, and the dealer's response and resolution of 8.15 the complaint;

8.16 (3) fail to deliver by common carrier bullion coins products to a consumer within 8.17 the time agreed upon with the consumer or, if no such agreement exists, within 30 days
8.18 after the consumer has paid for the coins bullion products;

8.19 ~~(3)~~ (4) fail to pay a consumer for purchased bullion coins products within the time
8.20 agreed upon with the consumer or, if no such agreement exists, within 30 days after the 8.21 consumer has provided the coins bullion products;

8.22 ~~(4) fail to provide a written invoice at the time of the transaction specifically~~ 8.23 ~~identifying and describing the bullion coins involved in the transaction, the quantity of~~ 8.24 ~~bullion coins involved in the transaction, and the bullion coins' sale or purchase price and~~ 8.25 ~~precious metal content. The written invoice shall include the bullion coin dealer registration~~
8.26 ~~identification information issued by the commissioner, and the Department of Commerce's~~
8.27 ~~e-mail address and telephone number. A copy of the transaction documentation shall be~~
8.28 ~~provided to the consumer and a copy retained by the bullion coin dealer;~~

8.29 (5) misrepresent the delivery date of bullion coins products or payment for bullion
8.30 coins products, or the dealer or representative's professional qualifications, affiliations,
8.31 or registration;

8.32 (6) misrepresent any material aspect of a bullion coin product, including its 8.33 performance, efficacy, nature, investment value, central characteristics, liquidity, earnings
8.34 potential, or profitability;

8.35 (7) misrepresent the manner in which any bullion coins products a consumer
8.36 provides will be stored or otherwise handled once received;

9.1 (8) renegotiate the terms of a sale or purchase after receiving a consumer's payment
 9.2 or ~~bullion coins~~ products without first obtaining the consumer's agreement to renegotiate 9.3 and offering the consumer the option to have the payment fully refunded or the entirety of 9.4 the ~~bullion coins~~ products returned;

9.5 (9) fail to respond within three business days to a consumer inquiry about the delivery
 9.6 status of ~~bullion coins~~ products that the consumer has paid for but not yet received or the 9.7 status of a payment for ~~bullion coins~~ products that the consumer has already provided;

9.8 (10) telephone or solicit a consumer, or sell or provide the consumer's name to 9.9 any other ~~bullion coin~~ dealer or ~~coin~~ dealer representative, after the consumer requests
 9.10 not to be contacted;

9.11 (11) violate a subpoena or order of the commissioner or a court;

9.12 (12) make any communication to a potential buyer or seller of ~~bullion coins~~ products
 9.13 that misrepresents the relationship, if any, between the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer or ~~coin~~ dealer
 9.14 representative and any government agency or mint;

9.15 (13) improperly withhold, misappropriate, or convert any money or properties
 9.16 received in the course of buying, selling, soliciting, or marketing ~~bullion coins~~ products or 9.17 investments in ~~bullion coins~~ products to consumers;

9.18 (14) misrepresent the terms of an actual or proposed purchase or sale of ~~bullion coins~~
 9.19 products or investment in ~~bullion coins~~ products to a consumer; or

9.20 (15) violate any other federal, state, or local law or rule related to selling, purchasing,
 9.21 soliciting, or marketing of ~~bullion coin~~ products, investments in ~~bullion coin~~ products, 9.22 or precious metals, or any federal, state, or local law related to fraudulent, coercive, or 9.23 dishonest practices, or federal, state, or local law related to taxation or labor standards.

9.24 Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 80G.08, is amended to read:

9.25 80G.08 CRIMINAL VIOLATION.

9.26 A person who conducts business as a ~~bullion coin~~ dealer or as a ~~coin~~ dealer
 9.27 representative without having first registered with the commissioner as required in section 9.28 80G.02, subdivision 1, or who carries on such business after the revocation, suspension,
 9.29 or expiration of a registration, or who violates section 80G.07, subdivision 1, clause ~~(2)~~
 9.30 ~~or~~ (3) or (4), is guilty of a misdemeanor.

9.31 Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 80G.10, is amended to read:

9.32 80G.10 INVESTIGATIONS AND CIVIL ENFORCEMENT.

9.33 Subdivision 1. Civil action instituted by commissioner. If the commissioner
 9.34 believes that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice,

10.1 or course of business constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order
10.2 issued under this chapter or that a person has, is, or is about to engage in an act, practice, 10.3 or course of business that materially aids a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or 10.4 order issued under this chapter, the commissioner may maintain an action in the district
10.5 court to enjoin the act, practice, or course of business and to enforce compliance with this 10.6 chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter.

10.7 Subd. 2. Relief available. In an action under this section and on a proper showing,
10.8 the court may:

10.9 (1) issue a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or declaratory
10.10 judgment;

10.11 (2) order other appropriate or ancillary relief, which may include:

10.12 (i) an asset freeze, accounting, writ of attachment, writ of general or specific 10.13 execution, and appointment of a receiver or conservator, that may be the commissioner,
10.14 for the defendant or the defendant's assets;

10.15 (ii) ordering the commissioner to take charge and control of a defendant's property,
10.16 including investment accounts and accounts in a depository institution, rents, and profits;
10.17 to collect debts; and to acquire and dispose of property;

10.18 (iii) imposing a civil penalty up to $10,000 for each violation; an order of rescission,
10.19 restitution, or disgorgement directed to a person that has engaged in an act, practice, or 10.20 course of business constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued 10.21 under this chapter or the predecessor act; and

10.22 (iv) ordering the payment of prejudgment and postjudgment interest; or 10.23 (3) order such other relief as the court considers appropriate.

10.24 Subd. 3. No bond required. The commissioner may not be required to post a bond
10.25 in an action or proceeding under this chapter.

10.26 Subd. 4. Commissioner authority. (a) If the commissioner determines that a 10.27 person has engaged, is engaged, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of 10.28 conduct constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this 10.29 chapter or that a person has materially aided, is materially aiding, or is about to materially
10.30 aid an act, practice, or course of conduct constituting a violation of this chapter or rule 10.31 adopted or order issued under this chapter the commissioner may:

10.32 (1) issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from engaging in the 10.33 act, practice, or conduct or to take other action necessary or appropriate to comply with 10.34 this chapter; or

10.35 (2) issue an order denying, suspending, revoking, or conditioning the registration of 10.36 the ~~bullion coin~~ dealer or coin dealer representative.

11.1 (b) Upon issuance of an order, the commissioner shall promptly serve each person 11.2 subject to the order with a copy of the order and a notice that the order has been 11.3 issued. The order must include a statement of the reasons for the order and whether the 11.4 commissioner will seek a civil penalty or costs of the investigation, and notice that the 11.5 person must within 30 days of being served with the order, request in writing a hearing 11.6 and that within 15 days after receipt of a written hearing request from the person, the 11.7 matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a person subject to the order does not request a 11.8 hearing within 30 days after the date of service of the order, the order becomes final as to 11.9 that person by operation of law. If a hearing is requested, the commissioner, after notice of 11.10 an opportunity for hearing to each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the 11.11 order or extend it until final determination.

11.12 (c) If a hearing is requested pursuant to paragraph (b), a hearing must be held under 11.13 chapter 14 and a final order may not be issued unless the commissioner makes findings of 11.14 fact and conclusions of law in a record according to chapter 14. The final order may make 11.15 final, vacate, or modify the order issued under paragraph (a).

11.16 (d) If a petition for judicial review of a final order is not filed in accordance with 11.17 chapter 14, the commissioner may file a certified copy of the final order with the clerk of a 11.18 court of competent jurisdiction. The order so filed has the same effect as a judgment of the 11.19 court and may be recorded, enforced, or satisfied in the same manner as a judgment of 11.20 the court.

11.21 (e) If a person does not comply with an order under this section, the commissioner
11.22 may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court may not 11.23 require the commissioner to post a bond in an action or proceeding under this section.
11.24 If the court finds, after service and opportunity for hearing, that the person was not in 11.25 compliance with the order, the court may adjudge the person in civil contempt of the order.
11.26 The court may impose a further civil penalty against the person for contempt in an amount 11.27 up to $10,000 for each violation and may grant any other relief the court determines is just 11.28 and proper in the circumstances.

11.29 (f) In addition to the authority granted under this chapter, the commissioner has all 11.30 the authority provided under section 45.027 to ensure compliance with this chapter.

11.31 Sec. 10. REPEALER.
